3 CHAIRPERSON LANDER: Good afternoon and 4 welcome to the first meeting of the New York City 5 Council Committee on Rules, Privileges, and 6 Elections. I think it's most popular meeting of the 7 meeting of rules, committees, and privileges, and 8 elections that I'm familiar with. But I do hope 9 you'll all come back for future meetings so when we 10 consider rules reforms and many other various in 11 sundry items. I'm Council Member Brad lander and 12 I'm honored to chair this committee. Before we 13 begin I want to introduce the other members of the 14 committee and the other council members who are 15 here today. We're honored to be joined by Speaker 16 Mark-Viverito who's a member of this committee. The 17 other members of the Rules Committee at least for 18 the next hour or two Council Member Donovan
19 Richards from Queens, Council Member Margaret Chin 20 from Manhattan, Council Member Debbie Rose from 21 Staten Island, Council Member Ydanis Rodriguez from 22 Manhattan, Council Member Rafael Espinal from 23 Brooklyn. We're pleased to be joined by the 24 Minority Leader who's an ex officio member of this 25 committee and if you've gotten and read the

2 documents perhaps a future member as well as a
3 number of other council members; Council member 4 Julissa Ferreras from Queens, Rosie Mendez from 5 Manhattan, Mark Weprin from Queens, Corey Johnson 6 from Manhattan so welcome to all of you. And I also 7 want to acknowledge the Committee Council Amotala
8 Booth [sp?] and in a little while I'll think her 9 and some other staff for the strong work that they 10 did in getting ready for today's hearing.

11 Today we're considering a proposed 12 slate of officers, committee chairs, and members 13 that will enable the city council to move strongly 14 forward into the new term under the leadership of 15 Speaker Mark-Viverito. The leaders and chairs put 16 forward here reflect the diversity of our city, of 17 our boroughs, and of this council. They've got 18 relevant experience, expertise, and life history 19 that makes them ideal for their appointments. Just 20 a few examples; our public housing committee chair
21 grew up in public housing and has spent years
22 assisting and organizing residents. Our immigration 23 committee chair proposed today is the first 24 Mexican-American in the council and has taken 25 strong leadership in his community and beyond at 2 immigration issues. Our health committee chair is 3 the first openly HIV positive member of this body

4 and a longtime advocate for better health services.
5 They and the other chairs and leaders proposed here
6 will be able to work closely with the de Blasio 7 administration toward our shared goals of reducing 8 inequality through more broadly shared prosperity 9 in a thriving economy, expanding educational 10 opportunities, creating and preserving affordable 11 housing, addressing the challenges of 12 sustainability and resiliency facing our 13 neighborhoods in the city and so much more given 14 all the committees that are laid out here. In 15 addition the leaders and chairs proposed today will 16 not hesitate to provide strong and independent 17 oversight to hold the de Blasio administration 18 accountable, to exercise the council's duties under 19 the charter, to help identify areas of concern and 20 improve the functioning of our government in ways
21 that improves the lives of the people of New York
22 City. With these committees in place the council
23 will be able to advance legislation, negotiate
24 budget and land use proposals, shine a spot light 25 on critical issues and include the perspectives of

2 the full array of New Yorkers in debates over the 3 future of our neighborhoods and our city. And I 4 hope and I believe that when New Yorkers look at 5 the slate we're presenting, when they look at the 6 council, when they look at the, at our committees, 7 they will see people that have their back, people 8 that look like them, people who are asking the 9 questions they want asked and moving forward the 10 legislative priorities and goals that they want to 11 see move forward. And I'm proud of the, again the 12 committee chairs, leaders, and committee members
13 that we are putting forward today. So let me call 14 peoples' attention to the materials which are 15 before you. We have some copies for members of the 16 press and the public. Again I apologize we, we, we 17 didn't imagine such a fully subscribed committee 18 meeting but more copies are on the way and you'll 19 have them soon and additional copies will be 20 available at the stated a little later.

21 Resolution number one provides the 22 titles and descriptions of the committees and 23 subcommittees, includes amendments to ex officio
24 officers and also to the meeting frequency
25 requirement. We're currently required to meet

2 monthly but there's not that much of January left 3 so we're amending it so that that requirement 4 commences next month as opposed to this one. And 5 the accompanying message M13 provides committee
6 assignments, allowances, officers of the council, 7 and the creation of new committees and 8 subcommittees, an example we are concluding the 9 work, the good work done by the committee on lower 10 Manhattan and instead establishing a committee on 11 recovery and resiliency which will be able to focus 12 on the recovery on Sandy damaged communities and 13 consider the resiliency of all neighborhoods at a 14 critical moment moving forward. I want to say a few 15 thank yous. A lot of work went into this document 16 and we obviously appreciate the leadership of the 17 speaker and her team in putting it together on the 18 staff side last night during the blizzard fairly 19 late into the evening. I want to recognize and 20 thank our committee council Amotala Booth [sp?] as 21 well as Nedire[phonetic] Joshua in the General
22 Counsel's office, Garry Altman[phonetic] and John 23 Lasansky[phonetic] in the Speaker's office, Joe 24 Toronto[phonetic], Rachel Goodman[phonetic], and 25 Michael Friedman Schnapp[phonetic] all of whom put

2 a lot of hours in getting us ready for today so 3 thanks to all of you.

4 We could take comments now. If people
5 have them we'll have a clock of a maximum of two 6 minutes and let me ask whether there's any members
7 who wish to comment beginning with Speaker Mark-
8 Viverito.

9 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: I want to thank 10 all of the council members that are here and the 11 staff and the chair of this committee. Obviously to 12 put together this list of assignments and 13 chairmanships is one that comes after much 14 deliberation, conversations, visits to districts to 15 talk to members about their interest in issues, the 16 work that we need to lay out. Very proud that as 17 that deliberdate[phonetic], deliberation was 18 happening, we were able to come up with assignments
19 that are really truly reflective of the beautiful 20 diversity that is New York City. And that lays out 21 really the extensive scope of work and the agenda
22 that we need to build to make New York City a 23 better place to work on behalf of our individual 24 constituents in our districts but obviously overall 25 for the city of New York. And in the years and in

2 the months to come I look forward very much to work
3 in true partnership with each and every one of you
4 on behalf of New York City. And so thank you Chair
5 Brad Lander for all the work that went into this 6 and to my staff as well. And we look forward to the 7 work ahead so thank you all very much.

8 CHAIRPERSON LANDER: Thank you Madam
9 Speaker. If there's any members who are members or 10 not members of this committee. I recognize ex 11 officio member and Minority Leader Vinny Ignizio.

12 MINORITY LEADER IGNIZIO: Thank you very 13 much Mr. Chairman and then thank you Madam Speaker.
14 I just wanted to convey to those that in the press 15 and then those that are watching on television that 16 I want to confirm what the speaker is, had just 17 said. She has made a deliberative attempt to reach 18 out to every member and to gage their interest in 19 several committees and what they think they can add 20 to assist the people of the city of New York and 21 that's reflected here today. I think this is a very 22 deliberative step towards bringing this body 23 together and I think you know that's ultimately 24 what we need as a council as we move forward into 25 the budgeting process and then the law making

2 process for the next several weeks and months
3 ahead. So I just wanted to commend you Mr. Chairman
4 and commend Madam Speaker for bridging the gap
5 between all sides of this body, bringing it
6 together, and having this function is the rightful 7 body that it is. Thank you.

8 CHAIRPERSON LANDER: Thank you Mr.
9 Minority leader. Any other, either members of the 10 committee or other council members who are here 11 push to make any comments? Okay seeing none we will 12 move on to the roll call on the, on the items on 13 today's calendar. We are coupling the vote on 14 resolution one regarding the committee and 15 subcommittee designations, ex officio members, and 16 meetings together with the message pursuant to M13 17 addressing the committee assignments and 18 allowances. And I would ask the committee council 19 to call the role.

20 CLERK MARTIN: William Martin, Committee
21 Clerk. Roll call vote committee on Rules. Council
22 Member Lander.

23 COUNCIL MEMBER LANDER: Aye.

24 CLERK MARTIN: Rodriguez.

25 COUNCIL MEMBER RODRIGUEZ: Aye.

2 CLERK MARTIN: Chin.

3 COUNCIL MEMBER CHIN: Aye.

4 CLERK MARTIN: Rose.

5 COUNCIL MEMBER ROSE: Aye.

6 CLERK MARTIN: Richards.

7 COUNCIL MEMBER RICHARDS: Aye.

8 CLERK MARTIN: Espinal.

9 COUNCIL MEMBER ESPINAL: Aye.

10 CLERK MARTIN: Speaker Mark-Viverito.

11 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: I vote aye.

12 CLERK MARTIN: By a vote of seven in the 13 affirmative, zero on the negative, and no
14 abstentions both items have been adopted.

15 [applause]

16 CHAIRPERSON LANDER: Thank you. I want 17 to make a couple of closing comments before we 18 adjourn the meeting just on the next steps for the 19 rules committee. One important item, there are many 20 important items in these documents but one 21 important item that the committee took today and 22 that we hope the full council will take as well is 23 to expand the membership of this rules committee to 24 better reflect the diversity of the council. We're 25 adding the Minority Leader. We just voted to add

2 the Minority Leader, to add Council Member
3 Garodnick, Council Member Dickens, Council Member
4 Levin, and Council Member Williams to this 5 committee. As a result the committee will be in a 6 stronger position as we move forward in the coming 7 weeks to consider the advice and consent 8 appointments put forward by the mayor as well as 9 proposals for rules reform to strengthen the 10 council as a body which we'll be taking up in this 11 committee. The first appointment will be 12 considering is Mayor de Blasio's nomination of Mark
13 Peters to serve as the Commissioner of the New York 14 City Department of Investigation, a key position in 15 guaranteeing integrity, combatting corruption, and 16 improving New York City government. We look forward 17 to fair and thorough hearing next week and it has 18 been scheduled or is in the process of being put on 19 the calendar for next Thursday, January 30th at 20 10:30 a.m. We'll do that out in the, out in the 21 chambers where we'll give Mr. Peters a fair and 22 thorough hearing about his qualifications and his 23 vision for the department of investigation
24 including his plans for appointing the first NYPD
25 inspector general to provide strong and independent

2 oversight to help improve policing in all of our 3 communities as required by the law that the council 4 passed last year. And we'll look forward to 5 receiving, people are welcome to come and testify
6 at that hearing or if you have questions that you 7 believe we should ask please reach out to us and 8 provide them. We also look forward to receiving 9 nominations for the Landmarks Preservation 10 Commission, Taxi and Limousine Commission, and 11 other positions that we anticipate will be coming 12 in the future. And in addition we've committed to 13 move forward this quarter with a rules reform
14 process to make the council more responsive, 15 transparent, and effective, taking the politics out 16 of member items, ensuring fair consideration of 17 legislation, other ideas as well. And we'll begin 18 that process with a public hearing which will 19 invite members of the public, good government 20 groups, council members, and others to testify 21 about proposals for changes that they believe or 22 members of the public you believe would strengthen 23 the council. I promise that we'll listen carefully 24 and consider all the ideas not only the ones in the 25 platform that some of us released in the fall but

2 all the ideas that people bring to us before we 3 bring a specific proposal back to this committee 4 and to the full council to consider later this 5 year. So with that, I hope that's enough of a 6 teaser that some of you will come back to future 7 meetings of the rules committee with thanks to the 8 Speaker, to the other members of this committee and 9 the other members of this council.

10 [gavel]

11 CHAIRPERSON LANDER: This meeting of the 12 rules committee is adjourned.

13 [pause]

14 UNKNOWN FEMALE: We're looking to start
15 pretty much on time so please stick around.

16 [laughter, background comments]

17 UNKNOWN MALE: That's the most serious
18 reform, most serious reform at all I think to start 19 the meetings on time.

20 [pause]
