A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to prohibiting vending in front of building entrances and exits, including service entrances and exits.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision d of section 17-315 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

d. No vending pushcart shall be located against display windows of fixed location businesses, nor shall they be within twenty feet of [an] any entranceway to any building, store, theatre, movie house, sports arena or other place of public assembly, or within twenty feet from exits, including service exits, to buildings that are exclusively residential at the street level.

§ 2. Subdivision d of section 20-465 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 112 for the year 1989, is amended to read as follows:

d. No vending pushcart, stand or goods shall be located against display windows of fixed location businesses, nor shall they be within twenty feet from [an] any entranceway to any building, store, theatre, movie house, sports arena or other place of public assembly, or within twenty feet from exits, including service exits, to buildings that are exclusively residential at the street level.

§ 3. Subdivision q of section 20-465 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 112 for the year 1989, is amended by eliminating paragraph three as follows:

[3. within ten feet from entrances or exits to buildings which are exclusively residential at the street level.]

§4. This local law shall take effect ninety days after it shall have been enacted into law.
