By The Speaker (Council Member Mark-Viverito) and Council Members Kallos and Menchaca

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to addressing outstanding criminal warrants

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

File #: Int 1723-2017, Version: A

Section 1. Title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 9-305 to read as follows:

§ 9-305 Outstanding criminal warrants.

a. It shall be a policy of the office to make best efforts to:

1. Work with the New York city police department and any relevant state or federal entity to seek the accuracy of records regarding outstanding criminal warrants.

2. Facilitate the reduction of outstanding criminal warrants.

3. Seek access to efficient processes for members of the public to rectify inaccurate criminal warrants.

b. No later than February 1, 2019, and every February 1 thereafter, the office shall prepare and submit to the council and post on the office's website an annual report regarding actions taken pursuant to this section for the previous calendar year. Such report shall include, to the extent this information is available, the number of outstanding criminal warrants in the city.

§ 2. Section 3-117 of the administrative code of the city of New York is renumbered section 9-306.

§ 3. Title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 9-153 to read as follows:

§ 9-153 Erroneous records. The department shall make best efforts to provide records relating to an individual's period of incarceration necessary to rectify erroneous warrants within three business days of the request for such records.

§ 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this local law take effect 90 days after they become law, and section 3 of this local law takes effect 30 days after it becomes law.
