Int. No. 566

By Council Members Foster, Koppell, Nelson and Mark-Viverito

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to classifying a broken mailbox as an immediately hazardous violation.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 27-2047 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§27-2047 Mail service. The owner of a multiple dwelling shall either:

(1) Arrange for mail to be delivered to himself or herself, his or her agents, or employees for prompt distribution to the occupants; or

(2) Provide and maintain mail receptacles and directories of persons living in the dwelling as provided by federal law and by the regulation of the [post office department] United States postal service. The existence of a broken mail receptacle shall constitute an immediately hazardous violation.

§2. This local law shall take effect immediately after its enactment.
