Int. No. 709

By Council Members Vallone, Halloran, Chin, Mendez and Ulrich

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to limits on the size of motor vehicles that may be parked in residential districts.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1 Subchapter two of chapter one of title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 19-171.3 to read as follows:

§19-171.3 Parking restrictions for oversize motor vehicles in residential districts. Notwithstanding any provision of the New York city charter or the code, parking rules shall not be suspended with respect to the parking, standing or stopping of any motor vehicle that exceeds forty eight feet in length, eight feet in width and thirteen feet and six inches in height on any part of a street that is within seventy-five feet of any residential premises or building that contains residential units.

§2. This local law shall take effect ninety days after its enactment.
