Int. No. 430-A

By Council Members Liu, Koppell, Gonzalez, Gerson, Nelson, Recchia Jr., Stewart, Weprin and Gennaro

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York in relation to identification stickers for commuter vans.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions b and c of section 19-529.4 of chapter 5 of title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York are relettered as subdivisions c and d respectively and a new subdivision b is added to read as follows:

b. Commuter vans shall display a sticker on at least the front, back and sides of such vehicles containing a unique emblem in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission. The commission shall issue such stickers to the commuter van owner upon the issuance of a commuter van license and such sticker shall:

(1) be large enough to be easily seen by law enforcement officers and members of the public;

(2) include information uniquely identifying the van, which may include make and model, color(s) of such van, license plate number or information about the commuter van license and the term of such license;

(3) be hard to replicate, with security features such as holograms or other security features as prescribed by the commission; and

(4) include any other information or features as prescribed by the commission.

§2 The provisions of this local law shall take effect one hundred twenty days after it is enacted; provided that the commission shall promulgate necessary rules and regulations for the prompt enforcement of the provisions of this section.
