Oversight: Gender Equity in NYC: Access, Resources and Support for Transgender, Gender Non-Conforming, and Non-Binary New Yorkers

INTRODUCTION

On Wednesday, November 27, 2019, the Committee on Women and Gender Equity, chaired by Council Member Helen K. Rosenthal, will conduct an oversight hearing on Access, Resources and Support for Transgender, Gender Non-Conforming, and Non-Binary (TGNC/NB) New Yorkers. Witnesses invited to testify include representatives from the New York City (“NYC” or “City”) Commission on Gender Equity (CGE), the Mayor’s Office to End Domestic and Gender-Based Violence (ENDGBV), local legal service providers, activists, advocacy groups, and experts in the fields of gender, gender equity and gender-based violence, as well as other interested stakeholders.

BACKGROUND

Definitions

Gender,<sup>1</sup> per the American Psychological Association (APA), “refers to the attitudes, feelings, and behaviors that a given culture associates with a person’s biological sex.”<sup>2</sup> While gender-normative individuals exhibit “[b]ehavior that is compatible with cultural expectations,” gender nonconforming individuals exhibit “behaviors that are viewed as incompatible with these expectations.”<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, an individual’s sex does not define their gender; “sex usually refers to the biological aspects of maleness or femaleness, whereas gender implies the psychological, behavioral, social, and cultural aspects of being male or female (i.e., masculinity or femininity).”<sup>4</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Note: In an effort to establish a basic understanding of gender identity, this briefing paper attempts to define gender diversity as it relates to TGNC/NB issues. However, due to the developing understanding of constructs, changing usage of terms, and context, they may vary.

Gender identity has long been defined in the binary as “one’s self-identification as male or female.”<sup>5</sup> However, it is now understood that gender identity is not confined within the binary and is defined by a “deeply-felt, inherent sense of being a boy, a man, or male; a girl, a woman, or female; or an alternative gender, [including, genderqueer (sometimes known as “gender fluid”), gender nonconforming, gender neutral], that may or may not correspond to a person’s sex assigned at birth or to a person’s primary or secondary sex characteristics.”<sup>6</sup> As such, one’s gender identity is not necessarily visible to others.<sup>7</sup>

Transgender is an umbrella term used to describe the full range of people whose gender identity does not match one’s biological sex assigned at birth.<sup>8</sup> Whereas, individuals whose gender identity does not align with the binary may identify as nonbinary, which rejects the gender binary, or genderqueer, which may “redefine gender or decline to define themselves as gendered altogether.”<sup>9</sup> Gender nonconforming individuals have a gender expression that does not conform to traditional masculine or feminine gender norms.<sup>10</sup>

Discrimination

TGNC/NB people frequently experience discrimination, violence, social and economic marginalization, and abuse. While the “T” in LGBTQ+<sup>11</sup> stands for transgender, many transgender-identifying individuals do not feel represented as the LGBTQ+ rights movement has picked up <sup>11</sup> LGBTQ+ is an acronym for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer or questioning. Other variations of the acronym include but are not limited to other sexualities such as asexual, demisexual, genderqueer, gender fluid, graysexual, intersex, pansexual, and unassigned at birth. See Michael Gold, The ABCs of L.G.B.T.Q.I.A.+ , The New York Times (Jun. 21, 2018, updated Jun. 7, 2019), available at <https://www.nytimes.com/2018/06/21/style/lgbtq-gender-language.html>.

momentum over the past few decades.<sup>12</sup> Moreover, while the City has done much to support LGBTQ+ New Yorkers, there are policy gaps when it comes to services provided to the TGNC/NB population.

In fact, TGNC/NB individuals are an at-risk group within the LGBTQ+ community.<sup>13</sup> TGNC/NB individuals of color, as well as TGNC/NB youth, have been identified as especially vulnerable populations within the already at-risk group.<sup>14</sup> According to a 2011 national study, 41 percent of TGNC/NB respondents reported attempting suicide, compared to 1.6 percent of the general population, with increased rates among people who lost a job due to bias (55 percent), were harassed and/or bullied in school (51 percent), had a low household income, or were the victim of physical assault (61 percent) or sexual assault (64 percent).<sup>15</sup>

While there are logistical factors and research constraints on the collection of data on TGNC/NB youth generally, studies have indicated that TGNC/NB youth are disproportionately represented in foster care and juvenile justice settings.<sup>16</sup> Moreover, TGNC/NB youth have also reported significant prejudice and discrimination related to their gender identity/expression.<sup>17</sup> Nationally, in the school system, 78 percent of youth who expressed a TGNC/NB identity reported harassment, 35 percent reported physical assault, 12 percent reported sexual violence, and harassment was so severe that nearly 15 percent opted to leave school.<sup>18</sup> In NYC, 87 percent of TGNC/NB youth have reported that it is common for them to be verbally harassed; 42 percent have reported that they had been physically harassed in school by peers due to their gender identity/expression; 44 percent reported that they had been physically assaulted or attacked with a weapon, and 17 percent report that they were physically harassed often or frequently.<sup>19</sup> Of the TGNC/NB youth who reported harassment, only a third indicated that there was an effective response by teachers or the administration.<sup>20</sup> Additionally, TGNC/NB youth who reported high levels of harassment averaged a 2.2 grade point average (GPA), compared to TGNC/NB youth who faced less harassment with an average GPA of 3.0.<sup>21</sup> Due to an unsafe school environment, 47 percent of TGNC/NB youth reported skipping at least one class in the last month, and 46 percent reported missing a full day of school at least once in the past month because of the harassment that they faced.<sup>22</sup> Not only does this impact the educational attainment of TGNC/NB individuals, but such pervasive negative experiences can have a significant impact on TGNC/NB youth's mental health and emotional well-being.<sup>23</sup>

With regard to employment, TGNC/NB people reported experiencing unemployment at twice the rate of the general population, with rates for TGNC/NB people of color up to four times the national unemployment rate.<sup>24</sup> (See Table 1). Ninety percent of respondents reported experiencing harassment, mistreatment or discrimination on the job, or took actions to hide their

Unemployed TGNC/NB individuals reported experiencing debilitating outcomes, including nearly double the rate of working in the underground economy, twice the homelessness, 85 percent more incarceration, and more negative health outcomes, such as more than double the HIV infection rate and nearly the double rate of current drinking or drug abuse.<sup>28</sup> Respondents who had lost a job due to bias reported similar rates of debilitating outcomes.<sup>29</sup>

Concerning housing, 19 percent of respondents reported having been refused a home or apartment, and 11 percent reported being evicted due to their TGNC/NB identity.<sup>30</sup> (See Table 3). Additionally, 32 percent of respondents reported owning their own home, compared to 67 percent of the general population.<sup>31</sup> Concerning homelessness, 19 percent reported experiencing homelessness at some point of their lives due to their TGNC/NB identity; 55 percent reported being harassed by shelter staff or residents when trying to access a homeless shelter, while 29 percent

With regard to discrimination in public accommodations, 53 percent of respondents reported being verbally harassed or disrespected in a place of accommodation; 22 percent were denied equal treatment by a government agency or official; 29 percent reported police harassment or disrespect; and 12 percent had been denied equal treatment or harassed by judges or court officials.<sup>34</sup>

TGNC/NB individuals also reported barriers to receiving updated documents of identification. Of those who transitioned, only 21 percent managed to update all of their documents of identification and records with their new gender; 33 percent of those who transition did not update any of their records; 41 percent of those who have transitioned do not have identification that matches their gender identity; 40 percent of those who presented identification that did not match their gender identity/expression reported being harassed, three percent reported being attacked or assaulted and 15 percent reported being asked to leave.<sup>35</sup> Twenty-two percent of respondents who have interacted with police reported harassment by police, with much higher rates reported by TGNC/NB people of color.<sup>36</sup> (See Table 4). Forty-six percent reported being uncomfortable seeking police assistance; and 16 percent of respondents who had been to jail or prison reported being physically assaulted, while 15 percent reported being sexually assaulted.<sup>37</sup>

Discrimination in health care is a major issue for the TGNC/NB population. Nineteen percent of respondents reported being refused medical care due to their TGNC/NB identity, with higher incidents reported by TGNC/NB individuals of color; 50 percent of respondents reported having to educate their medical providers about transgender care; respondents reported more than four times the national average of HIV infection, with higher incidents reported by TGNC/NB individuals of color; and 28 percent reported postponing care when sick or injured due to discrimination, while 48 percent did so due to an inability to afford it.<sup>39</sup>

At home, 57 percent of respondents reported experiencing significant family rejection, which has been shown to have a negative impact on a TGNC/NB individual’s outcomes. (See Table 5).

GENDER EQUITY IN NEW YORK CITY

NYC strives to be free of gender-based discrimination in all its forms. Since its enactment in 1991, the NYC Human Rights Law has prohibited discrimination based on an individual’s actual or perceived gender identity in employment, housing, and public accommodations, including health care settings.<sup>41</sup>

The Commission on Human Right's enforcement guidance about NYC's Human Rights Law asserts that the following actions are violations of the prohibition on gender discrimination, (1) failing to use the name or pronouns with which a person self-identifies; (2) refusing to allow people to utilize single-gender facilities and programs most closely aligned with their gender; (3) stereotyping based on gender; (4) disparate grooming standards or uniforms based on gender; (5) discriminating in the provision of employee benefits based on gender; (6) evaluating accommodation requests through a gendered lens; (7) discriminatory harassment; and (8) retaliation.<sup>42</sup>

Violations of these the Human Rights Law could result in penalties of up to $125,000 for violations and up to $250,000 for violations stemming from willful, wanton, or malicious conduct.<sup>43</sup>

NYC's Department of Mental Health and Hygiene (DOHMH) has provided further clarification about the rights of TGNC/NB individuals. They have stated that New York State does not allow discrimination against TGNC/NB individuals by Medicaid, Medicare, and health insurers, including those participating in the health marketplace and many employer-sponsored plans.<sup>44</sup> Accordingly, health care coverage could include treatments recommended by doctors including surgery and hormone therapy.<sup>45</sup>

Furthermore, in 2002, the City Council passed the Transgender Rights Bill to expand the scope of gender-based protections to ensure protection for individuals whose “gender and self-image do not fully accord with the legal sex assigned to them at birth.”<sup>46</sup> The impetus for this expansion was the acknowledgement that people facing frequent and severe discrimination based on gender identity were frequently confronting an issue that was a matter of life and death. In 2018, the City Council amended the definition of “gender” to reflect a broader and more inclusive understanding of gender.<sup>47</sup> Now, the definition also encompasses discrimination against someone being intersex and gender discrimination can be based on a person’s perceived or actual gender identity, which may or may not conform to their sex assigned at birth, or based on the ways in which they expresses gender, such as through appearance or communication style.<sup>48</sup>

LANDSCAPE OF TGNC/NB ACCESS, RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

Government Initiatives

Commission on Gender Equity

In 2015, Mayor Bill de Blasio established the Commission on Gender Equity (CGE), which was intended to develop and support policies that promote opportunities for cisgender and transgender women and girls in all areas, including employment, housing, childcare, education, health and reproductive justice, criminal justice, and public safety.<sup>49</sup> CGE advises the Mayor and City Council on initiatives and methods to reduce gender-based inequality.

<sup>47</sup> Compare Local Law 38 (2018)(“gender’ shall include actual or perceived sex, gender identity, and gender expression including a person’s actual or perceived gender-related self-image, appearance, behavior, expression, or other gender-related characteristic, regardless of the sex assigned to that person at birth”) with Local Law 3 (2002) (“gender’ shall include actual or perceived sex and shall also include a person’s gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to that person at birth”).

To better achieve this goal, CGE was formally established by Local Law 67 for the year 2016. Through LL 67/2016, CGE's mandate and goals were formalized, and the commission was better equipped to develop equitable gender policies and recommendations.

CGE is one of the primary offices tasked with providing and improving accesses to gender equity resources in the City. They work with a multitude of city agencies to reduce gender inequity and advance a more inclusive City.<sup>50</sup> As part of their efforts, CGE provides information on healthcare resources for members of the LGBTQ-NC/NB community including a map of LGBTQ knowledgeable providers,<sup>51</sup> information on the LGBTQ healthcare bill of rights,<sup>52</sup> HIV and AIDs medication and resources,<sup>53</sup> best practices information for primary care providers who work with the TGNC/NB community,<sup>54</sup> and a guide of services and resources available to community members.<sup>55</sup>

Additionally, CGE created a Gender Equity Interagency Partnership comprised of representative from each City agency, which identifies the internal and external policies and practices that advance gender equity. The goal of the partnership is to create aligned and sustainable gender equity practices across the administration.

Unity Project

In addition to CGE, First Lady Chirlane McCray established the Unity Project to coordinate LGBTQ+ initiatives across City agencies. The Unity Project calls for a multi-agency strategy to deliver new and enhanced services that address the unique challenges of LGBTQ youth, including those related to work and career success.<sup>56</sup> According to the Unity Project, although young people in New York City fare better than their peers in other cities, there are still LGBTQ+ youths who fall through the cracks and struggle with discrimination, rejection, and mistreatment. Thus, the Unity Project seeks to build and strengthen city programs to ensure LGBTQ+ youth survive and thrive.<sup>57</sup>

The Unity Project plays a role in providing resources to the LGBTQ community, primarily focusing on LGBTQ youth. Specifically, the Unity Project calls for a multi-agency strategy to deliver services that take into account the challenges faced by LGBTQ youth. Through the Unity Project, members of the TGNC/NB community can be connected to community-based organizations (CBOs) or city agencies that provide services including peer support groups, legal services, family support resources, healthcare services, housing assistance, employment advice and assistance and guidance on healthy relationships.<sup>58</sup>

Non-governmental resources

Numerous non-governmental organizations operate on a national scale to provide resources to TGNC/NB individuals. These advocacy groups have been instrumental partners in both providing a voice to the TGNC/NB community and pursuing legislation aimed at improving the lives of TGNC/NB New Yorkers

At the local level, organizations such as NY Transgender Advocacy Group (NYTAG), the Anti-Violence Project (AVP), Translatinx Network, Community Kinship Life, Princess Janae

Place, Callen-Lorde Community Health Center, Make the Road NY TGNCIQ Justice, Gender and Family Project of Ackerman Institute, Transgender Legal Defense and Education Fund (TLDEF), Sylvia Rivera Law Project, and Destination Tomorrow provide services to TGNC/NB community.

Through such organizations, TGNC/NB individuals can gain access to housing, legal assistance, health care services, intimate partner violence shelter and resources, and can engage in advocacy on behalf of the community. According to its website, the Unity Project relies on the resources of these organizations to fill gaps and provide services that are otherwise not available through City agencies.

Make the Road NY, TLDEF, and the Sylvia Rivera Law Project are among the organizations that can be contacted to provide name change services for TGNC/NB individuals. In addition, community members can consult the Ackerman Institute for the Family- Gender and Family Project for family support resources. Similarly, Callen-Lorde Community Health Center provides health care guidance for TGNC/NB individuals and Princess Janae Place can provide housing resources to community members. As intimate partner violence occurs at higher rates in the TGNC/NB community, organizations like AVP are essential in combatting such violence and providing resources to victims.

Overall, these CBOs are instrumental in safeguarding the TGNC/NB community in New York. Their advocacy efforts shine a spotlight on gaps that may otherwise be overlooked and they play an important role in shaping City policies that are informed by the lived experiences of TGNC/NB individuals.

Legislation

The City Council has undertaken efforts to assist the TGNC/NB community in combating discrimination and thriving in the City. Part of these efforts include passing legislation such as the following:

- An all-gender restroom bill, which requires that single stall restrooms in the City be accessible to all genders (LL 079/2016). This ensures that TGNC/NB individuals are not singled out based on perceived gender identities or norms;
- A bill allowing New Yorkers to reflect their non-binary gender identity on their birth certificates without a letter from their health care provider (LL 001/2015) and a recent expansion to allow individuals to correct the gender on birth certificates with just a signed and notarized statement (LL 163/2018);
- A law requiring agencies to collect information about sexual orientation and gender identity to better assess the size of the LGBTQ-NCNB population in the City (LL 128/2016);
- A law requiring DOHMH to create a plan to address the behavioral health needs of the LGBTQ community (LL 117/2017);
- A bill requiring that city agencies update forms to collect accurate gender pronoun information (076/2018);
- A law requiring that hate crime statistics are reported, including crimes based on real or perceived gender identity and sexual orientation (LL 130/2016);
- A bill requiring that agencies complete gender, racial and income equity assessments and create a plan to address the results of those assessments (LL 174/2017);
- A law requiring that agencies provide employees with bias training and cultural competency with regard to race, gender identity, and sexual orientation (LL 175/2017);

- A law expanding the definition of gender in the City Human Rights Law to include gender identity and gender expression (LL 038/2018);

This session, the Council has also enacted legislation to improve transparency in housing decisions for TGNC/NB individuals in correctional facilities (LL 144/2019). Other Council initiatives include legislation to ensure that TGNC/NB individuals in correctional facilities receive mental health (LL 142/2019) and substance abuse treatment (LL 143/2019).

Administrative Efforts

Various City agencies have undertaken efforts to better serve the TGNC/NB community. Some of those efforts include actions by the Department of Corrections, Administration for Children's Services (ACS), and DOHMH as described below.

Department of Corrections

As part of the City's efforts to better support TGNC/NB New Yorkers, the City has adopted a policy of housing individuals based on their gender identity in the Rose M. Singer Center (Rosie's) on Riker's Island.<sup>59</sup> Accordingly, Rosie's has a separate housing unit for TGNC/NB women known as the Transgender Housing Unit (THU). The THU is intended to protect vulnerable populations from victimization at Rosie's. As of July 14, 2019, an auditor determined that the THU facility at Rosie's is compliant with the Prison Rape Elimination Act.<sup>60</sup>

It is essential that when the City incarcerates TGNC/NB individuals, their gender identity is acknowledged and respected. In conversations with TGNC/NB individuals housed in the THU some indicated that it was the first time they had consistent accesses to the health care and hormone treatments necessary to reflect their gender identities.

Administration for Children's Services

ACS has provided information on policies, best practices, and guidance in order to better serve the TGNC/NB children in the child welfare, detention, and juvenile justice systems.<sup>61</sup> This document includes discussions about the challenges to meeting the ACS policy standards and best practices for social, legal, and medical transition.<sup>62</sup> ACS has also provided references to resources that can be consulted to better implement these inclusive policies.<sup>63</sup>

More specifically, the guide provided by ACS affirms that all TGNC/NB youth should be in homes or facilities that are affirming their gender identities and gender expressions.<sup>64</sup> The guide provides recommendations about accommodating the needs and desires of TGNC/NB youth as they transition socially while also providing information about changing documents to reflect the appropriate name and gender of the individual transitioning.<sup>65</sup> The intention of this guide is to improve the experience of TGNC/NB youth in ACS facilities.

Department of Mental Health and Hygiene

DOHMH provides New York's TGNC/NB community with information about the health resources available to them. Through DOHMH, TGNC/NB New Yorkers can find clinics that work with the community with details about the types of services those clinics provide.<sup>66</sup> According to the agency, TGNC/NB individuals and their partners can be at high risk for HIV.<sup>67</sup> Thus, DOHMH

In addition, DOHMH is aware of the prevalence of bullying and other issues in the TGNC/NB community that can jeopardize a person's mental health. Accordingly, information is available about suicide prevention and crisis intervention hotlines.<sup>69</sup> Through its website, DOHMH also refers TGNC/NB individuals who need a place to stay to the Coalition for the Homeless, to facilitate access to city shelters, affordable housing, emergency shelter or housing support.<sup>70</sup>

FINANCE

As with many of the issues the Committee on Women and Gender Equity address, this topic is intersectional with many other matters the Council aims to address. As such, the total funding for TGNC/NB resources throughout the City is across many agencies and not entirely transparent in the budget. The below section highlights the Council's support through its Fiscal 2020 initiatives as they relate to TGNC/NB individuals, followed by items the Council successfully negotiated with the Administration.

Fiscal 2020 Council Initiatives

As demonstrated in the table below, the City Council investment includes $21.5 million in Fiscal 2020 toward initiatives that work to support TGNC/NB individuals in areas of education, employment, workforce development, hate crime prevention and public safety, as well as sexual health and mental health. For details related to each initiative below, please refer to Appendix 1 or see the Council's Schedule C document.<sup>71</sup> It is also important to note that many of the Council's

Fiscal 2020 Budget Wins

The Council secured a commitment of $1 million in funding from the Administration to support curriculum that is inclusive of the LGBTQ community and $200,000 to support LGBTQ Family Outreach. This is in addition to the Council’s investment of $800,000 for the LGBT Inclusive Curriculum. The Council also successfully negotiated a commitment of $390,000 in funding from the Administration for Health+ Hospitals (H+H) to support transgender healthcare trainings and LGBTQ outreach workers. This funding will be used to ensure a more affirming experience for LGBTQ patients that receive services from H+H.

The Administration also invested $710,000 for its new Office for the Prevention of Hate Crimes, which will coordinate with NYPD, City Commission on Human Rights, Mayor’s Community Affairs Unit, Department of Education, Mayor’s Office to End Domestic and Gender-

Based Violence, Mayor's Office of Immigrant Affairs, Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, ThriveNYC, and Department of Youth and Community Development to prevent and respond to hate crimes, including those involving the LGBTQ community.

CONCLUSION

At the hearing, the Committee will seek a measure of all City resources and supports specifically available to TGNC/NB New Yorkers, including outreach efforts. The Committee is also interested in identifying issues and gaps that exist in access and policy.

Introduction

Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget: A Roadmap for the City's Future

Under the second year of Speaker Corey Johnson's leadership, the New York City Council is proud to present the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget. The budget is a document of the City's priorities, and this year's budget presents a roadmap for the City's future - a future that all New Yorkers deserve. The Council approached the budget process with a goal of producing a budget that was equitable, fiscally responsible, and supportive of all. Our progress requires a commitment to these values. The resulting Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget represents the agreement between the Council and Mayor Bill de Blasio to do just that for the people of this great City.

The Path to Budget Adoption

Budget Response

On April 9, 2019, the Council submitted its response to the Mayor's Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Budget. Echoing the Administration's concerns about a possible economic slow-down on the horizon, the Council presented in the Budget Response a balanced financial plan supported by nearly $1 billion in identified savings. The savings identified by the Council were directed towards spending that would shore up and support existing programs and ensure the services the City is providing are sustainable in the long-term, while at the same time protecting New Yorkers in need and making prudent investments

In the prior year's Budget Response, the Speaker and the Council Members highlighted a number of large-scale programs for inclusion in the budget. In contrast, the Fiscal 2020 Budget Response the Council focused on proposals to stabilize the City's strategic investments and safeguard the budget for the future. These proposals included:

- Supporting wage equity and human service providers. The success of many of Mayor de Blasio's signature initiatives rely on the critical work and expertise of the community-based organizations and human services providers that provide the key services to implement these initiatives on the ground. However, the mostly women of color, not-for-profit workers are routinely being paid thousands of dollars less than their similarly credentialed and situated counterparts. Therefore, the Council called for pay parity and indirect cost increases to ensure the long-term sustainability of these programs.
- Safeguard our future by adding to our reserves. The Council called for the addition of $250 million in reserves so the City can maintain a strong fiscal position going forward by taking advantage of the present economic expansion.
- Ensure an accurate census. The Council called for a $40 million investment to ensure a full 2020 Census count to protect federal funding and the apportionment of seats in Albany and Washington D.C. for the next decade.
- Add social workers to schools. There are more than 700 schools that do not have a full-time social worker on staff. Even at schools that do have social workers and guidance counselors, the ratio of these support staff to students is often egregiously low. As a result, the Council called for the addition of 110 social workers in high-need schools.

Fiscal 2020 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

- Maintain current programs. The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget included one-year funding totaling $157.9 million to support a variety of critical programs, such as park maintenance, senior center programming, and after-school programs. Given the importance of these initiatives, the Council urged the Administration to continue this funding in the Fiscal 2020 Executive Budget.
- Fair funding for Parks. The budget for parks has historically been a very small percentage of the City's overall budget for years. The Council called for a $26.5 million investment in parks to improve maintenance and operations.
- Enhance library funding. The Council pressed the Administration to add $27 million for the three library systems in Fiscal 2020, so that they can continue to maintain, grow, and offer the programs and services they have been providing.

As always, the Council continued to request that the Administration promote budget accountability by:

- Adhering to the New York City Charter requirement that units of appropriation be focused and aligned with each agency's programmatic functions;
- Transparently reporting on how services funded through multiple agencies and program areas are budgeted, such as Pre-k for All and Thrive NYC;
- Clearly reflecting the budgets of all City offices in the budget, such as the newly renamed Office to End Gender Based Violence; and
- Providing supplemental reporting on areas of the budget, like shelter spending and NYC Ferry, that are only opaquely reported now.

Executive Budget

On April 26, 2019, the Mayor released his $92.5 billion Executive Budget. The Executive Budget contained $916 million in savings, which was approximately $175 million more than the $750 million Program to Eliminate the Gap (PEG) target made public immediately before the start of the Preliminary Budget hearings. These savings were offset by approximately $150 million in new needs, but did not include any additions to the City's reserves.

Many of those new needs were included to address reductions to the City budget from the Fiscal 2019-2020 Enacted State Budget, which include more than $300 million in cuts, cost shifts, and unfunded mandates for the City. These cuts were aimed at some of the City's most vulnerable populations, with a $125 million cut in financial assistance to families in need, $59 million in cuts to vital health services for vulnerable New Yorkers, and a $25 million education funding shortfall.

In addition, in the Executive Budget, the Mayor finally recognized many of the unfunded budget risks within the City's control that had been omitted from the Preliminary Budget. These risks, which were mostly within the area of education, included an additional $88 million for mandated charter school costs, $33 million in special education initiatives that will hopefully help curb the ballooning cost of Carter case settlements going forward, and another $100 million for those Carter case tuition payments.

But, while it is not uncommon upon the release of the Executive Budget for the Council to lament the lack of its Budget Response priorities being reflected, this year's snub was particularly egregious. This year, not only did the Mayor ignore the vast majority of the Council's spending priorities, but in certain areas, like senior social clubs, libraries, and cultural institutions, where the Council was calling for enhancements and baselining, the Mayor actually made cuts. And while the Mayor adopted nearly $600 million of the Council's proposed savings from its Budget Response, he took those savings to fund Mayoral priorities, and not the programs that the Council identified as critical to its constituents.

The Council's reaction to this exclusion was cohesive, swift, and decisive. As a result, even before the Council's Executive Budget hearings began on May 6, the Mayor agreed to restore funding for approximately $78 million in one-time funding that was included in the Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget at the Council's request. Had this funding not been restored, services such as adult literacy, the addition of 5,000 summer youth employment program slots, and Bridging the Gap social workers for homeless students, would have been eliminated for Fiscal 2020.

Going into the hearings, the Council was pleased to celebrate this victory, but was not yet satisfied because restoring this Fiscal 2019 one-time funding was only one of the many proposals outlined in our Budget Response. Besides the Budget Response items, the Council used the hearings to probe further into the proposed PEG cuts to ensure the funding that the agencies were offering up as savings would not impact core services. There were a number of cuts that the Council found concerning, including the successful Breakfast in the Classroom program, the libraries' materials budgets, grants to smaller cultural institutions, and the closure of several senior social clubs.

The Council was confident in its approach armed with the knowledge that personal income tax collections came in nearly half a billion dollars above the Administration's projections in the Executive Budget it had released on ten days before the hearings began. The Council recognized that in a slowing economy revenue forecasts need to be cautious. However, the boost in those collections meant that the Administration's economic concerns were overstated.

On the capital side, the Council also focused on the deficiencies in the Ten-Year Capital Strategy presented by Mayor de Blasio. Neither the Preliminary nor Executive Strategies were comprehensive in that capital funds were exceedingly front-loaded in the first five years of each plan. Between the releases of the two Strategies, the Administration attempted to mask its failure to plan for the second five years of the Strategy by moving some spending from the first half to the second half of the plan. However, this entirely missed the point of the Ten-Year Capital Strategy, which is to project a comprehensive needs assessment for the following ten years, regardless of whether the Administration can identify the funds to pay for such needs today. Moreover, the Strategy made no clear connections between the City's planned investments and the guiding principles of the capital program as outlined in the introduction to the Strategy.

After three weeks of intensive hearings, the Speaker and the other members of the Council delved into detailed budget negotiations guided by the Speaker's call to do the most good for the people who need it the most.

Adopted Budget

The Council's tenacity paid off for all New Yorkers and as a result of its persistence and negotiation, the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget agreement includes:

Supporting Wage Equity and Human Service Providers:

- Pay parity across the early childhood education system. Because of the Council's advocacy, the Administration is in negotiations with providers to ensure pay parity across the system for all early childhood education employees, both teachers and non-teachers, with funding to support that agreement to be added to the budget after adoption.
- Pay parity for public defense and civil legal service providers. The Administration has committed to providing initial funding in Fiscal 2020 that addresses the immediate recruitment and retention challenges and attempts to slow down the high rate of attrition and inability to recruit experienced staff. At the same time, they will work to build a four-year, full implementation plan to reach pay parity with the Law Department by March 2020 for inclusion in the Fiscal 2021 Executive Budget.
- Support for human service providers. The Administration will fund individual community-based organizations' documented indirect costs based on the City of New York Health and Human Services Cost Policies and Procedure Manual, which allows for the application of an organization's federally approved rate or a CPA certified rate with actions to be reflected in the November Plan and every plan up to and including Adoption 2021. Payment for the agreed upon indirect rate will be in addition to current contract levels and retroactive to July 1, 2019. The Administration will report to the Council, every 4 months, on the number of contracts under review and the status of review.

Safeguarding Our Future:

- Reserves. An additional $250 million will be added to the City's reserves, with $150 million going in the general reserves and $100 million in the Retiree Health Benefits Trust.
- Census. A total of $40 million, including $14 million in Council initiative funding, will be included in the Adopted Budget for outreach, advertising, and community engagement.

Investing in Our Schools

- Social workers. The Adopted Budget will baseline $30 million for 285 new social workers, including 100 Bridging the Gap social workers, 100 social workers for middle schools, and 85 social workers focused on the mental health needs of students and are funded by reallocating $10 million from Thrive NYC.
- Promote Diversity and Inclusion Initiatives. The Administration has agreed to provide $2.2 million to support diversity and inclusion initiatives at DOE.
- COMPASS. An additional 4,000 slots will be created with $14.2 million in baselined funding, bringing the total number of slots to 51,000.
- Title IX coordinators. Seven new Title IX coordinators will be hired due to $857,000 in baselined funding.
- Teacher's Choice. This long-time Council initiative will finally be baselined at $20 million.
- LGBTQ Curriculum. The Adopted Budget will include $1 million for this inclusive curriculum.

Fiscal 2020 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

---

Protecting New Yorkers in Need

- Transgender healthcare. At Health + Hospitals, $390,000 will be baselined for transgender healthcare training.

Effective Budgeting for Better Governance

- Parks. The Adopted Budget will include a historic $43 million in the City's parks. Funding will support 50 new Urban Park Rangers, 80 Parks Enforcement Patrol officers, 150 maintenance workers and gardeners, forestry management, and the Green Thumb program.
- Transportation. Capital funding of $57 million will fund a 287 percent increase in the number of accessible pedestrian signals to assist visually impaired walkers, and $262.8 million will allow for the resurfacing of 1,100 lane miles.
- Libraries. The three library systems will receive $33 million in additional funding, including the restoration of the libraries' PEG, $19 million of which will be baselined.
- Cultural organizations. These vital City resources will see an increase of $26.7 million and the Weeksville Heritage Center will be designated as a Cultural Institutions Group.
- Litter basket pickups. The Adopted Budget will fund additional trash pickup of corner litter baskets with an $8.6 million investment.
- Property Tax Assessors. The Department of Finance will have an additional $250,000 baselined to hire an additional four tax assessors.

Ensuring Fairness in the Justice System

- Transitional housing. Male defendants with mental illness will benefit from a $5 million investment to create 100 new beds.
- Supervised release. This program will be expanded with the inclusion of $7 million.
- Civilian Complaint Review Board. The board will be able to hire additional headcount with an additional $1.5 million.
- Post-arrest diversion. Pre-arraignment programs will be expanded with $3.9 million to provide restorative services to individuals charged with low-level, non-violent crimes.

Maintaining Current Programs

- One-time funding from Fiscal 2019. All of the nearly $158 million in one-time funding will be restored for Fiscal 2020, including $19.7 million for Work, Learn, Grow, $15 million for Summer SONYC, $1.7 million for the beach and pool season extension, $2.8 million for senior centers, $1 million for tree stump removal, and $640,000 for poll site translators.
- PEG Restorations. While many of the PEG savings represented efficiencies, many were unacceptable cuts to core services. The Council fought to restore $6 million for Breakfast in the Classroom, $1.9 million for lot cleaning staff, $885,000 for senior social clubs, and $432,000 for NYC & Co.

Council Initiatives

With the above-referenced items funded by the Administration, the Council focused its initiative spending on enhancing what is already funded in the budget and filling in gaps in services as identified by Council Members as representatives of their local districts and in their capacities as Committee Chairs.

- The New York Immigrant Family Unit Project. The Council will provide $16.6 million to this initiative for legal representation for immigrants detained and facing deportation who cannot afford an attorney.
- Criminal Justice Initiatives. Collectively, the Council will allocate $27.2 million to criminal justice services such as alternatives to incarceration, post-arrest diversion programs, and supports for people involved in the sex trade.
- Public Health Funding Backfill. This initiative will backfill $6 million in public health funding cuts in six core services areas: community health assessment, family health, communicable disease control, chronic disease prevention, environmental health, and emergency preparedness and response.
- LGBT Community Services. A total of $3.7 million will be allocated to support coordinated delivery of health and human services for the LGBT population and their families.
- Alternatives to Incarceration. This initiative will allocate $13.5 million to support programs that provide individuals involved in the criminal justice system with intermediate sanctions, such as community service and substance abuse counseling, as an alternative to pre-trial detention, a jail sentence, or prison.
- Access to Healthy Food and Nutritional Education. The Council will provide $2.3 million to support the expansion of access to healthy food and improve understanding of nutrition and wholesome food choices. A portion of this funding will create a pilot program at the City University of New York to increase food access for food insecure college students.
- Foreclosure Prevention Programs. This initiative will receive $3.3 million for programs such as the purchase of distressed mortgage notes, foreclosure prevention counseling and referral services, legal assistance, outreach, education, and advocacy around sub-prime lending and mortgage foreclosures.
- Day Laborer Workforce Initiative. This nearly $3 million investment will support the expansion and development of day laborer centers.

Units of Appropriation

For decades, the Council has argued that creating more focused units of appropriation aligned with agency programs would give the Council and the public greater ability to conduct better and more thorough oversight of agencies, and allow the budget to be adopted on a program basis. As part of the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget agreement, the Council secured a commitment from the Administration to include a record 20 new units of appropriation between the Fiscal 2020 and Fiscal 2021 budget cycles. These include three in the Administration for Children's Services' budget, five in the Human Resources Administration's budget, ten in the budget of the Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications, and two in the budget of the Department of Housing Preservation and Development.

Terms and Conditions and Other Budget Reporting

The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget also includes 45 terms and conditions. These measures require agencies to facilitate information sharing and reporting as project-specific spending advances in order to increase transparency and strengthen the Council's oversight role. In addition to many terms and conditions that were attached to last year's budget and are being reattached to this year's budget, some of the new terms and conditions for Fiscal 2020 include:

- Updates regarding the budget of Thrive NYC by the Mayor's Office with the release of each financial plan;
- Comprehensive reporting by the Economic Development Corporation on the capital budget for NYC Ferry;
- Joint reports by the Administration for Children's Services and the Department of Correction about the juveniles housed in secure detention as a result of Raise the Age;
- Detailed budget information for the not-for-profit organization created by the de Blasio administration to provide custodial services to our City's schools, the New York City School Support Services; and
- Accurate budget reporting for the multi-agency Office to End Gender-Based Violence.

In addition to the terms and conditions attached to the budget, the Council has secured commitments from the Mayor's office to provide more timely, comprehensive, and ongoing reports on the NYC Health + Hospitals budget and shelter spending by the Department of Social Services.

Schedule C

Schedule C reinforces the Council's commitment to supporting our communities above and beyond the core services already provided by City government. Our spending plan complements the long-term stability, performance, and transparency measures the Council negotiated for as part of the larger budget.

Discretionary Funding

Each year, Council Members allocate discretionary funds to not-for-profit organizations in order to meet local needs and fill gaps in City agency services. While not a large part of the budget, this funding allows the City to take advantage of Council Members' localized knowledge to better target services to residents. Council rules adopted in 2014 raised the already high standard of transparency by which this funding operates in requiring that the method used to allocate funding among Members be publicly disclosed.

In this budget, each Member is allocated a base $400,000 in expense funding. Members are further allocated an additional $25,000; $50,000; $75,000; or $100,000 depending upon the level of poverty in the district.

Procedure and Requirements for Designation

Schedule C designates funding for community based not-for-profit and other public service organizations. Expenditure of any funds for each organization identified in Schedule C is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of: 1) a detailed initial review process; and 2) all applicable City procurement requirements at the time of contract award. Even then, funding may be used only for appropriately reimbursable expenses, as determined by the administering agency.

For-profit entities may not receive discretionary funds, except when the primary not-for-profit funding recipient subcontracts with a for-profit entity as part of the delivery of services. Such proposed subcontracts, however, must be:

- only an ancillary part of the program to be funded - not the primary basis for the discretionary award; and
- pre-approved by the contracting agency and the City Council.

The New York City Council and the Mayor's Office of Contract Services (MOCS) have established the following review for all organizations listed in Schedule C:

- The Council reviews the public purpose, potential conflicts of interest, compliance with the New York State Charities Bureau, past performance, compliance with laws, rules, regulations, and policies, including not-for-profit status, any reported investigations, audits, inquiries, and other relevant information; and
- MOCS reviews organizations which were allocated more than $10,000 cumulatively in this fiscal year to confirm whether the organization has been prequalified, indicating organizational capability to establish a business relationship with the City of New York and deliver specific services.

While approved subcontractors of organizations that receive discretionary funding are not generally required to submit a prequalification application, they are subject to conflict of interest disclosure requirements, as are not-for-profit organizations. Prior to the designation of community-based not-for-profit and other public service organizations, members disclose on the record any potential conflicts of interest with organizations funded by other members.

For organizations requesting funding in excess of $10,000, MOCS conducts an additional review. MOCS reviews each such organization to determine whether the organization has the ability to establish or maintain a business relationship with the City and can demonstrate experience or capability to provide services to New Yorkers. MOCS prequalification is administered through HHS Accelerator and renewed every three years. Each organization's compliance with annual filing requirements is reviewed each year to maintain prequalified status. In addition, the Department of Cultural Affairs (DCLA) administers the Cultural Development Fund to establish prequalification for organizations awarded cultural funds through DCLA.

Further restrictions to ensure the appropriate use of City funds will be incorporated through the City's procurement process.

All organizations receiving funding pursuant to an initiative will be subject to prequalification review and approval by the Mayor's Office of Contract Services.

Anti-Poverty

When allocating funding this year, the Council used a poverty indicator to provide a basis which to fund programs. Poverty was estimated at the Council District level using 2012 American Community Survey data, specifically the number of individuals below the federal poverty level. Funding to the listed organizations will help to address income disparities throughout the five boroughs.

Children's Services

Children's Services initiatives support child care programs and reflect the Council's interest in increasing access to early childhood education programs. The Council has supported child care programs since Fiscal 2013 in order to expand the reach of the City's subsidized day care system beyond those programs with Administration for Children's Services (ACS) EarlyLearn contracts. This fiscal year, all early education contracts will be administered by the Department of Education (DOE), including those funded by the Council. Children Services initiatives also support City's First Readers, enhanced by $750,000 this fiscal year, an innovative consortium program that boosts literacy among the youngest New Yorkers. Early literacy reduces the achievement gap and helps prepare children to start school successfully.

For Fiscal 2020, the Council negotiated with the Administration to increase funding for childcare vouchers by $19.7 million, which will provide approximately 2,600 new vouchers for low-income working families with children. In addition, the Council successfully advocated for the Administration to allocate one-time funding of $10 million to launch the Fair Futures program, a comprehensive support program for foster youth in middle school through age 26, and $2.8 million to fund recommendations from the Foster Care Taskforce. Finally, the Administration agreed to continue its $4.5 million support of child care providers previously supported by the Council, which brings the total allocation to $10.1 million.

Community Development

The Council has long provided funding to community-based organizations that offer a broad range of community’ and capacity-building efforts. In Fiscal 2020, the Council continues its strong support for community development efforts.

The Council successfully negotiated with the Administration to restore a total of $12 million for Adult Literacy services, with the Administration adding $8 million and the Council allocating $4 million to various community-based organizations (CBOs). For Fiscal 2020, the Council has added an additional $2.2 million to support services for LGBT and Transgender New Yorkers with an increase of $1.7 million for the LGBT Community Services initiative and $500,000 for Trans Equity Programs. Other Community Development priorities will help extend digital literacy, build the City’s non-profit sector, and connect New Yorkers to careers in the digital sector. Across all of the following initiatives, a total of $31.5 million will have an impact on largely underserved communities and the organizations that support them.

The Fiscal 2020 Budget supports a major Census 2020 engagement effort called for by the Council in its response to the Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Budget with a total allocation of $40 million. The Council will allocate $14 million to support community-based organizations whose work is essential to ensuring a complete count of all City residents. This Council allocation is in addition to $26 million funded in the Executive Budget by the Administration.

Criminal Justice Services

The Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget includes a shared investment of $156.7 million, in criminal Justice services with a commitment of $129.5 million from the Administration and $27.2 from the City Council. Funding from the Administration supports the expansion of Supervised Release, Project Reset, and Safe Horizon’s Youth Drop-In Centers, as well as the creation of a transitional housing program for male defendants with serious mental illness. Combined funding from the Administration and City Council offers a comprehensive approach to reform public safety and focus criminal justice policies towards fairness for every New Yorker, regardless of gender, race, or socioeconomic status. The City Council is committed to reducing crime while rejecting overly punitive measures that can ruin lives and damage communities. New York City is on the forefront of tackling systemic disparities within the justice system, such as the criminalization of poverty, as well as gender and racial inequities.

The Council’s investment of $27.2 million reflects an increase for criminal justice services of approximately $11.7 million, which push the City Council to create a fair criminal justice system for all. This includes new initiatives around diversion programming including the Driver Accountability program, discharge planning, and support for people involved in the sex trade. Additionally, funding for the Initiative to Combat Sexual Assault increases by $400,000, and funding for the Alternatives to Incarceration (ATI) initiative increases by approximately $5.4 million. Finally, the City Council has restructured the Bail Fund and Center for Court Innovation initiatives into one new initiative, Innovative Criminal Justice Programs, to provide a space for the Council to fund bold new ideas to permanently change the criminal justice system.

The Council allocates more than $31.8 million in Fiscal 2020 to support a varied group of cultural organizations throughout the City. The organizations supported by these initiatives, many of which are smaller than those traditionally supported by the City, provide creative and innovative programming that strengthens the diverse fabric of the City through activities such as art enrichment to the young and increasing access to the unique cultural offerings of immigrant heritages. The Council’s funding ensures that the arts remain a central feature of civic and economic life in the City.

City Council will allow Department of Cultural Affairs (DCLA) to support more than 900 cultural organizations. This council-designated funding is in addition to approximately $24 million added by the Administration at the urging of the Council to enable new and existing cultural organizations to expand their programming. Additionally, at the strong insistence of the Council, on top of the $24 million in funding added to the budget, the Administration restored almost $3 million in reductions that it proposed in the Executive Budget.

Education

The City Council continues to prioritize the needs of NYC public school students, teachers, and staff across all five boroughs for Fiscal 2020. In the Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Response, the Council called on the Administration to add 110 social workers in high-need schools and baseline 69 Bridging the Gap social workers. With strong advocacy, the Council successfully negotiated a historic $30 million baseline investment for 285 social workers. In addition, as called for in the Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Response, the Administration has agreed to use existing resources to ensure bussing for students in foster care and will provide $857,000 to fund Title IX coordinators.

For Fiscal 2020, the Dropout Prevention and Intervention initiative and Child Mind Institute initiative are restructured to better reflect the services and goals of programs funded. Two new initiatives have been created, College and Career Readiness, and Social and Emotional Support for Students, which will support providers previously funded through the Child Mind Institute and Dropout Prevention and Intervention initiatives.

The Administration has allocated $2.6 million to support community school sustainability for Fiscal 2020. This funding supports schools formerly funded by a state community school grant. Additionally, $20 million for Teacher’s Choice, which has been historically funded by the Council and provides educators with up to $250 to spend on school supplies, is now baselined in the Department of Education’s budget. The Council continues its support of educators and has increased funding for the United Federation of Teachers Educational Foundation. The Council will provide funding to support the Positive Learning Collaborative program ($1,500,000), the BRAVE mental health hotline ($200,000), the creation of a new teachers center ($3,500,000) and the expansion of Dial-a-Teacher to an online platform ($68,800).

For Fiscal 2020 the Council continues its support for LGBTQ-Inclusive Curriculum in schools. In addition to the Council’s investment, the Administration will provide $1,000,000 to support curriculum that is inclusive of the LGBTQ community and $200,000 to support LGBTQ Family Outreach.

The Administration has also agreed to provide $2.2 million to support diversity and inclusion initiatives for Fiscal 2020, as requested by the Council in the Preliminary Budget Response. Both the restorative justice program (present in 25 schools across the City), and Urban Advantage science education initiative, which were previously jointly funded by the Council and the Administration, are funded by Administration in Fiscal 2020 for one year only.

In the Executive Budget, the DOE proposed $105 million in savings in Fiscal 2020, and some of these savings were derived by reducing funding for vital programs. The Council fought to restore a $6 million proposed savings for the Breakfast in the Classroom program for Fiscal 2020, and the Council will fund $750,000 of the $2 million in proposed savings taken from the Middle School Quality Initiative Program (MSQI).

Environmental Initiatives

In Fiscal 2020, the Council allocates $17.3 million for programs that protect and improve the environment and promote cleaner communities, in addition to providing employment opportunities for the economically disadvantaged and training residents on sustainable environmental practices. Since Fiscal 2015, funding for this program area has increased by $13 million, which is a reflection of the Council’s commitment to ensuring New York is a more equitable, efficient, and environmentally friendly City.

As the City’s population and tourism continue to grow, sanitation and environmental investments need to be increased. To address this, the Council enacted the Climate Mobilization Act (“New York City’s Green New Deal”) to combat climate change. The Council was also successful in negotiating a restoration of $2.8 million in proposed service reductions for Fiscal 2020 related to highway ramp cleaning, and lot cleaning. In addition to restoring prior year funding levels, the Council secured an additional $8.6 million in the Fiscal 2020 budget for citywide sanitation services, as well as $620,000 to disburse reusable bags in anticipation of the plastic bag ban that goes into effect during this upcoming fiscal year. With the Council’s strong advocacy and focused investments, the City is better positioned to achieve Zero Waste by 2030, as well as an eighty-percent reduction in greenhouse gas emissions by 2050.

Food Initiatives

The Council’s food initiatives support critical programs that assist low-income New Yorkers to access food and federal benefits, as well as increase awareness of healthy food options and nutrition. This funding supports hundreds of soup kitchens and food pantries across the City that supply freshly cooked meals, fresh meat and produce, shelf-stable grocery items, and frozen food to families and individuals. Food initiative funding also supports programs that improve access to affordable, healthy food in low-income communities through farmers markets, community gardens, urban agriculture, nutritional education, and hands-on training such as cooking demonstrations and health-focused classes. Council funding also supports the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Tax Assistance Program, which provides free tax assistance services to low-income, working individuals and families, and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) education, eligibility screening, and application and recertification support.

This fiscal year, the Council enhances the Access to Healthy Food and Nutritional Education initiative by $1.2 million, for a total of $2.26 million. Of the $1.2 million, $1 million supports a pilot program at the City University of New York (CUNY) to increase food access for food insecure CUNY students. The remaining enhanced funding supports citywide and community-based organizations to improve food access and nutrition education in low-income communities. Additionally, the Council enhances the Food Pantries initiative by $1 million for a total of $5.66 million in Fiscal 2020.

Finally, the Council successfully negotiated with the Administration to include one-time funding of $1 million for Fiscal 2020 to support Halal and Kosher meals at Department of Education’s (DOE) schools. This initiative was funded by the Council in Fiscal 2019.

Health Services

The Health Services initiatives funded by the Council in Fiscal 2020 demonstrate the Council’s commitment to reducing health disparities and promoting good health. The total funding of $24.2 million will support a spectrum of health services and programs for New Yorkers. Funded programs include the provision of reproductive and sexual health services, cancer prevention and support programs, and distribution of automated external defibrillators (AEDs).

Major investments in Fiscal 2020 include $7.7 million, an increase of $700,000 for Ending the Epidemic. Additional funding of the $1.9 for million Viral Hepatitis Prevention Initiative will support efforts to combat the spread of HIV and Hepatitis B/C passed through intravenous drug use and other modes of transmission. The $1.1 million HIV/AIDS Faith-Based Initiative also supports this work through religious institutions and community-based organizations.

Another major investment in Fiscal 2020 is a $500,000 increase to the Access Health Initiative; for the Managed Care Consumer Assistance Program (MCCAP), that helps people enroll in and use managed care insurance. The Council also bolstered its commitment to reducing the high rates of maternal morbidity and mortality among women of color in NYC with a $500,000 enhancement to the Maternal and Child Health Services Initiative. The Council’s Child Health and Wellness Initiative will further support children’s health through programs intended to combat childhood obesity, asthma, and dental cares. The Council enhanced the Reproductive and Sexual Health Services Initiative by $250,000, to almost $600,000, to broaden access to reproductive health services.

In addition, $3 million has been restored to DHMH’s budget to support animal care centers in NYC. Health and Hospitals (H+H) received $390,000 in funding to support transgender healthcare trainings and LGBTQ outreach workers. This funding will be used to ensure a more affirming experience for LGBTQ patients that receive services from H+H. ## Higher Education Initiatives

The City Council has an established record in supporting public higher education in New York City. In Fiscal 2020, the Council’s total support for higher education programs and services is approximately $22.7 million. Additionally, the Council’s Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Budget Response championed, and subsequently won, the restoration of $2 million for the City University of New York’s (CUNY) remediation programming. With an allocation of $500,000 this year the Council is supporting the creation of the CUNY Diversity Incubator to train students, faculty and staff to promote greater campus inclusion. As an incentive for high academic achievement, the Council again funds the Peter F. Vallone Academic Scholarship, a merit-based scholarships for city high school graduates attending CUNY colleges and the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT). In Fiscal 2019, the Joseph S Murphy Institute for Worker Education transitioned to the CUNY School of Labor and Urban Studies (SLU), and in Fiscal 2020 the institute will be awarded a $200,000 enhancement to increase student enrollments and sustain and expand services. Further initiatives support childcare needs of students, research, workforce development, and cultural activities across CUNY campuses.

Homeless Services

In Fiscal 2020, the Council continues to fund emergency grants to families in crisis and at risk of eviction, in order to keep them in their homes and avoid the shelter system, through the Citywide Homeless Prevention Fund. This initiative builds upon the Administration’s efforts to prevent families from entering the homeless shelter system. Additionally, the Council funds an innovative program to address the mental health and emotional needs of families in shelter as well as providing wrap-around aftercare services to families through the Children and Families in NYC Homeless System Initiative. This initiative fills a gap in trauma-informed services not currently provided by the Administration and works towards the long-term goal of keeping families out of shelters.

Housing

Funding from the City Council provides critical resources to ensure that communities access the tools, resources, and programming necessary to address local housing needs. In Fiscal 2020, the City Council has allocated approximately $13.8 million to HPD’s annual operating budget to support various housing initiatives, including tenant advocacy and education, code enforcement advocacy, housing court assistance, and other housing-related public education and $255,000 to the Department of Consumer Affairs’ (DCA) operating budget for financial empowerment and housing application support for tenants. This year, the Council has consolidated foreclosure prevention programs under one initiative and enhanced this initiative by $1 million for a total of $3.25 million. The Council further bolstered its commitment to homeowners with a $1 million enhancement to the Home Loan Program.

In Fiscal 2020, the Council launches a new initiative to develop and expand the community land trust (CLT) model citywide; this action builds upon recent legislation passed by the Council codifying CLT’s and allowing the City to enter into regulatory agreements with them. In addition, with the Council’s support and collaboration, the Administration added an enhancement of $750,000 to the Adopted Budget for critical building repairs in the HPD Alternative Enforcement Program. Most of the Council funding, approximately $13.8 million, is allocated directly to local community-based organizations, which are tasked with carrying out the goals of Council housing initiatives. In addition to these funded initiatives, in the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget, the City will add $500 million to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development’s (HPD) Capital Budget to support the construction of 800 additional affordable senior housing units over the next four years.

Immigrant Services

For Fiscal 2020, the City Council included $29.1 million for immigrant services that reflect the Council’s continued commitment to ensuring that immigrant New Yorkers have access to legal assistance, health services, and other supports. This includes an expanded commitment to the New York Immigrant Family Unity Project (NYIFUP), the nation’s first government-funded legal representation program for detained and non-detained immigrants facing deportation. In Fiscal 2020, the Council increased funding to NYIFUP by $5 million to allow providers to respond to the increased number of courtrooms and detained cases at the Varick Street Court House and fulfill New York City’s commitment to ensure that no family is torn apart by deportation because they could not afford a lawyer. Additionally, the Council increased the Unaccompanied Minors and Families Initiative by $1.7 million to support the Immigrant Children Advocates’ Relief Effort (ICARE) coalition. ICARE is a public-private partnership established by the City Council in 2014, in partnership with the Robin Hood Foundation and New York Community Trust. With increased funding, the nonprofit organizations that comprise ICARE will continue to provide advice, direct legal representation, and social services to children and families in deportation proceedings in New York City.

The Council also supports continued access to “Key to the City” events, legal and social services for children in removal proceedings, and free legal services to assist immigrants on their paths to U.S. citizenship. The City Council continues its groundbreaking support for services focused on reducing health disparities among foreign-born New Yorkers, and services to adults with children and unaccompanied minors in removal proceedings in New York’s immigration courts. In Fiscal 2020, as part of the Council’s commitment to reach more communities throughout the City, the Council increased funding for the CUNY Citizenship Now! Program by an additional $750,000.

Legal Services

In Fiscal 2020, the Administration and the City Council’s collaborative efforts to increase access to civil legal services has resulted in an investment of $171 million. The City Council will provide approximately $12.5 million for civil legal services to low and middle-income New Yorkers - this represents an increase of $2 million compared to Fiscal 2019. In an effort to address child separation, to support legal guardians, and reduce racial disparities in the child welfare system the City Council expands its legal services initiatives with its new Family Advocacy and Guardianship Support Initiative funded at $1.5 million. Additionally, in Fiscal 2020, the Council provides a $500,000 enhancement to Legal Services for Low-Income New Yorkers. Through its Legal Services Initiatives, the City Council is committed to ensuring that those with less means receive equal representation and advocacy in civil cases and navigating the legal system.

As part of the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget, the Administration has committed to phase-in pay parity for public defenders over the course of four years. Additionally, the Human Resource Administration’s Office of Civil Justice will incorporate a new unit of appropriation to reflect personal services spending. Finally, the Administration restores $2 million for the Low Wage Worker Initiative, which aims to assist individuals in employment-related civil legal cases. The Council allocates an additional $500,000 to the Low Wage Worker Support initiative as well, for a combined total of $2.5 million.

Libraries

The Council allocated $14 million in Fiscal 2020 to the library systems to continue to provide the same level of service they delivered during the nearly 37 million collective visits last fiscal year. The cost of providing six-day services has increased and substantial funding is needed to sustain operations and ensure the libraries continue to provide vital programs to their patrons and the communities. Along with increases in programming and circulation, the library systems have also seen a rise in the cost of materials, staff, and operating expenses. These funds will allow the systems to maintain physical spaces and cover repairs and upkeep that are not Capital eligible.

This Council funding is in addition to a $16 million increase in baseline funding provided by the Administration at the urging of the Council. In addition, the Administration restored proposed $2.4 million PEG which would have required the systems to decrease their DVD and material acquisition.

Parks and Recreation Services

This year, in the Fiscal 2020 Preliminary Budget Response, the City Council called on the Administration to increase funding for parks maintenance and operations. Although no additional funding for Parks was included in the Fiscal 2020 Executive Budget, the Council successfully negotiated with the Administration to include an additional $43.5 million in the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget. This funding will provide $19.6 million for Parks Maintenance workers, including 200 City Park Workers (CPW) and 100 gardeners, of which $9.6 million for 100 CPWs and 50 gardeners is baselined; $1 million to support DPR’s efforts on tree stump removal; $1.7 million to extend the City’s pool and beach season by an additional week; $3 million for additional 50 Urban Park Rangers; $6 million for an additional 80 Parks Enforcement Patrol (PEP) officers; $4 million for Forestry Management; and $8.2 million to support all 550 GreenThumb community gardens citywide. In addition, the Council will continue its investment in parks with an allocation of $5.1 million, including a $510,000 enhancement, for the Parks Equity Initiative program. Combined, these additional allocations represent a $48.6 million increase in DPR’s budget over what was proposed in the Executive Budget. This will allow the Department to continue to improve the maintenance of parks and natural forests and to increase support for various local neighborhood parks and gardens citywide.

Public Safety

In the Fiscal 2020 Adopted Budget, the City Council will provide $4.6 million towards a variety of public safety initiatives and programs that support the Council’s efforts towards the provision of public safety and violence reduction across the City. The Council continues its commitment to Art a Catalyst for Change to use arts and education for violence reduction and conflict mediation. The Council also continues the partnership with the Administration in funding the Crisis Management System, which uses a community-based approach to prevent gun violence, restore damage done to communities, and respond to specific incidents. The total funding for the Crisis Management System in Fiscal 2020 is $36.2 million, of which the Administration provides $33.3 million and the Council provides $2.9 million.

New in Fiscal 2020 is $1 million for the Hate Crimes Prevention initiative, which supports community-based organizations to provide hate crime prevention services, education, and healing programs to bring communities closer together and counteract the serious and negative consequences brought on by bias and hate incidents. Services will focus on the diverse communities of New York City and will include training on bystander and upstander interventions, community-based reporting, counseling and peer support, community events, and educational programs. Additionally, pursuant to Local Law 46, the Administration will provide $710,000 to fund the newly created Office of Hate Crime Prevention.

The Council successfully lobbied for the Administration to include $6.9 million for District Attorneys programs and operational needs. The Administration also agreed to continue its commitment to fire safety by allocating $1 million in funding for the Get Alarmed program. Finally, due to the Council’s support, the Administration will fund $1.5 million to increase the investigator headcount for the Civilian Complaint Review Board.

Senior Services

Senior services initiatives fund innovative services for niche senior populations, including Holocaust survivors, immigrants, and LGBT seniors, in addition to providing support to core Department for the Aging (DFTA) services such as senior center programming, case management, and elder abuse prevention.

For Fiscal 2020, the Council strongly advocated for the Administration to make significant investments in senior services, and successfully negotiated for $10 million in baselined funding for Fiscal 2020, growing to $15 million in Fiscal 2021 and in the outyears for senior congregate meals and kitchen staff, and $2.1 million for the restoration of five DFTA social clubs and five New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) social clubs that were slated to close beginning in Fiscal 2020. These NYCHA social clubs will now be operated by DFTA. In addition, the Council negotiated for one-time Administration funding which totals $6.64 million in Fiscal 2020: $3.8 million for senior centers and Naturally Occurring Retirement Communities (NORCs) previously funded through the Council’s Senior Centers, Programs, and Enhancements initiative and NORC initiative and $2.84 million for home delivered meals.

Finally, the Council has extended its support for senior services with enhancements to existing initiatives of $1.75 million for NORCs, which will ensure nursing services are maintained, $1 million for Support Our Seniors, $700,000 for Senior Centers, Programs and Enhancements, $500,000 for Elie Wiesel Holocaust Survivors, and $450,000 for Social Adult Day Care. The Council’s enhancements of $4.4 million bring total support for senior services to over $28.4 million for Fiscal 2020. The total of negotiated additions and Council discretionary support grows DFTA’s Fiscal 2020 budget by $47.1 million, or 13 percent, from $363 million to $410 million.

Small Business Services and Workforce Development

The City Council has allocated approximately $22.5 million in Fiscal 2020 to support the formation and growth of the City’s small businesses and promote neighborhood development as well as workforce development. The Council enhances the Day Laborer Workforce Initiative by $1 million. This initiative provides day laborers with referrals to jobs, legal services to address issues such as wage theft, as well as workforce training and development. The Job Training and Placement Initiative that provides job training and/or placement services to union workers, under-employed and long-term unemployed individuals, immigrant and minority populations, and/or low-income individuals is also enhanced. By enhancing the Neighborhood Development Grant Initiative the Council supports neighborhood-level initiatives that promote economic development, job creation and retention, and community investment.

Additionally, at the urging of the Council, the Administration restored the PEG reduction of $432,000 it had proposed for NYC and Company, the City’s official marketing, tourism, and partnership organization. These initiatives build on the services offered by the Department of Small Business Services to reach a wider and more diverse range of small businesses and workers, particularly in emerging employment areas such as worker-run cooperatives, and green technology jobs.

Fiscal 2020 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Veteran Services

Through the Veteran Services Initiatives, the City Council maintains its strong support for one of the City’s most respected populations. In Fiscal 2020, these initiatives provide $2.87 million to various community organizations to address the critical needs of veterans in New York City. This represents an increase of $530,000 over Fiscal 2019. This funding builds upon the work of the Department of Veterans’ Services, which the City Council established with the passage of Local Law 113 of 2015. This agency, which is in its fourth year of operation, has greatly bolstered the City’s capacity to develop and implement a sustainable and long-term strategy to serve our veteran population. In addition, the City Council further anchored its support for veterans by extending Fair Fares eligibility to veteran students currently enrolled in New York City colleges, which is anticipated to start this year.
