

LOCAL LAWS
OF
THE CITY OF NEW YORK
FOR THE YEAR 2026

No. 100

Introduced by Council Members Joseph, Louis, Feliz, Hudson, Banks, Cabán, Gutiérrez and Lee.

A LOCAL LAW

To amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to reporting on warming centers

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 1 of title 21 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 21-157 to read as follows:

§ 21-157 Reporting on warming centers. a. Definitions. For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Accessible. The term “accessible” means a warming center complies with the requirements of accessibility for persons with disabilities that are applicable to such warming center under applicable federal, state and local law, including, but not limited to, the Americans with Disabilities Act, as codified at chapter 126 of title 42 of the United States code.

Enhanced code blue alert. The term “enhanced code blue alert” means a weather emergency notice that the city issues when the temperature or wind chill is forecasted to reach 32 degrees Fahrenheit or below between the hours of 4:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

Visitor. The term “visitor” means an individual who visits a warming center.

Vulnerable population. The term “vulnerable population” means a group of persons in the city who are at a greater health risk of harm than the general population during an enhanced cold blue alert including, but not limited to, older adults, low-income individuals and families, individuals with disabilities or mobility impairments, individuals with chronic health conditions, young children and infants, and individuals experiencing homelessness.

Warming center. The term “warming center” means a space designated by the city for the public to obtain refuge during an enhanced code blue alert that is operated by the department or the office of emergency management.

b. Annual reporting on warming centers. No later than April 15, 2027, and annually by April 15 thereafter, the commissioner, in collaboration with the commissioner of emergency management, shall submit a report to the mayor and the speaker of the council assessing warming centers during the prior calendar year, and shall post such report on the department’s website in a machine-readable format. Such report shall consider the scope, accessibility, and equity of such warming centers and shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

1. A list of each warming center, indicating for each such warming center the following information:

(a) The name of such center;

(b) The zip code and borough in which such center operated;

(c) The type of space in which such center was located, including, but not limited to, a community center, a public library, a New York city housing authority building or a school;

(d) The number of days and the number of hours per day that such center operated;

(e) The number of staff in such center;

(f) The total number of visitors to such center; and

(g) Whether such center is accessible.

2. An assessment of the geographic availability of warming centers, including analysis of whether such warming centers are reasonably available and accessible for vulnerable populations; and

3. Recommendations to improve the availability, geographic distribution, accessibility, equity, and utilization of warming centers for the city's general population and for vulnerable populations.

§ 2. This local law takes effect immediately.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK, s.s.:

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a local law of The City of New York, passed by the Council on April 30, 2026 and returned unsigned by the Mayor on June 1, 2026.

MICHAEL M. McSWEENEY, City Clerk, Clerk of the Council.

CERTIFICATION OF CORPORATION COUNSEL

I hereby certify that the form of the enclosed local law (Local Law No. 100 of 2026, Council Int. No. 790-A of 2026) to be filed with the Secretary of State contains the correct text of the local law passed by the New York City Council, presented to the Mayor, and neither approved nor disapproved within thirty days thereafter.

BRENDA COOKE, Acting Corporation Counsel.
