and we enter this meeting on today with thanksgiving,
knowing that we are divinely ordered to be here in this moment in time in history on purpose with a purpose.
We welcome your presence and look to you for all that we need in this time together.
Lord, please lift us, fill us, prepare and open us to the diversity of our voices and gifts which you gave to each of us as a blessing to the universe.
We're also bringing excitement to what will happen today,
because we know that you do all things well.
Therefore, we thank you in advance for all that will come out of our time together, and for the blessing that will flow to those whom we serve.
We ask and claim these things in the name of all that is holy.

REPORTS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES

Reports of the Committee on Finance

Report for Res. No. 79

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and had been favorably reported for adoption.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of a Resolution authorizing an increase in the amount to be expended annually in the Sutphin Boulevard Business Improvement District, an extension of the boundaries of such district, a change in the method of assessment upon which the district charge in such district is based, and an increase in the maximum total amount to be expended for improvements in such district, and setting the date, time and place for the public hearing of the local law authorizing such changes as set forth in the amended district plan of the Sutphin Boulevard Business Improvement District.

The Committee on Finance, to which the annexed preconsidered resolution was referred on March 24 2022, respectfully

REPORTS:

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to the authority granted by chapter 4 of title 25 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (hereinafter the “Law”), the Mayor and the Council are authorized to establish and extend Business Improvement Districts (hereinafter “BIDs”) in New York City and thereafter amend each BID’s district plan or authorize an increase in annual expenditures. BIDs, which are specifically established areas, use the City’s property tax collection mechanism to approve a special tax assessment with which to fund additional services that would enhance the area and improve local business. The additional services are normally in the areas of security, sanitation, physical/capital improvements (lighting, landscaping, sidewalks, etc.), seasonal activities (Christmas lighting) and related business services (marketing and advertising). The District Management Association of a BID carries out the activities described in the BID’s District Plan.

Jamaica’s Existing BIDs and SADs

The Sutphin Boulevard BID was established in 2004 and includes properties along a half-mile stretch of Sutphin Boulevard between Hill Side Avenue and 94th Avenue. The Jamaica Station and rail yard are also included in the existing Sutphin Boulevard BID boundary. The Sutphin Boulevard BID is also directly adjacent to two Special Assessment Districts (SADs), which were created by the state legislature under an earlier legal framework, and which are similar to BIDs. The 165th Street Mall SAD was created in 1978 and generally operates along 165th Street between Jamaica Avenue and 89th Avenue. The Jamaica Center SAD was created in 1979, generally operates along Jamaica Avenue between Sutphin Boulevard and 170th Street, and is the largest of the three entities.

The SAD structure was superseded by the BID structure in 1982. For the first time, allowing the City and City Council to decide on the establishment of BIDs instead of the state legislature. The BID model includes more specific governance controls, including that a BID board must have a residential tenant representative and representatives from elected officials making the BID board more accountable to stakeholders.

Consolidation Proposal

There has also been a preference noted by local business owners to move away from the SAD model to a purely BID model for Downtown Jamaica. Outside of downtown Jamaica, there is only one SAD left in New York City.

Since 2014, the Department of City Planning, the Economic Development Corporation, the Queens Borough President's Office, the Department of Small Business, and local Council Members have worked with local stakeholders to articulate an economic development strategy for downtown Jamaica. In 2015, and again in 2019, these agencies and elected officials have articulated a proposal to create a unified BID for downtown Jamaica. The proposal presented to the Council is to absorb the territory covered by the 165th Street Mall SAD and the Jamaica Center SAD into an expanded and renamed Sutphin Boulevard BID.

As detailed in the Amended District Plan, the Sutphin Boulevard BID District Plan would be amended in three main ways.

First, the district plan would expand the Sutphin Boulevard BID boundary to encompass all properties currently in the 165th Street SAD and Jamaica Center SAD. This would significantly increase the size of the Sutphin Boulevard BID eastward to encompass approximately one mile of Jamaica Avenue between Sutphin Boulevard and 170th Street. It would also expand the Sutphin Boulevard BID to a one-block portion of 165th Street between Jamaica Avenue and 89th Avenue. The expanded BID would include approximately 230 tax lots and 590 storefront spaces. No properties currently unassessed by a BID or SAD will be included in the expanded area.

Second, the district plan would rename the Sutphin Boulevard BID to the Downtown Jamaica BID, to better reflect the expanded geography it will serve.

Third, the district plan would alter the formula used to calculate property owner contributions to the BID. The new assessment formula would require commercial and mixed-use properties to pay a share proportional to their property's width and assessed value. Specifically, commercial and mixed-use lots would be assessed at approximately $61 per linear front foot per year, plus an additional $0.002 per dollar of assessed value per year. The median annual contribution for a commercial or mixed-use tax lot would be approximately $3,849, which is 9 percent less than if the three BIDs and SADs remained separated. Solely residential tax lots would be assessed at an annual flat fee of $1 per lot. Finally, government and not-for-profit-owned property devoted solely to public or not-for-profit use would be exempt from an assessment.

Funded by an assessment on properties within the BID, the estimated first-year BID budget would be $1,350,000 with the option to increase the assessment budget to $1,500,000 in future years. A new governance and management structure to run the BID would be established by the local community in coordination with SBS. That District Management Association would determine the exact budget allocation, but proposed services may include street cleaning, beautification projects, and public safety services above and beyond what is already offered by the city. The BID may also coordinate and advocate on behalf of the BID's residents and businesses to deliver marketing, public events, and other economic development activities. The projected budget allocation to supply those services is outlined below:

- Sanitation services (30 percent of the budget), including graffiti removal and sidewalk cleaning;
- Management, administration, and advocacy expenses (28 percent of the budget), including salaried staff and office expenses;
- Public plaza and mall operations (16 percent of the budget);
- Marketing and public events (11 percent of the budget);
- Public safety services (eight percent of the budget); and
- Beautification services (seven percent of the budget).

On January 19, 2022, the City Planning Commission held a hearing on the recommended amendments to the District Plan and on February 16, 2022 (Calendar No. 17) adopted a resolution certifying its unqualified approval of the amended Downtown Jamaica (Sutphin Boulevard) BID District Plan.

Mechanics of SAD Dissolution

The proposed expansion of the Downtown Jamaica (previously Sutphin Boulevard) BID would be contingent upon the successful dissolution of the 165th Street Mall SAD and the Jamaica Center SAD. Section 25-415(a) of Chapter 4 of Title 25 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York provides that the Council may dissolve a SAD by enactment of a local law but must first request and consider the recommendations of the district management association of the SAD proposed to be dissolved, provided that the Council may proceed if the district management association does not provide comment within 60 days of such request.

On March 18, 2022, Speaker Adams sent a letter on behalf of the Council, both by email and by certified mail, to the district management association of both the 165th Street Mall SAD and the Jamaica Center SAD, soliciting recommendations regarding the proposed dissolution of each district management association for the consideration of the Council.

On March 21, 2022, representatives of the Department of Small Business services submitted a notice for publication in the City Record on March 28, 2022, detailing the proposed BID expansion and SAD dissolution, and inviting comments both in writing and in person at the Council's hearing on the proposed local law.

All local Council Members expressed their support of the recommended amendments, either at the hearing held by the City Planning Commission on January 19, 2022 or in letters of support on file with staff to the Committee on Finance -- or both.

PRECONSIDERED RES. 79

This Preconsidered Resolution is required by law to set the public hearing date, time, and place for the consideration of the local law which would amend the district plan of the Sutphin Boulevard BID. The public hearing will be held on April 7, 2022, in the City Council Committee Room, 2nd Floor, City Hall at 10:00 a.m. before the Committee on Finance.

Because the proposal involves an amendment to the BID's District Plan that would increase the amount it expends annually and change the method of assessment, the Preconsidered Resolution directs the Sutphin Boulevard District Management Association to, not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days before the date of the Public Hearing, mail a copy of this Resolution or a summary thereof to each owner of real property within the proposed extended district at the address shown on the latest City assessment roll, to such other persons as are registered with the City to receive tax bills concerning real property within the proposed extended district, and to the tenants of each building within the proposed extended district.

The Preconsidered Resolution further directs the Sutphin Boulevard District Management Association to publish in a newspaper having general circulation in the BID, not less than ten days prior to the public hearing, a notice stating the time and place of the public hearing and stating the increase in the amount to be expended annually in the BID.

Accordingly, this Committee recommends its adoption.

(The following is the text of Res. No. 79:)

Report for voice-vote item Res. No. 24

Report of the Committee on Civil Service and Labor in favor of approving a Resolution calling upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5374-A/A.6329-A, the Fair Pay for Home Care Act.

The Committee on Civil Service and Labor, to which the annexed resolution was referred on February 24, 2022 (Minutes, page 222), respectfully

REPORTS:

I. INTRODUCTION

On March 23, 2022, the Committee on Civil Service and Labor, chaired by Council Member Carmen De La Rosa, held a hearing on Resolution No. 24 of 2022, sponsored by Council Member Hudson, calling upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5374-A/A.6329-A, the Fair Pay for Home Care Act. This resolution was previously heard at a hearing on March 22, 2022, at which time the Committee received testimony from home care workers, advocates and other interested parties.

II. BACKGROUND

"Home care workers" are workers who provide certain types of services to older adults and individuals with disabilities in their own homes rather than in a nursing home or other group care facility.¹ Home care services can include personal care or health-related services such as assisting a consumer with dressing, grooming and other daily activities as well as tube feeding, injections and other medically related activities.² Home care services also incorporate fellowship and protection such as assisting a consumer with hobbies, games and keeping company.³

Home care workers are commonly referred to by a number of different job titles, such as home health aide, personal care aid, certified nursing assistant (CNA), provider, or caregiver.⁴ Home care workers may be paid with private funds, Medicaid funds, or some other combination.⁵ Medicaid is the primary funder for home care services in New York state, representing 87% of home care and personal care services. Many non-profit home care programs are 100% Medicaid funded.

The New York state home care sector is made up of a variety of organizational models including:⁶ Certified Home Health Agencies (CHHAs); Licensed Home Care Services Agencies (LHCSAs); Programs of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE); Long-Term Home Health Care Programs (LTHHCPs); Consumer Directed Personal Assistance Program Fiscal Intermediaries (CDPAP FIs); hospices, independent living centers, and community support organizations, among others.⁷ The Expanded In-home Services for the Elderly program (EISEP), administered by the New York State Office for the Aging (NYSOFA) through the State’s county-based Area Agencies on Aging, supports non-medical in-home services for older adults who want to remain at home but who need help with everyday activities and do not qualify for Medicaid.⁸ Managed Long Term Care (MLTC) plans are insurance plans that are paid a monthly premium by the New York State Medicaid program to approve and provide home care and other long term care services. Services may include nutrition, meals, physical therapy, medical equipment and/or transportation, depending upon the specific services authorized for an individual.

III. NEW YORK STATE HOME CARE WORKFORCE

In recent years, New York state’s aging population and the increasing desire among the elderly and those with disabilities for at-home care have combined to generate explosive growth in demand for home care workers.⁹ According to recent estimates, approximately 3.5 million New Yorkers are currently aged 65 or over, and more than half will need some kind of long-term care in their lifetime.¹⁰ There are also over a million New Yorkers living with disabilities, chronic illnesses or other functional complications.¹¹ Research findings suggest that the aging population will, in turn, dramatically increase the need for long-term care among older residents of the State.¹²

According to a 2021 report published by the CUNY Graduate Center, approximately 223,530 home care workers were employed in New York state in 2019.¹³ Of that total, 72.5% or an estimated 162,800 home care workers were employed in New York City.¹⁴ The report’s findings predict that the number of home care worker jobs in New York State is expected to rise from 440,000 in 2018 to over 700,000 by 2028.¹⁵ This increase is largely driven by employment in home care agencies, private households, and public programs like the Medicaid Consumer Directed Personal Assistance Program (CDPAP).¹⁶ However, at the current levels of recruitment and retention the State is already unable to keep pace with demand.¹⁷ According to recent estimates, “approximately 100,000 new home care workers are needed each year, including about 27,000 to meet rising demand and 72,000 to replace departing workers.”¹⁸

High turnover rates among home care workers adds to the problem.¹⁹ Since home care work is typically poorly paid, as well as physically and emotionally stressful, it may be difficult for employers across the state to recruit new workers and retain existing ones.²⁰ “Available data suggests that the COVID-19 pandemic has increased demand for home care even more, while further depressing the labor supply,” thus widening the gap between care needs and care provision.²¹ According to home care advocates, in-home health care services are especially important for immigrant seniors and families because language-accessible and culturally competent home care options are available, while these options are lacking in institutional settings.²²

For New York home care workers, the most pressing issue appears to be inadequate pay and lack of benefits.²³ A significant number of home care workers employed in New York rely on public assistance and lack health insurance coverage despite working full-time or multiple jobs.²⁴ Researchers at the CUNY Graduate Center, as well as labor leaders and advocates have called for large scale improvements in home care worker compensation including public funding for wage increases and health insurance coverage.²⁵ Some other notable issues cited by State home care workers include:

- Stressful, complex, and high-risk work environments;
- Failure to receive full pay for all hours worked;
 - Inconsistent work schedules and fluctuating income due to gaps in employment resulting from a patient's death or hospitalization; and,
 - A lack of opportunities for career advancement, promotions or raises.²⁶

IV. THE FAIR PAY FOR HOME CARE ACT

The Fair Pay for Home Care Act, sponsored by Senator Rachel May and Assemblyman Richard Gottfried, would respond to the home care labor shortage by providing a livable wage to workers,²⁷ thereby ensuring the role of home care worker remains competitive, making it easier to recruit and retain qualified employees.²⁸ The Fair Pay for Home Care Act would establish a minimum base wage and Medicaid provider reimbursement rate for home care workers at 150% of the regional minimum wage.²⁹ The legislation requires the regional minimum hourly base reimbursement rates to be determined by the commissioner of health and to include the costs of overtime, employment taxes, disability insurance, workers compensation, and reasonable administrative costs as well as certain capital costs and allowable profits and reserves.³⁰ The CUNY School of Labor and Urban Studies estimates that in New York City, this would translate to a wage of $22.50 hourly, and 40,000 annually.³¹ This would be a significant increase over the $15.93 per hour and $22,000 annual wage New York City's home care workers currently earn.³² Advocates point to the mounting evidence that improving compensation for home care workers would help to alleviate the existing shortages in the occupation and spur employment growth in other fields.³³

The CUNY study found that increasing the compensation of home care workers would yield net economic benefits.³⁴ Primarily, implementing higher wages would attract more workers to the home care field and would cause some home care aides who currently work part-time to seek more hours.³⁵ The study projects that raising wages would attract approximately 8,390 to 33,090 new home care workers annually³⁶ and could resolve the home care workforce shortage in less than five years.³⁷ Additionally, the combined value of new savings, tax revenues, and economic spillover effects resulting from improved compensation would far exceed the cost of increased wages.³⁸ The study found that increasing health coverage, and payroll taxes would total approximately $4 billion per year, however the estimated total economic benefit would be $7.6 billion and approximately 5.4 billion in benefits for New York State.³⁹ Low-income workers spend a disproportionate share of their wages locally on housing, childcare, gas, local grocers and restaurants.⁴⁰ The economic multiplier effects that would result from the wage improvements would create nearly 18,000 jobs in other industries because home care workers would spend their additional earnings on goods and services, stimulating job creation in a range of occupations.⁴¹

New York State Budget Updates: Fiscal Year 2023

Prominent advocates and offices from across the state including 1199 SEIU, AARP,⁴² and offices for the aging from 40 New York counties are calling on Governor Hochul to sign the Fair Pay for Homecare Act into law.⁴³ The Governor did not include the measure in her FY'23 budget proposal released in January.⁴⁴ However, the State did apply for $2.2 billion in federal pandemic relief aid to fund $3,000 bonuses for home care workers who remain in their jobs for one year or more.⁴⁵ The measure was criticized by advocates who said this plan does little stave off the collapse of the home care industry.⁴⁶

This month, both the State Senate and State Assembly included plans to raise home care worker wages in their one-house budget proposals.⁴⁷ The State Senate proposal allocated $625 million while the Assembly proposal allocated $2.5 billion to worker wages.⁴⁸ Although, both include substantial amounts of funding for home care workers in other ways, including cost of living adjustments and resources for people who make under a certain amount per year.⁴⁹ The Governor and legislative leaders must negotiate and finalize the State budget by April 1, 2022.⁵⁰

The Committee on Civil Service and Labor passed this resolution by a vote of 10 in the affirmative, zero in the negative and zero abstentions.

Accordingly, this Committee recommends its adoption.

Res. No. 24

Resolution calling upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5374-A/A.6329-A, the Fair Pay for Home Care Act.

By Council Members Hudson, Barron, Hanif, Ossé, Brannan, Gutiérrez, Cabán, Ayala, Gennaro, Joseph, Ung, Avilés, Sanchez, Won, Louis, Farías, De La Rosa, Restler, Narcisse, Brewer, Rivera, Williams, Bottcher, Menin, Nurse, Brooks-Powers and Lee.

Whereas, According to a 2021 Mercer report, healthcare labor shortages are projected in every state across the U.S., with New York facing the worst home care worker shortage in the country; and

Whereas, The home care worker industry is one overwhelmingly staffed by women, immigrants, and people of color according to a 2020 report by PHI, a national organization working to strengthen the direct care workforce through research, advocacy, and workforce innovation; and

Whereas, The 2020 report by PHI found that 90 percent of direct care workers are women, 3 in 5 are people of color, and 1 in 4 are immigrants; and

Whereas, New York's population is projected to grow by 3 percent between 2021-2040, while the 65 and older population is expected to grow by 25 percent, and the number of adults over age 85 will grow by 75 percent, according to a City University of New York (CUNY) Graduate Center report on public investment in higher pay for New York State home care workers; and

Whereas, As a result of an aging population in New York, CUNY has also identified the number of home health aides and careers in personal care aide is projected to rise to more than 700,000 by 2028, up from 440,000 in 2018; and

Whereas, Older adults should be able to age at home with dignity, as the vast majority of people prefer, according to the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), which found that 76 percent of Americans ages 50 or older wanted to remain in their current residence as they age; and

Whereas, In 2019, a statewide survey of homecare agencies from CUNY found that 17 percent of positions went unfilled because of staff shortages, leaving many New Yorkers with unmet home care needs to consequently experience hospitalization or admittance to costly nursing homes to access needed services; and

Whereas, In July 2021, a New York State Senate Aging Committee report found that home care agency staffing shortages meant the agencies had to turn away as many as 30 percent of new cases; and

Whereas, The Aging Committee's report also found that more than 1 in 7 low wage workers in NYC is a home care worker, 1 in 4 home care workers live below the federal poverty level, and over half rely on public assistance; and

Whereas, Data published by the Integrated Public Use Microdata Series (IPUMS USA) found that nationally, home care workers have the lowest median annual earnings of $17,200, followed by residential care aides with $21,000, and nursing assistances working in nursing homes who earn $23,300 annually; and

Whereas, Home healthcare workers in NYC made an average of $15.93 per hour in 2020, far below the living wage of $21.77 for a single person in Manhattan, as per the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's living wage calculator for New York; and

Whereas, Realizing the dire working conditions of home care personnel, Senator Rachel May and Assembly Member Richard Gottfried introduced S.5374-A/A.6329-A, entitled the "Fair Pay for Home Care Act," to raise home care wages to 150 percent of the minimum wage, allowing home care workers to make at least $35,000 a year on average; and

Whereas, Home care workers make up one of the largest and most important sectors of our economy and deserve fair pay for the vital services they are providing to the City's most vulnerable communities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5374-A/A.6329-A, the Fair Pay for Home Care Act.

Report of the Committee on Women and Gender Equity in favor of approving a Resolution calling upon the New York State legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.8619A/S.7573, which would expand eligibility for victims and survivors of crime to access victim compensation funds.

The Committee on Women and Gender Equity, to which the annexed resolution was referred on February 24, 2022 (Minutes, page 225), respectfully

REPORTS:

I. INTRODUCTION

On March 23, 2022, the Committee on Women and Gender Equity, chaired by Council Member Tiffany Cabán, held a vote on Resolution No. 25, calling upon the New York State legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.8619A/S.7573, which would expand eligibility for victims and survivors of crime to access victim compensation fund. This resolution was originally heard at a hearing of this Committee on February 22, 2022, at which the Committee received testimony from human rights and social justice advocates, sexual assault victims, advocates, immigrant advocacy organizations, local legal aid organizations, survivors of assault, domestic violence and trafficking, and other interested stakeholders.

UPDATE

On March 23, 2022, the Committee on Women and Gender Equity adopted this legislation by a vote of six in the affirmative, none in the negative and no abstentions. Accordingly, the Committee recommends its adoption.

II. BACKGROUND

In the state of New York, the Office of Victim Services (OVS) provides direct financial assistance and reimbursement to, or on behalf of, victims and survivors of violent crimes for out-of-pocket expenses that result from the crime.¹ This can include medical costs; funeral and burial costs; mental health counseling; and lost wages or loss of support.² OVS is a payer of last resort, which means a victim/survivor of a crime or family member must exhaust all other sources of compensation, such as benefits from health or other insurance policies or workers' compensation, before the agency can provide financial assistance.³

² New York State, Office of Victim Services, Services: Compensation (n.d.), available at <https://ovs.ny.gov/victim-compensation>.

However, victims and survivors often do not report crimes for a variety of reasons, including fear of retaliation, mistrust in law enforcement, the age and/or other demographics of a victim/survivor, or the dynamics of an intimate partner relationship.⁴ According to the Center for Victim Research, in the United States (U.S.), less than three percent of all victims receive any victim compensation due to restrictive eligibility requirements that make it inaccessible for many BIPOC, members of the LGBTQI+ community, working class people, disabled people, and immigrants.⁵ While Black men under the age of 35 living in urban areas with annual incomes below $25,000 are more likely to be victimized than any other group, they are least likely to receive victim compensation, per a 2019 Center for Victim Research report.⁶ The largest recipients of victim compensation are white women above the age of 55 living in non-urban areas with annual incomes greater than $75,000.⁷

Accordingly, this Committee recommends its adoption.

Resolution calling upon the New York State legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.8619A/S.7573, which would expand eligibility for victims and survivors of crime to access victim compensation funds.

Whereas, The Crime Victims Fund (“Fund”), which was established by the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) of 1984 as a scheme to compensate victims and survivors of crime, is a major funding source for victim services across the United States (U.S.); and

Whereas, As of December 31, 2021, the Fund has a balance of over $2.7 billion and includes deposits from criminal fines, forfeited bail bonds, penalties, and special assessments collected by U.S. Attorneys’ Offices, federal courts, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons, paid by convicted federal offenders, as well as from gifts, donations, and bequests by private parties; and

Whereas, The Office for Victims of Crime, established by VOCA, administers the Fund to federal, state, and tribal victim assistance programs in the form of formula grants, discretionary grants, and set-asides according to an established annual allocation process; and

Whereas, The state crime victim compensation program formula grants supplement state funds for directly reimbursing to or on behalf of victims of violent crimes for out-of-pocket expenses that result from the crime, including medical costs; funeral and burial costs; mental health counseling; and lost wages or loss of support; and

Whereas, In New York State (“NYS” or “State”), the Office of Victim Services (OVS) provides financial assistance and reimbursement to victims for crime-related out-of-pocket expenses via subgrants funded, in part, by the VOCA Victim Compensation Program; and

Whereas, OVS is a payer of last resort, which means a victim or survivor of a crime or family member must exhaust all other sources of compensation, such as benefits from health or other insurance policies or workers’ compensation, before the agency can provide financial assistance; and

Whereas, In order to be eligible for OVS' victim compensation, the victim/survivor must (1) be an innocent victim of the crime; (2) have been physically injured as a result of the crime (if between the ages of 18 and 60); (3) report the crime within one week to police or another criminal justice agency; (4) file a claim with OVS within one year of the crime; and (5) cooperate with police, the district attorney's office and OVS in the investigation of such crime; and

Whereas, According to OVS' October 1, 2019 – September 30, 2019 Victim Compensation Formula Grant Program Annual Performance Measures Report, which is the latest accessible report, nearly 11,000 people applied for victim compensation benefits during the reporting period (October 2018 – September 2019); and, of the victims, the majority (40 percent) identified as white, compared to 29 percent Black, 21 percent Latinx and 4.5 percent Asian; and

Whereas, According to the Center for Victim Research, in the U.S., less than three percent of all victims receive any victim compensation due to restrictive eligibility requirements that make it inaccessible for many Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC), members of the LGBTQI+ community, working class people, disabled people, and immigrants; and

Whereas, Nationally, Black men under age 35 living in urban areas with annual incomes below $25,000 are more likely to be victimized than any other group yet are least likely to receive victim compensation, while the largest recipients of victim compensation are white women above the age of 55 living in non-urban areas with incomes greater than $75,000 a year, per a 2019 Center for Victim Research report; and

Whereas, Victim/survivor advocates report that victims and survivors often do not report crimes for a variety of reasons, including fear of retaliation, mistrust in law enforcement, the age and/or other demographics of a victim/survivor, or the dynamics of an intimate partner relationship; and

Whereas, LGBTQI+ victims/survivors often fear reporting crimes: over 30 percent of LGBTQI+ victims of homophobic and transphobic violence who reported to the police said they were verbally abusive and 16 percent said they were physically abusive, per a 2017 National Coalition of Anti-Violence Programs report; and

Whereas, Immigrant victims/survivors also often avoid reporting crimes due to fear that it may result in the person who harmed them being deported, or that they themselves might be deported or lose their pathway to citizenship, per a 2017 New York Times article; and

Whereas, According to the National Crime Victimization Survey (NCVS), 5,813,410 violent victimizations occurred in 2019 and, of those victimizations, 59 percent were not reported to law enforcement; and

Whereas, NVCS also reported that in 2019, only 7.7 percent of victims/survivors of violent crimes received assistance from victim service agencies, suggesting that more than 90 percent of victims and survivors are not likely to receive necessary services or support due to non-reporting; and

Whereas, A.8619A/S.7573, sponsored by State Assembly Member Demond Meeks and State Senator Zellnor Myrie, respectively, would remove the State's onerous mandated law enforcement reporting requirement by expanding eligibility for victims and survivors of qualifying crimes, via (1) increasing the time a victim/survivor may file a claim with OVS from one year to seven years; (2) removing the requirement that a crime be reported to a law enforcement agency "promptly" and within one week of the occurrence of the crime and instead, allowing for reporting "within a reasonable time considering all the circumstances, including the victim's physical, emotional and mental condition and family situation"; and (3) allowing alternative forms of evidence to be provided to show that a qualifying crime was committed; and

Whereas, Enacting A.8619A/S.7573 would not only refine current law, but provide greater access of funds to many neglected victims and survivors of violence, including LGBTQI+ victims and survivors, immigrant victims and survivors, victims and survivors of color, and victims and survivors of domestic violence, gun violence and police violence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.8619A/S.7573, which would expand eligibility for victims and survivors of crime to access victim compensation funds.

Report of the Committee on Sanitation and Solid Waste Management in favor of approving, as amended, a Resolution calling upon Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature to establish an Extended Producer Responsibility system for packaging and printed paper.

The Committee on Sanitation and Solid Waste Management, to which the annexed amended resolution was referred on March 10, 2022 (Minutes, page 321), respectfully

REPORTS:

I. INTRODUCTION

On March 23, 2022 the Committee on Sanitation and Solid Waste Management (the “Committee”), chaired by Council Member Sandy Nurse, held a hearing on Res. No. 55-A, a Resolution calling upon Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature to establish an Extended Producer Responsibility system for packaging and printed paper.

The Committee previously held a hearing on Res. No. 55-A on March 4, 2022, and received testimony from representatives of the New York City Department of Sanitation (“DSNY”), environmental advocates and interested members of the public. More information about this legislation is available with the materials for this hearing, which can be accessed online at <https://on.nyc.gov/3qpEQhG>.

II. RES. NO. 55-A

Res. No. 55-A would call upon Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature to establish an Extended Producer Responsibility system for packaging and printed paper, and make producers responsible for their packaging and paper products in order to incentivize such producers to reduce their packaging waste, make it easier to recycle the materials they generate, and design products that can be reduced and recycled.

III. UPDATE

On March 23, 2022, the Committee held a vote on Res. No. 55-A, The Committee passed Res. No. 55-A, 10 in the affirmative, 0 in the negative, and 0 abstentions. Thus, the Committee recommends adoption.

Accordingly, this Committee recommends its adoption, as amended.

(The following is the text of Res. No. 55-A:)

Res. No. 55-A

Resolution calling upon Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature to establish an Extended Producer Responsibility system for packaging and printed paper.

By The Speaker (Council Member Adams) and Council Members Nurse, Cabán, Gennaro, Brewer, Won, Restler, Richardson Jordan, Brooks-Powers, Avilés and Riley.

Whereas, printed paper and packaging, which includes plastic, steel, aluminum, glass containers, boxboard, cardboard, cartons, newsprint and magazines, constitutes approximately 40 percent of the materials by weight managed by municipalities and solid waste authorities in New York State; and

Whereas, local municipal governments in New York State are required to fund the management of discarded consumer packaging and printed paper and to take responsibility for achieving waste diversion goals; and

Whereas, the value of recyclable materials does not cover the cost to collect, sort, process, and market these items, causing recycling system ratepayers to pay millions of dollars annually to manage their recycling programs while the State loses an estimated 860,000 tons of potentially recyclable materials to trash each year; and

Whereas, such costs to New York City and recycling system ratepayers in 2021 are estimated at over hundreds of millions; and

Whereas, the State's current recycling system places unreasonable burdens on local governments to collect, manage, and market recyclable materials, when it is the consumer brand owners who have control over which materials are placed on the market; and

Whereas, costs paid by citizens and local governments to manage packaging and printed paper are, in effect, subsidies to producers that enable and encourage producers to design packaging and printed paper materials without regard to end-of-life management; and

Whereas, producers have little incentive to design packaging or printed paper to minimize waste, reduce toxicity, or maximize recyclability, creating a supply chain disconnect with environmentally sound, end-of-life management of these consumer materials; and

Whereas, Extended Producer Responsibility ("EPR") is an environmental policy approach in which producers (brand owners and importers) accept responsibility for the management of post-consumer products and packaging so those who produce these materials help bear the costs of recycling; and

Whereas, EPR programs for packaging and printed paper have existed for up to 30 years in all European Union member states, across Canada, and other parts of the world, achieving recycling rates for packaging and printed papers upwards of 70 percent; and

Whereas, enacting EPR for packaging and printed paper could significantly increase recycling rates for residential materials, reduce consumer confusion and contamination in recycling streams, create green sector jobs, provide millions of dollars in savings for local governments and taxpayers, and lower greenhouse gas emissions by over 2.3 million metric tons annually; and

Whereas, New York State Governor Kathy Hochul has proposed a 2022-23 Executive Budget that includes Part RR, which would establish an EPR system for consumer packaging and printed paper and require producers to reimburse municipalities for recycling the packaging and printed paper they introduce into the marketplace; and

Whereas, Governor Hochul's proposal would incentivize producers to reduce packaging waste, make it easier to recycle the material they generate, invest in modernizing local recycling infrastructure across New York State, ensure that all New Yorkers have access to recycling and upgrade recycling infrastructure to achieve higher recycling rates, and provide clear, consistent consumer education, resulting in less confusion for residents and minimizing contamination in the recycling stream.

Whereas, Senate Bill S1185 seeks to establish an extended producer responsibility act requiring covered materials and product producers to develop and implement strategies to promote recycling, reuse and recovery of packaging and paper products; and

Whereas, Any EPR system enacted in New York State should seek to be further inclusive of community, public health, environmental, and environmental justice organizations' recommendations, including increased representation on the Producer Responsibility Advisory board; and

Whereas, Any EPR system must ensure that it effectively incentivizes waste reduction, does not authorize "chemical recycling," and requires removal of toxic chemicals from packaging materials; and

Whereas, EPR can work in tandem with and supplement New York State's Returnable Container Act; and

Whereas, Making producers responsible for ensuring their materials are reused or recycled responsibly will incentivize them to design for reduction, recyclability, and reduced toxicity; now, therefore be it

Resolved, that the Council of the City of New York calls upon Governor Kathy Hochul and the New York State Legislature to establish an Extended Producer Responsibility system for packaging and printed paper; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of New York shall forward copies of this resolution to Governor Kathy Hochul, the New York State Legislature, and all others deemed necessary and proper.

Pursuant to Rule 8.50 of the Council, the Majority Leader and Acting President Pro Tempore (Council Member Powers) called for a voice vote. Hearing those in favor, the Majority Leader and Acting President Pro Tempore (Council Member Powers) declared the Resolution to be adopted.

INTRODUCTION AND READING OF BILLS

Res. No. 77

Resolution calling upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation reinstating and extending the eviction moratorium.

By Council Members Avilés, Hanif, Hudson, Sanchez, Krishnan, Stevens, Won and Nurse.

Whereas, In March of 2020, former New York State Governor, Andrew Cuomo, implemented an eviction moratorium to protect tenants during the COVID-19 pandemic; and

Whereas, On January 15, 2022, incumbent New York State Governor Kathy Hochul failed to extend the New York Emergency Eviction and Foreclosure Prevention Act of 2020, allowing the most expansive rent relief program in the state to expire; and

Whereas, The rent moratorium prevented evictions during the public health crisis to avert rampant loss of housing and worsen the spread of COVID-19; and

Whereas, Since the beginning of the eviction moratorium in 2020, there have been 82,525 eviction filings in New York City, according to Princeton University's Eviction Lab; and

Whereas, Eviction case data from the Office of Court Administration indicates that 183,565 residential nonpayment cases are currently pending in the five boroughs; and

Whereas, According to Community Housing Improvement Program (CHIP), the average cumulative rent owed during the nearly two-year-long pandemic is about $20,000, and landlords are not likely to recover the money if they evict their tenants now, according to the executive director of CHIP; and

Whereas, New York City has regained fewer than 6 of every 10 jobs it lost since the pandemic began, while the nation as a whole has regained more than 90 percent of lost jobs, according to The New York Times; and

Whereas, One week after the expiration of New York's rent moratorium in January 2022, the Emergency Rental Assistance Program received roughly 2,000 applications in the first four days, according to its spokesperson, Anthony Farme; and

Whereas, The New York tri-state area has been one of the hardest hit by COVID-19 in the nation, according to the Surgo Foundation's COVID-19 Community Vulnerability Index; and

Whereas, Other cities across of the country, such as Los Angeles, have instituted legislation to extend eviction moratoriums until December of 2022, highlighting the need for legislatures to further protects our most vulnerable communities and assist in the recovery of the COVID-19 pandemic; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation reinstating and extending the eviction moratorium.

f. Guidelines. The board shall establish initial guidelines for commercial rent adjustments by July 1 next succeeding appointment of the last member of the board. Thereafter, the board shall establish annual guidelines to be filed in accordance with subdivision g of this section. In determining whether to adjust rents for commercial spaces subject to the commercial rent stabilization provisions of this chapter, the board shall consider, among other things:

1. The economic condition of the commercial real estate industry in the affected area, including such factors as:

(a) Commercial real estate taxes and sewer and water rates;

(b) Gross operating and maintenance costs (including insurance rates, governmental fees, fuel and labor costs);

(c) Costs and availability of financing (including effective rates of interest); and

(d) Overall supply of commercial spaces and overall vacancy rates;

2. Relevant data from the current and projected market values of commercial rentals in the affected area; and

3. Any other relevant data available to the board.

g. Annual filing. Not later than July 1 of each year, the board shall file with the city clerk its guidelines for the preceding calendar year, and shall accompany such findings with a statement of the maximum rate or rates of rent adjustment, if any, for all commercial spaces subject to the provisions of this chapter authorized for leases or other rental agreements commencing on the next succeeding October 1 or within 12 months thereafter. Such guidelines and statement shall be published in the City Record.

h. Public hearing. Prior to the annual adjustment of the level of rents provided for under subdivision d of this section, the board shall hold at least two public hearings for the purpose of collecting information relating to all factors set forth in subdivision f of this section, and any other relevant information as may be necessary for establishing the annual adjustment guidelines. The board shall provide notice of the date, time and location and a summary of the subject matter of the public hearings, to be published in the City Record daily for the period beginning eight days prior to the hearing date, and at least once in one or more newspapers of general circulation at least eight days immediately preceding the hearing date.

i. Limitation on rate adjustment. Maximum rates of rent adjustment shall not be established more than once annually for any commercial space subject to the provisions of this chapter. Once established, no such rate shall, within the one-year period, be adjusted by any surcharge, supplementary adjustment or other modification except as provided in section 22-1308.

§ 22-1304 Stabilization provisions. a. Upon renewal of a lease for commercial space, the rent charged for the first year of the new lease shall not exceed the initial legal regulated rent or legal regulated rent adjusted pursuant to section 22-1308 until the end of any lease or other rental agreement in effect on the effective date of the local law that added this chapter until such time as a different legal regulated rent shall be authorized pursuant to guidelines adopted by the board. No owner subject to the provisions of this chapter shall charge or collect any rent that exceeds the initial legal regulated rent or legal regulated rent adjusted pursuant to section 22-1308 until the end of any lease or other rental agreement in effect on the effective date of the local law that added this chapter until such time as a different legal regulated rent has been authorized pursuant to guidelines adopted by the board. For any lease exceeding beyond one year, the rent charged for any subsequent year shall not exceed the legal regulated rent as authorized pursuant to the most recent guidelines adopted by the board. If the rent charged for the first year of the new lease is less than the initial legal regulated rent or the legal regulated rent adjusted pursuant to section 22-1308, the rent charged for any subsequent year shall not exceed the first year rent adjusted by the rate authorized pursuant to the most recent guidelines adopted by the board.

b. The initial regulated rent for a commercial space subject to the provisions of this chapter is the rent charged in the lease or other rental agreement for such commercial space in effect on the effective date of the local law that added this chapter.

c. The initial regulated rent for a commercial space subject to the provisions of this chapter that is not subject to a lease or other rental agreement on the effective date of the local law that added this chapter shall be the rent charged in the first lease or other rental agreement for such commercial space that becomes effective after the effective date of the local law that added this chapter, provided that such rent shall not include any pass-alongs. However, if a claim alleging commercial tenant harassment pursuant to chapter 9 of this title is brought against the owner by the previous tenant as the means by which the vacancy was effected and such previous tenant's claim is upheld by a court of competent jurisdiction, such owner shall be liable for damages of 10 times the proposed new lease's monthly rent or $50,000, whichever is greater, to be payable to the previous tenant, in addition to consequential damages and any other remedy available at law or equity.

d. Upon a finding of commercial tenant harassment pursuant to chapter 9 of this title, the rent for the new tenant shall be no higher than the rent that could have been charged to the previous tenant pursuant to subdivision a of this section, retroactive to the beginning of the new tenancy. All other terms and conditions of the lease shall conform to the provisions of subdivision a of this section.

§ 22-1305 Enforcement and procedures. a. Subject to the conditions and limitations of this section, any owner who, upon the complaint of a tenant, is found by the commissioner, after a reasonable opportunity to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized for a commercial space subject to the provisions of this chapter, is liable to such tenant for a penalty equal to three times the amount of such overcharge. If the owner establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the overcharge was not intentional, the penalty shall be the amount of the overcharge plus interest assessed from the initial date of the overcharge. After a complaint of rent overcharge has been filed and served on an owner, the voluntary adjustment of the rent and/or the voluntary tender of a refund of rent overcharges shall not be considered by the commissioner as evidence that the overcharge was not willful.

b. The legal regulated rent for purposes of determining an overcharge is the rent indicated in the annual registration statement filed and served upon the tenant six years prior to the most recent registration statement, or, if more recently filed, the initial registration statement, plus in each case any subsequent lawful increases and adjustments. The commissioner, in investigating complaints of overcharge and in determining legal regulated rent, shall consider all available rent history that is reasonably necessary to make such determinations. As to complaints filed within 90 days of the initial registration of a commercial space, the legal regulated rent is deemed to be the rent charged on the date six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the commercial space or, if the commercial space was subject to this chapter for less than six years, the initial legal regulated rent, plus in each case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on the date six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the commercial space cannot be established, such rent shall be established by the commissioner based on, among other things, the factors set forth in paragraph one of subdivision f of section 22-1303.

c. Complaints under this section may be filed with the commissioner at any time but any recovery of overcharge penalties shall be limited to the six years preceding the complaint.

d. An owner found to have overcharged a tenant may be assessed the reasonable costs and attorney's fees of the proceeding and interest from the initial date of the overcharge at the rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to section 5004 of the civil practice laws and rules.

e. Upon the expiration of the period in which the owner may institute a proceeding pursuant to article 78 of the civil practice law and rules, a tenant may file and enforce an order of the commissioner awarding penalties in the same manner as a judgment.

f. The commissioner shall enforce the provisions of this section and is authorized to issue rules and regulations pursuant to this section.

§ 22-1306 Rent registration. a. Each owner of a commercial space subject to the provisions of this chapter shall register such space with the administering agency within 120 days of the effective date of the local law that added this chapter using forms prescribed by the commissioner. The information to be provided on such forms shall include the following:

- 1. The name and address of the building or group of buildings or development in which such commercial space is located and the tenant thereof;*
- 2. The number of commercial spaces belonging to such owner in the building or group of buildings or development in which such commercial space is located;*
- 3. The number of commercial spaces in such building or group of buildings or development subject to the provisions of this chapter;*
- 4. The rent for the commercial space charged on the registration date; and*
- 5. The square footage of each commercial space named pursuant to paragraph 1 of this subdivision.*

§ 22-1307 Fees. a. The department of finance shall collect from the owner of each commercial space registered pursuant to section 22-1306 an annual fee in the amount of $100 per year for each commercial space subject to this law, in order to defray costs incurred in administering this law.

b. Failure to pay the fee imposed by subdivision a of this section constitutes a charge due to the city. All such fees due to the city constitute a debt recoverable from the owner and the city may commence an action or proceeding, file a lien upon the building or take any other lawful action for the recovery of such fees.

§ 22-1308 Application for adjustment of initial rent. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a tenant or owner may, within 60 days of the effective date of the local law that added this chapter or the commencement of the first tenancy thereafter, whichever is later, file with the commissioner an application for adjustment of the initial legal regulated rent for such commercial space. The commissioner may adjust such initial legal regulated rent upon a finding that the presence of extraordinary circumstances materially affecting the initial legal regulated rent has resulted in a rent which is substantially different from the rents generally prevailing in the same area for substantially similar commercial spaces.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 120 days after it becomes law, except that the administering agency, as defined in section 22-1303 of the administrative code of the city of New York as added by section one of this local law, shall take such measures as are necessary for the implementation of this local law, including the promulgation of rules, before such date.

b. The administering agency shall develop a protocol for notifying parents and legal guardians of students when a school emergency occurs.

c. The administering agency shall issue a school emergency alert within one hour of the determination that a school emergency occurred. Res. No. 80

Resolution calling on Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation in relation to increasing the supply and affordability of certain housing and to adjust the calculations of area median income for purposes of Federal low-income housing assistance, and for other purposes.

By Council Members Brannan, Hudson, Dinowitz, Brewer, Sanchez, Stevens, Won and Restler.

Whereas, The area median income (AMI) is used in federally funded housing programs to determine if a household meets income eligibility and the amount of rent a household is charged to reside in an apartment; and

Whereas, Every year the United States (U.S.) Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) defines AMI for all cities in the United States; and

Whereas, The AMI for the New York City area incorporates not only the median earnings in Manhattan, Brooklyn, Staten Island, Queens and the Bronx but it also includes Westchester and Rockland counties who have higher median incomes than the five boroughs; and

Whereas, The higher housing cost adjustment is one of the five adjustments a jurisdiction applies to the AMI to determine the very low-income limit; and

Whereas, High housing cost adjustments are usually applied in areas where the cost of housing is considerably higher compared to the median income; and

Whereas, HUD increases the income limit requirements in high cost adjustment areas, such as New York City, so that more households can qualify for assistance for affordable housing units that are produced through the Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program; and

Whereas, According to the National Low Income Housing Coalition, if the high housing cost adjustments could be restricted in determining AMI for Low Income Housing Tax Credit Properties, more affordable units could be made available for lower-income households; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the New York City Council calls on Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation in relation to increasing the supply and affordability of certain housing and to adjust calculations of area median income for purposes of Federal low-income housing assistance, and for other purposes.

Referred to the Committee on Housing and Buildings.

Res. No. 81

Resolution calling on Congress to pass, and the President to sign, legislation amending the Stafford Act to proactively fund the planning and construction of FEMA and HUD coastal resiliency projects.

By Council Members Brannan, Brewer, Restler and Nurse.

Whereas, The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (“the Stafford Act”) gives the president the power to declare a national emergency as a response to a national disaster, thereby allowing the president to access funds set aside by Congress to provide states with federal assistance during and after an emergency or disaster; and

Whereas, The United States (“U.S.”) has a number of agencies that work towards disaster relief, such as the Federal Emergency Management Agency (“FEMA”), the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”), and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (“USACE”); and

Whereas, Although FEMA and HUD administer federal funding programs for disaster relief and prevention, the USACE is also able to fund, design, and construct large-scale infrastructure projects, provided, however, that all allocations for such programs and projects must be planned for and earmarked in advance by Congress; and

Whereas, The Stafford Act required all funding requests must be in relation to a “major disaster” declaration by the president for a declared disaster that occurred in the past seven years; and

Whereas, The Safeguarding Tomorrow through Ongoing Risk Mitigation Act, or The STORM Act, was passed on January 1, 2021, amending the Stafford Act by adding § 205, which authorizes the FEMA Administrator to enter into agreements with a state or Indian tribal government (“eligible entity”) to make capitalization grants that are not contingent upon prior disaster declarations but are instead based on an application’s ability to detail both recurring major disaster vulnerabilities that show sizable risk and how the application’s plan would achieve resilience in a vulnerable area to establish hazard mitigation so as to help local governments carry out eligible projects to reduce disaster risks and decrease disaster costs, with single hazard mitigation projects having to be less than $5 million; and,

Whereas, The STORM Act authorizes appropriations of $100 million for each of Fiscal Year 2022 and Fiscal Year 2023, but has not authorized any appropriations after Fiscal Year 2023; and

Whereas, FEMA and HUD have dedicated disaster relief and mitigation funding programs, particularly FEMA's Building Resilient Infrastructure and Communities ("BRIC") and Disaster Relief Fund ("DRF") and HUD's Community Development Block Grant Mitigation ("CDBG-MIT") and Disaster Relief ("CDBG-DR") programs, all of which provide key frameworks and details for directing federal disaster funding in accordance with the Stafford Act; and

Whereas, While BRIC and CDBG-MIT were formulated with a focus on future disaster prevention and mitigation, they are still mandated by the Stafford Act to require funding allocations to be in relation to recent and past disasters; and

Whereas, The Stafford Act caps BRIC funding at up to 6 percent of the total estimated disaster expenditures associated with each presidential disaster declaration, with annual contributions depending on the number and cost of disasters in the previous year and all funds entering the National Public Infrastructure Pre-Disaster Mitigation Fund, leading to FEMA estimating annual contributions to this fund to be between $300 and $500 million nationwide; and

Whereas, For Fiscal Year 2020 ("FY2020"), BRIC was allocated $500 million, and, in 2018, Congress appropriated $15.9 billion to HUD for CDBG-MIT for mitigation activities for qualifying disasters in 2015, 2016, and 2017, but has not indicated plans for future CDBG-MIT appropriations or allocations; and

Whereas, In comparison, the New York City Council issued a report entitled "Securing Our Future: Strategies for New York City in the Fight Against Climate Change," which included a snapshot of New York City's ("NYC") current coastal resiliency projects, which cost approximately $52.87 billion in combined funding from NYC, New York State, USACE, FEMA, and HUD, demonstrating that current federal funding for coastal resiliency will not be sufficient for the future needs of both NYC and the nation at large; and

Whereas, Due to the advance of climate change, more and more national disasters are happening each year, with FEMA reporting more than twice the number of annual billion-dollar events in the U.S. were experienced in the 2010s compared to the 2000s, that 2020 bore witness to the most active Atlantic hurricane season on record, and that severe storms are becoming an increasing contributor to the number of billion-dollar events, with the average frequency of high-tide flooding already up 50 percent when compared to the frequency in 2000; and

Whereas, The National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration ("NOAA") found that NYC is under threat from disasters like flooding, sea level rise, and coastal storms due to its 520 miles of coastline, which is more shoreline mileage than the cities of Miami, Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Boston combined, meaning coastal resiliency efforts, which seek to protect against coastal hazardous events, are a necessary aspect of disaster prevention in NYC; and

Whereas, Regular tidal flooding is already occurring in NYC neighborhoods such as Broad Channel, Hamilton Beach, and Howard Beach, with a Lower Manhattan Climate Resilience Study conducted by NYC's Economic Development Corporation and the Mayor's Office of Climate & Environmental Justice finding that by 2050, 37 percent of buildings in Lower Manhattan will be at risk from a rise in seawater level caused by a storm, otherwise known as storm surge; and

Whereas, FEMA recorded billions of dollars in National Flood Insurance Program ("NFIP") payouts in the past decade, with six of the top 10 most significant NFIP payouts occurring in the past decade, and all 10 occurring since 2000, and has paid out $830 million to NFIP policy holders in 2020 alone; and

Whereas, According to NOAA, coastal resiliency efforts are crucial to protecting against and minimizing the impacts of coastal hazards like flooding and storm surge, as well as coastal disasters like Hurricane Sandy, which cost $19 billion in citywide damages and lost economic activity while also damaging over 69,000 residential units according to the NYC Mayor's Office of Management and Budget; and

Whereas, Coastal resiliency efforts are predicated on preparing for, rather than reacting to, coastal hazards and consist of a myriad of different strategies, all of which take time and money to develop, yet, in 2020, FEMA published their "FEMA Mitigation Action Portfolio" which found that natural hazard mitigation saves, on average, $6 in future disaster costs for every $1 spent on federal grants; and

Whereas, As currently written, and other than what is authorized by the STORM Act, the Stafford Act only allows for mitigation funding as a reaction to past disasters as declared by the president, rather than a proactive protection against potential future disasters and damages, meaning that potential disasters which, due to climate change, could impact an area previously not affected by disasters, or wreak damage on an unprecedented level, would not allow an applicant to qualify for federal mitigation funding needed to build resiliency; and

Whereas, Proactive funding of coastal resiliency projects would entail both increased funding and easier access to disaster prevention funding, both of which would enhance and expedite current and future coastal resiliency plans, and which might cost-effectively reduce future needs for post-disaster funding and flood insurance payouts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on Congress to pass, and the President to sign, legislation amending the Stafford Act to proactively fund the planning and construction of FEMA and HUD coastal resiliency projects.

Res. No. 82

Resolution calling on the Mayor of New York City to permanently staff all Fire Department of New York (FDNY) engine companies with five firefighters and an officer at the outset of each tour.

By Council Members Brannan, Ariola, Brooks-Powers, Riley and Carr.

Whereas, The Uniformed Firefighters Association of Greater New York (UFA) represents over 8,000 FDNY firefighters and personnel; and

Whereas, In labor negotiations between the UFA and the City of New York, whether a FDNY engine company should be staffed with five firefighters and an officer (known as having a “fifth firefighter”) or four firefighters and an officer at the outset of each tour has remained a key bargaining point; and

Whereas, Prior to 1988, FDNY engine companies were staffed with five firefighters, and one officer, which was a higher-ranking FDNY member, such as a Lieutenant, that would supervise over the company; and

Whereas, However, beginning in 1988, the FDNY began to reduce engine company staffing from five firefighters and an officer to four firefighters and an officer, so that, in 2011, no engine company in the city operated with a fifth firefighter; and

Whereas, Notably, the most recently available, although expired, collective bargaining agreement between the UFA and the City looked to change this staffing reduction, allowing the FDNY to designate five engine companies with a fifth firefighter at the outset of each tour, effective February 1, 2016, with an additional five engine companies to be staffed with a fifth firefighter effective February 1, 2017; February 1, 2018; and February 1, 2019; and

Whereas, As per this agreement, a total of 20 engine companies throughout the City are staffed with a fifth firefighter, however, this agreement stipulates that the FDNY, on the first day of each month, can review these engine companies’ firefighter availability for the preceding 365 days and in the event that firefighter average medical leave, including both line-of-duty and non-line-of-duty, exceeds the “designated absence rate” of 7.50%, the FDNY will discontinue that engine company’s staffing of a fifth firefighter for the remainder of that month; and

Whereas, The FDNY defines the role of the fifth firefighter as the “Door” position, meaning that they facilitate the advancement of the hose-line into the fire area and prevent it from getting stuck if turns need to be made; and

Whereas, The UFA, in their support for a fifth firefighter on engine companies, has pointed to a FDNY study done in 1987, where a former division commander for midtown Manhattan concluded that an engine company with only four firefighters is ineffective in service delivery and has a 75 percent increase in hose-stretch time; and

Whereas, Although dated, the UFA still looks to these findings as reliable and, potentially, more true now, as the weight that firefighters now carry has drastically increased since 1987; and

Whereas, Additionally, a National Institute of Standards and Technology 2013 study analyzed 14 high-risk tasks undertaken by firefighters, finding that three-member firefighter crews took almost 21 minutes longer than five-member crews to complete all tasks, while four-member crews took nine minutes longer than five-member crews to complete those same tasks; and

Whereas, Furthermore, the Daily News reported that the FDNY's own studies show that engine companies equipped with a fifth firefighter can get water on a fire twice as quickly; and

Whereas, Having a fifth firefighter staffed on an engine company drastically improves the effectiveness of that engine company, thus the permanent staffing of a fifth firefighter on all engine companies throughout the City would decrease the time it takes to put out fires, decrease deaths and injuries due to fires, and reduce overall costs of medical leave and fire damage; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the Mayor of New York City to permanently staff all Fire Department of New York (FDNY) engine companies with five firefighters and an officer at the outset of each tour.

Res. No. 83

Resolution calling upon the Mayor's office and New York City Department of Education to recognize and observe the important Sikh holiday, Vaisakhi, on April 13 each year.

By Council Members Gennaro, Lee, Joseph, Hanif, Ung, Won, Dinowitz, Cabán, Farías, Stevens, Abreu, Ossé, Williams, De La Rosa, Krishnan, Hudson, Gutiérrez, Schulman, Avilés, Rivera, Nurse, Bottcher, Riley, Carr and Vernikov.

Whereas, Sikhism is a religion and philosophy founded in the Punjab region of the Indian subcontinent in the late 15th century; and

Whereas, There are an estimated 25-30 million adherents of Sikhism, called Sikhs, worldwide according to various sources, including the Encyclopedia Britannica and BBC News, making it the world's fifth-largest organized religion; and

Whereas, Sikhs first came to the United States in the late 1800s according to the Sikh Coalition, a national organization based in New York City; and

Whereas, The U.S. Census Bureau does not collect data on religious affiliation, so there is no official U.S. government data on the number of Sikhs in this country, but estimates of the number of Sikhs in the U.S. today range from 500,000 to 700,000, according to the Sikh Coalition and the Sikh American Legal Defense and Education Fund (SALDEF), a national civil rights and educational organization based in Washington, DC; and

Whereas, Although there is no official count of Sikhs in New York City, the Sikh Coalition estimated the City's Sikh population at approximately 50,000 in 2007, while a representative with United Sikhs, a U.N.

affiliated, international non-profit, humanitarian relief, education and advocacy organization headquartered in New York, estimated the number of Sikhs in the City at around 80,000 in 2010, with the largest concentration of 50,000 to 60,000 in Richmond Hill, Queens alone; and

Whereas, Sikh New Yorkers have contributed to this City for many decades but have received very little recognition of their efforts as a group or of their faith; and

Whereas, For example, unlike holidays of other groups, such as the Christian holiday of Easter, the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur, the Muslim holiday of Eid al-Fitr and the East Asian Lunar New Year, the Sikh holiday of Vaisakhi is not widely known or recognized; and

Whereas, According to the British Broadcasting Corporation, Vaisakhi—the Sikh New Year festival, usually celebrated on April 13 or 14—started as a harvest festival in the Punjabi region of northern India and marks the start of the Punjabi New Year; and

Whereas, Vaisakhi is also a day to celebrate 1699—the year when Sikhism was born as a collective faith—and is one of the most important dates in the Sikh calendar; and

Whereas, In reality, most New Yorkers and other Americans know little to nothing about Sikhs or Sikhism, and this lack of awareness and understanding has contributed to an increase in bias incidents and hate crimes against Sikhs according to the Sikh Coalition; and

Whereas, According to data compiled by the Sikh Coalition, Sikhs are among the nation’s most-targeted religious groups and are hundreds of times more likely than their fellow Americans to experience hate crimes because of their distinct appearance, including the wearing of turbans; and

Whereas, In particular, a wave of hate began in the immediate aftermath of the 9/11 attacks in 2001, with over 300 cases of violence and discrimination against Sikh Americans throughout the U.S. in the first month after 9/11 documented by the Sikh Coalition; and

Whereas, Since then, the Sikh Coalition has received thousands of reports from the Sikh community about hate crimes, workplace discrimination, school bullying, and racial and religious profiling; and

Whereas, More recently, in April 2021, four Sikhs were killed in a mass shooting at a FedEx facility in Indianapolis, as reported by the Associated Press and other media outlets; and

Whereas, Promoting greater awareness and understanding of Sikhs and their religious practices and traditions may help to reduce the number of bias-based incidents and bullying; and

Whereas, New York City has a history of recognizing and celebrating its diverse ethnic communities and the Mayor's office can play a major role in promoting greater awareness and appreciation of Sikhs by designating April 13 to recognize Vaisakhi and celebrate Sikh heritage; and

Whereas, For example, while Sikhs do celebrate Vaisakhi with a parade, it is not widely recognized or televised like the St. Patrick’s, Columbus or Puerto Rican Day parades, nor are alternate side of the street parking regulations suspended as is the case for Lunar New Year, Eid al-Fitr, Diwali and most major Christian and Jewish holidays; and

Whereas, Schools can also play an important role in raising awareness and understanding of Sikhs and helping to reduce bias and bullying; and

Whereas, A 2008 report by the Sikh Coalition based on a survey of Sikhs in New York City found that half of the City’s Sikh students reported being teased or harassed because of their Sikh identity and, among those who wear turbans or patkas, 3 out of 5 Sikh children had been harassed and verbally or physically abused; and

Whereas, Currently, the New York City Department of Education (DOE) permits students to take an excused absence for religious observances such as Vaisakhi and, similarly, allows employees time off for religious observance, but there is no other acknowledgement of Sikh students or employees; and

Whereas, The DOE is shifting to a new educational strategy called “culturally responsive-sustaining education (CR-SE)” which is a cultural view of learning in which multiple forms of diversity, including nationality and religion, “are recognized, understood, and regarded as indispensable sources of knowledge for rigorous teaching and learning”; and

Whereas, Additionally, the DOE is investing $202 million in FY22 to develop a rigorous, inclusive, and affirming curriculum by fall 2023 called the Universal Mosaic Curriculum; and

Whereas, It is critically important that the DOE include discussion and awareness of the Sikh culture, traditions and religious observances, especially Vaisakhi, into their CR-SE and Universal Mosaic Curriculum, since it is one of the most historically significant days of the year for Sikhs, and it provides an excellent opportunity for education during the month of April; and

Whereas, Both the Mayor's office and the DOE can play a critical role in raising awareness and understanding of Sikhs and helping to reduce bias, bullying and hate crimes against them; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the Mayor's office and New York City Department of Education to recognize and observe the important Sikh holiday, Vaisakhi, on April 13 each year.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the sale of electric space heaters

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 4 of title 20 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subchapter 14 to read as follows:

*SUBCHAPTER 14
SPACE HEATERS*

§ 20-699.10 Definitions. For purposes of this subchapter, the following terms have the following meanings: Commissioner. The term “commissioner” means the commissioner of consumer and worker protection.

§ 20-699.11 Sale of electric space heaters. No person, firm, partnership, association or corporation shall distribute, sell or offer for sale an electric space heater unless such electric space heater:

- 1. Is equipped with a thermostat;*
- 2. Is equipped with an automatic shut-off function that disables such space heater upon overheating or tipping over; and*
- 3. Has been certified by a testing and certification body recognized and approved by the United States consumer product safety commission.*

§ 2. This local law takes effect 120 days after it becomes law, except that the commissioner of consumer and worker protection shall take such measures as are necessary for the implementation of this local law, including the promulgation of rules, before such date.

Resolution calling on the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.880A/S.1572A, to provide coverage for health care services under the basic health program for individuals whose immigration status renders them ineligible for federal financial participation.

By Council Members Hanif, Abreu, Moya, Schulman, Lee, Hudson, Brewer, Ung, Stevens, Brannan, Won, Restler, Avilés, Brooks-Powers, Menin, Joseph, Narcisse, Krishnan and Nurse.

Whereas, About 154,000 low-income New York City residents are ineligible for health insurance coverage because of their immigration status, according to the New York Immigration Coalition; and

Whereas, Uninsured New Yorkers often avoid medical care for fear of costs, resulting in prolonged illness, suffering and even increased risk of death; and

Whereas, According to the Health Care For All New Yorkers Campaign, when people can no longer avoid care, they may incur huge medical bills that result in uncompensated care for providers; and

Whereas, According to Community Service Society and Citizens Budget Commission, insuring 46,000 uninsured people could save New York State $19 million in uncompensated care costs; and

Whereas, Undocumented New Yorkers have been at the forefront of New York City's fight against COVID-19, representing 31 percent of the state's essential workers and playing a key role in all sectors of our battle against the virus; and

Whereas, According to a 2021 report by Families USA, more than 8,200 individuals in New York state died from COVID-19 due to lack of health coverage, of which an estimated 2,050 were undocumented; and

Whereas, Other states, such as California, Illinois, and Minnesota have taken bold steps to invest in the health of their immigrant residents by establishing state-only funded programs for certain groups of immigrants, such as young people and older people; and

Whereas, Since the enactment of the Affordable Care Act in 2010, the amount of New Yorkers who are uninsured has been reduced considerably from 3 million to 1 million individuals; and

Whereas, In January, 2021, New York State Assembly Member Richard Gottfried introduced A.880A, along with its companion bill S.1572A, which was introduced by New York State Senator Gustavo Rivera, to expand eligibility for the Essential Plan, a health care plan for individuals who do not qualify for Medicaid in New York, to individuals who currently face barriers to health care coverage due to their immigration status; and

Whereas, A.880A/S.1572A aims to improve the overall healthcare system by encouraging people with serious and chronic health conditions to seek care and not delay out of fear for the cost of service; and

Whereas, By expanding coverage under the existing Essential Plan, A.880A/S.1572A will protect New Yorkers from financial hardships related to medical expenses incurred, stabilize our State's healthcare economy, and save lives; and

Whereas, Access to healthcare is an inherent human right, and New York State must ensure health care is accessible for all New Yorkers, regardless of immigration status; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A.880A/S.1572A, to provide coverage for health care services under the basic health program for individuals whose immigration status renders them ineligible for federal financial participation.

Whereas, According to the New York State Department of Health, New Yorkers ages 55 to 64 years had the highest rate of overdose death (52.4 per 100,000 residents) in 2020, up from 39.7 per 100,000 residents in 2019; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, an estimated 2,062 people died from a drug overdose in 2020, compared to 1,497 in 2019, an increase of 565 deaths; and

Whereas, According to a survey conducted by the Kaiser Family Foundation and the Washington Post, 25 percent of long-term opioid users started taking opioids to alleviate pain after a surgery and another 25 percent to alleviate pain after an accident or injury; and

Whereas, According to the CDC, between July 2016 and September 2017, there was a 32 percent increase of individuals over the age of 55 who received treatment for opioid overdoses in emergency rooms; and

Whereas, According to AARP, the hospitalization rate due to opioid abuse has quintupled for those 65 and older in the past two decades; and

Whereas, H.R.4846, otherwise known as the Alternatives to Opioids (ALTO) in the Emergency Department Reauthorization Act, sponsored by Rep. Bill Pascrell, will help address the opioid crisis by reauthorizing a program of grants to hospitals and emergency departments to develop, implement, enhance or study alternatives to opioids for pain management; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the United States Congress to pass, and the President to sign, H.R. 4846, the Alternatives to Opioids in the Emergency Department Reauthorization Act of 2021, to combat the opioid crisis.

Res. No. 86

Resolution calling on the U.S. Congress to pass, and the President to sign, S.1388, the Prescription Pricing for the People Act of 2021.

By Council Members Holden, Stevens and Yeger.

Whereas, According to a 2019 report by the New York State Health Foundation, per-person prescription drug spending, based on payments made at the point-of-sale, was higher for all drug categories in New York compared with national spending; and

Whereas, Per-person spending for all prescription drug categories was more than 20 percent higher in New York ($1,300) relative to national spending ($1,065); and

Whereas, According to a 2018 article by the New York Times, the average cash price for four of the five most commonly used drugs are far more expensive in New York City than they are in other cities; and

Whereas, For example, Metformin, which is used to treat diabetes, cost $66.23 in New York City; and

Whereas, In comparison, Metformin costs $49.36 in San Francisco and $43 in Boston; and

Whereas, For Paroxetine, a generic for Paxil that is used to treat depression, New Yorkers pay $73.55 while those in San Francisco and Boston only pay $53.78 and $47.34, respectively; and

Whereas, At the federal level, the U.S. Senate has been examining the ever increasing price of prescription drugs; and

Whereas, During a 2019 hearing held by the Senate Committee on Finance, the Committee looked at the role that Pharmacy Benefit Managers (PBMs) have in increasing the cost of pharmaceuticals for the consumer; and

Whereas, PBMs are considered ‘middlemen’ in the prescription drug pricing scheme; and

Whereas, PBMs are themselves large corporations, and the three largest – OptumRx, Express Scripts and CVS Caremark – control 80 to 85 percent of the market, according to a 2019 report of the New York State Senate’s Committee on Investigations and Government Operations; and

Whereas, The role of PBMs is to negotiate with the drug manufacturers, using their buying power to get the best deal on medications on behalf of insurance companies and their customers; and

Whereas, However, many have argued that PBMs act only to increase their bottom line and that consumers are paying the price; and

Whereas, The National Community Pharmacists Association, for example, argues that PBMs will select medications for inclusion on a plan according to the rebate that is paid to the PBM rather than the consumers’ best interests; and

Whereas, The Community Oncology Alliance also produced a report, in 2017, on the ways that PBMs drive up prices for consumers; and

Whereas, Part of the difficulty in assessing the actions of PBMs, however, stems from the fact that there is little regulation of the industry and it lacks transparency because the PBMs argue that they need to keep their processes secret to protect their negotiating power; and

Whereas, According to Ted Okon, Executive Director of the Community Oncology Alliance, “we have come to a point where not only are PBMs not doing anything good, they are actually doing the opposite. Delays, problems with access and higher prices are all resulting from how PBMs are operating. They are pushing drug prices higher and placing extreme pressure on pharmacies because they want to steer that business toward themselves”; and

Whereas, The problems identified with PBM operations is a driving force behind the Prescription Pricing for the People Act of 2021; and

Whereas, Introduced by Senator Grassley, S.1388 requires the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) to examine whether the actions of PBMs amounts to anti-competitive behavior; and

Whereas, Given that New Yorkers already pay high amount for their prescription drugs, it is vital that Congress act to drive prices down; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the U.S. Congress passes, and the President signs, S.1388, the Prescription Pricing for the People Act of 2021.

Res. No. 87

Resolution calling on the United States Congress to pass, and the President to sign, a bill which requires expanding access to breakthrough drugs for individuals with all serious diseases.

By Council Members Holden and Stevens.

Whereas, The United States (U.S.) Food and Drug Administration (FDA) defines a serious disease or condition as a disease or condition associated with morbidity that has substantial impact on day-to-day functioning, yet the morbidity need not be irreversible, provided it is persistent or recurrent; and

Whereas, Whether a disease or condition is serious is a matter of clinical judgment, based on its impact on such factors as survival, day-to-day functioning, or the likelihood that the disease, if left untreated, will progress from a less severe condition to a more serious one; and

Whereas, The FDA defines a breakthrough therapy designation as a designation for a drug that treats a serious or life-threatening condition and preliminary clinical evidence indicates that the drug may demonstrate substantial improvement on a clinically significant endpoint(s) over available therapies; and

Whereas, The FDA will expedite the development and review of breakthrough drugs; and

Whereas, As of December 31, 2021, the FDA's Center for Drug Evaluation and Research (CDER) received 21 breakthrough therapy designation requests for Fiscal Year 2022, and has granted 5 applications; and

Whereas, Hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers are living with serious diseases; and

Whereas, According to the American Cancer Society, an estimated 118,830 New Yorkers across the state will be diagnosed with cancer, excluding basal cell and squamous cell skin cancers and in situ carcinomas except urinary bladder, in 2022; and

Whereas, According to the Department of Health (DOH), the annual death rate per 100,000 people from all invasive malignant tumors is 132.5 per 100,000 from 2014-2018 in New York City, averaging 12,537.6 deaths per year; and

Whereas, According to the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH), roughly 1,400 people were diagnosed with HIV in New York City in 2020; and

Whereas, In 2018, Congress passed and the President signed S.204, otherwise known as the Trickett Wendler, Frank Mongiello, Jordan McLinn, and Matthew Bellina Right to Try Act of 2017 or simply the Right to Try Act, which authorized the use of unapproved medical products by patients diagnosed specifically with terminal illnesses in accordance with State law by expanding access specifically to experimental drugs under certain conditions; and

Whereas, Individuals, including those with serious yet not terminal illnesses, should have access to breakthrough drugs; and

Whereas, In 2014, H.R.5805, sponsored by Rep. Michael McCaul, was introduced, and it called for a similar process to be created for breakthrough drugs, which treat individuals with both serious or terminal illnesses; and

Whereas, Under H.R.5805, a covered breakthrough drug refers to breakthrough drugs as well as products designated as fast track products, products which will have accelerated approval under section 506, qualified infectious disease products, or products with sponsors of which are awarded a priority review voucher; and

Whereas, Under Section 2 of H.R.5805, no later than 30 days after the date on which a drug meets the definition of a covered breakthrough drug, the sponsor of the covered breakthrough drug shall submit to the Secretary and make publicly available the policy of the sponsor with respect to requests submitted for use of said medication; and

Whereas, Any person, acting through a physician licensed in accordance with State law, may request from a manufacturer or distributor, and any manufacturer or distributor may, after complying with the provisions of set forth in Section 561 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, provide to such physician a breakthrough drug or breakthrough device for the diagnosis, monitoring, or treatment of a serious disease or condition; and

Whereas, Such a bill would expand access to medications which could assist individuals who would otherwise have no choice yet to wait for the medications to be approved; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the United States Congress to pass, and the President to sign, a bill which requires expanding access to breakthrough drugs for individuals with all serious diseases.

Res. No. 88

Resolution calling upon the United States Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation to fully repeal the Institutions for Mental Diseases Exclusion from the Social Security Act to allow states to use federal Medicaid funding to provide mental health and substance use disorder treatment services to adult Medicaid beneficiaries at Institutions for Mental Diseases.

By Council Members Holden and Stevens.

Whereas, The Institutions for Mental Diseases (IMD) Exclusion rule has been in place since the beginning of the Medicaid program in 1965 and prohibits the use of federal Medicaid funds to finance services for adults ages 22-64 residing in institutions for severe mental illness, which include hospitals, nursing homes, or other institutions with more than 16 beds that primarily provide diagnosis, treatment, or care for persons living with severe mental illness; and

Whereas, The New York State Office of Mental Health (OMH) operates inpatient mental health care at 24 state psychiatric centers that are classified by the federal government as IMDs—9 of which are known as “Forensic” facilities and serve justice-involved children and adults—and regulates roughly 100 programs operated within general hospitals, also known as “Article 28” facilities; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Mayor’s Office of Community Mental Health, in 2021 there were approximately 280,000 adults living with serious mental illness in New York City; and

Whereas, Nationwide, the public mental healthcare system has shifted from an inpatient to an outpatient treatment model through a process referred to as “deinstitutionalization” to reduce the number of individuals in psychiatric centers; and

Whereas, Under the Cuomo administration, deinstitutionalization efforts were made through the Transformation Plan, which relies on community-based mental health treatment to reduce the average daily census and total number of beds at state psychiatric centers; and

Whereas, Deinstitutionalization has inadvertently placed a heavy financial burden on general hospitals, homeless shelters and NYC jails, all of which have a limited capacity to provide services to individuals living with mental illness; and

Whereas, In New York state, there are more adult psychiatric-care beds located in general hospitals than in state psychiatric centers, which include 4,676 beds in general hospitals compared to only 2,336 beds in state psychiatric centers; and

Whereas, NYC Health and Hospitals (H+H) is the leading provider of inpatient psychiatric care in NYC with 11 H+H facilities that provide 1,219 beds for adult inpatient psychiatric care; and

Whereas, In 2018, there were a total of 28 mental health shelters in NYC and the number of New Yorkers experiencing homelessness and living with serious mental illness has been on the rise according to ThriveNYC; and

Whereas, As of 2018, Rikers Island jail complex is one of the three largest providers of psychiatric care in the United States, with over 40% of the population having a mental health diagnosis and over 10% having a serious mental health diagnosis; and

Whereas, The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) updated the IMD managed care rules in 2016 to allow federal reimbursement of short stays only of 15 days or fewer in IMDs in Medicaid managed care systems; and

Whereas, In 2018, Congress partially repealed IMD Exclusion by passing the Substance Use-Disorder Prevention that Promotes Opioid Recovery and Treatment for Patients and Communities Act or the “SUPPORT for Patients and Communities Act,” which provides federal funding for residential substance-use disorder treatment; and

Whereas, A full repeal that extends to all Medicaid beneficiaries and removes inpatient-day limitations, would allow for better outcomes and provide treatment to adults living with acute and chronic serious mental illness at IMDs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the United States Congress to pass and the President to sign legislation to fully repeal the Institutions for Mental Diseases Exclusion from the Social Security Act to allow states to use federal Medicaid funding to provide mental health and substance use disorder treatment services to adult Medicaid beneficiaries at Institutions for Mental Diseases.

Res. No. 89

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation that would amend pretrial detention to include all hate crime charges.

By Council Member Holden.

Whereas, On January 1, 2020, The New York State legislature implemented sweeping reforms to the state's system of pretrial detention, which prohibited judges from setting bail or other forms of pretrial detention for many charges; and

Whereas, By April 2020, the State legislature amended these laws to allow for pretrial detention for expanded types of charges, including two categories of hate crimes: assault as a hate crime in the third degree and arson as a hate crime in the third degree; and

Whereas, A December 2021 CBS News report indicated there was a 100% increase in hate crimes in New York City in 2021 compared to 2020; and

Whereas, Reports indicate dramatic increases in anti-Asian, anti-Semitic and hate crimes regarding sexual orientation; and

Whereas, Permitting pretrial detention provides judges with the option to more meaningfully address hate crimes; and

Whereas, The 2020 amendments to the bail reform laws do not include the types of hate crimes prevalent throughout the city; and

Whereas, New York City is incredibly diverse with over 3 million foreign-born residents, many different faiths, and more than 200 languages spoken; and

Whereas, There can be no tolerance for hate crimes in New York City; and

Whereas, Expanding bail eligibility to all hate crimes underlines the seriousness with which the City takes these types of attacks; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation that would amend pretrial detention to include all hate crime charges.

Res. No. 90

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5004, to enhance the fitness and safety requirements for certain licensed individuals.

By Council Member Holden.

Whereas, On June 25, 2018, Madeline Sershen, a 17 year-old high school student in Queens was killed when an 88-year-old driver ran a red light at the intersection of Utopia Parkway and 16th Avenue in Whitestone; and

Whereas, Ms. Sershen's tragic death has spurred her family and the community at large to advocate for the way New York State assesses its senior drivers with more than 21,000 people signing an online petition urging New York State to introduce retesting every 2 years once a driver turns 80; and

Whereas, According to the Federal Highway Administration, there were more than 221 million licensed drivers in United States in 2016, including approximately 42 million who are aged 65 and older; and

Whereas, Data obtained from the New York State Open Data Portal reveals that there are approximately 11.7 million licensed drivers in New York State, including roughly 2.7 million drivers 65 years of age or older; and

Whereas, The national automobile membership organization AAA reports that by 2030, 85 to 90 percent of the 70 million Americans older than 65 are projected to have driver's licenses, a substantial increase from the 33 million that was reported in 2009; and

Whereas, AAA also said that while seniors are safe drivers compared to other age groups, they are more likely to be injured or killed in traffic crashes due to age-related vulnerabilities; and

Whereas, The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention indicates that fatal crash rates increase starting at age 75 and increase notably after age 80; and

Whereas, According to the Governors Highway Safety Association, 33 States and the District of Columbia have special provisions for mature drivers, including accelerated renewal frequency; restriction of online or mailed renewals; and required vision and road tests; and

Whereas, An analysis of State license renewal procedures conducted by the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety ("IIHS") found that 18 states require shorter renewal periods for drivers older than a specified age and 18 states require more frequent vision screening/testing for older drivers; and

Whereas, The IIHS analysis further indicates that the District of Columbia requires a physician's approval for drivers 70 and older to renew their licenses, while the State of Illinois requires applicants older than 75 to take a road test at every renewal; and

Whereas, New York State currently does not have any additional mandatory requirements for mature drivers, but only requires a vision test upon the initial application and then at every subsequent renewal which occurs every eight years; and

Whereas, The New York State Department of Motor Vehicles ("DMV") currently administers the Driver Re-evaluation Program which allows the DMV to reevaluate drivers in the state if the Commissioner has "reasonable grounds" to believe that a person holding a license is not qualified to drive a motor vehicle; and

Whereas, In February 2021, New York State Senator Kevin S. Parker introduced S.5004, a bill that would enhance the fitness and safety requirements for certain licensed individuals and establish a state task force on the effects of aging; and

Whereas, S.5004 would require that upon the seventh application submission for the renewal of a driver's license, applicants must submit proof of a physical examination, conducted by a licensed physician, to prove that the licensee is medically fit to operate a motor vehicle; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.5004, to enhance the fitness and safety requirements for certain licensed individuals.

Res. No. 91

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to introduce and pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation increasing penalties on drivers who improperly register vehicles in another state.

By Council Members Holden, Yeger and Brannan.

Whereas, Drivers are required to register their vehicles with the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles within 30 days of moving into the state; and

Whereas, Many residents of New York choose to illegally register their vehicle in other states, often in an attempt to take advantage of lower insurance rates and lower sales tax rates; and

Whereas, According to a Streetsblog analysis of New York City Police Department collision data, as of September 2021, there were 11,000 people injured (nearly 34% of all people injured in crashes thus far in 2021) and 62 people killed in crashes involving cars registered elsewhere in 2021; and

Whereas, According to the Streetsblog analysis, out-of-state cars make up a growing proportion of vehicles involved in crashes in New York City, with 2021 estimates, as of September of that year, showing that about 19% of total crashes involved out-of-state cars; and

Whereas, A 2017 Crain's report, citing a 2011 New York State Senate study, reported that New York residents who drive cars registered out of state cost the city $73 million in unpaid parking tickets, deprive the state of $1 million annually in fees for license plates, titles, and vehicle registrations, as well as up to $93 million in sales tax revenue, and cost insurers $19 million each year in underpriced premiums; and

Whereas, This number is most likely much higher in 2022, as according to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers rose 7.5% from January 2021 to January 2022, with new vehicles seeing a 12.2% increase in price, and used cars and trucks seeing a 40.5% increase, ultimately impacting the revenue that New York would collect on otherwise properly registered vehicles and the premiums required by insurers; and

Whereas, New York residents who improperly avoid taxes, fees, and insurance costs by registering their vehicles in other states unfairly shift that burden to fellow New Yorkers who follow the rules; and

Whereas, Various bills that would enhance enforcement of improper out-of-state registration and increase associated penalties have been introduced in the State Legislature in recent years, including legislation that would make listing a false address on a car insurance or vehicle registration form a felony and legislation that would grant the Superintendent of Financial Services the authority to investigate such fraudulent acts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to introduce and pass, and the Governor to sign, legislation increasing penalties on drivers who improperly register vehicles in another state.

Res. No. 92

Resolution calling on the United States Congress to pass and President Joseph Biden to sign the Black Maternal Health Mommibus Act of 2021

By the Public Advocate (Mr. Williams) and Council Members Hanif, Brewer, Riley, Sanchez, Stevens, Won, Restler and Nurse.

Whereas, The rate of maternal mortality in the United States more than doubled between 1990 and 2014 and the United States is the only developed country in the world whose rates continue to rise according to studies published in Obstetrics and Gynecology; and

Whereas, Over 700 women a year in the United States die of complications related to pregnancy and two-thirds of those deaths are preventable, with 50,000 women suffering from Severe Maternal Morbidity defined as life threatening complications of pregnancy according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; and

Whereas, Rising maternal mortality and morbidity rates disproportionately impact Black women, who are up to three times more likely to die due to a complication from child birth than white women, regardless of other factors such as their level of educational attainment or income, according to United States Department of Health and Human Services research on maternal mortality disparities; and

Whereas, In New York State, the maternal mortality rate for black women was 51.6 deaths per 100,000 live births, compared to 15.9 deaths per 100,000 live births for white women from 2014-2016, according to the New York State Taskforce on Maternal Mortality and Disparate Racial Outcomes report from March 2019; and

Whereas, In New York City, Black women are three times more likely than white women to suffer from Severe Maternal Morbidity according to a New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene report on Severe Maternal Morbidity; and

Whereas, The Black Maternal Momnibus Act of 2021 H.R.959/S.346 sponsored by Rep. Lauren Underwood (D-IL-14) and Sen. Res. No. 93

Resolution recognizing June as Gun Violence Awareness Month in New York City.

By the Public Advocate (Mr. Williams) and Council Members Hanif, Riley, Stevens and Restler.

Whereas, Gun violence is a national and local problem affecting many Americans and New Yorkers on a daily basis; and

Whereas, According to the Gun Violence Archive, there were 77,943 incidents of gun violence in the United States in 2019, resulting in 15,448 deaths and 30,186 injuries; and

Whereas, National attention is often drawn to large scale tragedies, yet there are gun violence injuries occurring every day throughout many American cities; and

Whereas, In New York City, the number of murders rose to nearly 500 before the close of 2021, the highest amount reported since 2011 where 515 murders were recorded; and

Whereas, While the number of shootings in NYC are reaching new highs in recent years, gun violence has disproportionately impacted certain neighborhoods and populations in the City; and

Whereas, In December 2021, 1,828 people were victims of gun violence, having been struck by a bullet; and

Whereas, Of shooting victims in 2020, 74% were Black and 22% were Hispanic; and

Whereas, It is therefore clear that gun violence is a serious problem in our communities that must be addressed; and

Whereas, Furthermore, gun violence and the resulting injuries and deaths typically increase substantially in the summer months; and

Whereas, It is important for the City of New York to once again work to increase public awareness about guns and the severity of their impact on our communities; and

Whereas, Recognition of the month of June as Gun Violence Awareness Month by local and state officials will increase efforts to protect all New Yorkers, especially those who are disproportionately affected by such violence, by furthering the dialogue with our local, state and federal partners to help examine the causes of gun violence and create meaningful solutions in an effort to prevent the violence from peaking again in the summer; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York recognizes June as Gun Violence Awareness Month in New York City.

Res. No. 94

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A1552, which would require MTA police officers to wear body-worn cameras.

By The Public Advocate (Mr. Williams) and Council Members Brewer, Riley, Stevens and Restler.

Whereas, In June 2019, then-Governor Andrew Cuomo announced a plan to hire 500 additional Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) police officers to patrol New York City's subway system; and

Whereas, In December 2019, the MTA board approved the Governor's plan, allocating an estimated $250 million over four years to expand the MTA's police force by 64 percent to purportedly combat crime, fare evasion, and the system's homelessness population; and

Whereas, The New York Police Department (NYPD) has equipped all uniformed patrol officers with body-worn cameras to record their interactions with community residents; and

Whereas, MTA police are not members of the NYPD, and are not required to wear body-worn cameras; and

Whereas, Research from Arizona State University shows officers with body-worn cameras have fewer complaints lodged against them; and

Whereas, A study conducted with Rialto Police Department in California shows decreases in civilian complaints lodged against officers wearing body-worn camera and decreases in use-of-force incidents by the police; and

Whereas, A1552 introduced by Assemblymember Karines Reyes, would require MTA police to wear body-worn cameras and directs the chief of the MTA Police Department to establish rules and regulations pertaining to body-worn cameras; and

Whereas, The use of body-worn cameras would increase transparency and accountability, which can help improve law enforcement legitimacy at a time when communities lack trust and confidence in law enforcement; and

Whereas, The use of body-worn cameras also offer the opportunity to improve training as law enforcement officials can assess police activities and behaviors captured by body-worn cameras; and now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A1552, which would require MTA police officers to wear body-worn cameras

Referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Res. No. 95

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A217/S2736, relating to informing maternity patients about the risks associated with cesarean section.

By Council Members Rivera, Hanif, Riley, Stevens, Won and Nurse.

Whereas, According to the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), a cesarean birth is the delivery of a baby through incisions made in the abdomen and uterus; and

Whereas, According to ACOG, a cesarean birth may be performed if there are certain concerns about the fetus, problems with the placenta, if the birthing parent has certain medical conditions, and for other reasons; and

Whereas, While cesarean sections can be medically needed, for low risk pregnancies and those who do not medically require a cesarean section, there are benefits to having a vaginal birth; and

Whereas, According to the Mayo Clinic, cesarean sections include risks for both the birthing parent and baby; and

Whereas, Babies born by scheduled cesarean section are more likely to develop transient tachypnea, a breathing problem marked by abnormally fast breathing during the first few days after birth, and, rarely, babies may experience a surgical injury; and

Whereas, Risks for birthing parents include infection, postpartum hemorrhage, blood clots, wound infection, surgical injury, and other issues; and

Whereas, Individuals who have a cesarean section also require time to recover and additional postpartum care; and

Whereas, Cesarean sections also impact the birthing parent's future maternal health; and

Whereas, Individuals who have a cesarean section face a higher risk of potentially serious complications in a subsequent pregnancy, such as cesarean scar on the uterus rupturing during a future vaginal birth; and

Whereas, According to the New York State Taskforce on Maternal Mortality and Disparate Racial Outcomes, the cesarean delivery rate in the U.S. has risen to over 30 percent, and, when compared to vaginal deliveries, cesarean deliveries carry overall higher rates of maternal mortality; and

Whereas, According to the Task Force's report, from 2012-2014, 66 percent of prenatal related deaths in New York State involved a cesarean section; and

Whereas, According to the New York City 2008-2012 Severe Maternal Morbidity report, maternal morbidity is a continuum from mild adverse effects to life-threatening events or death; and

Whereas, According to the report, the severe maternal morbidity rate was higher among people with a primary or repeat cesarean (474.1 and 492.3 per 10,000 deliveries, respectively), compared to those with a vaginal birth (109.8 per 10,000 deliveries) or vaginal birth after a cesarean (172.7 per 10,000 deliveries); and

Whereas, Although it is difficult to differentiate between morbidity caused by cesarean delivery versus morbidity requiring a cesarean delivery, cesarean sections may have a higher risk of maternal morbidity; and

Whereas, According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, in 2020 the cesarean delivery rate in New York State was 33.6 percent, the twelfth highest rate in the country; and

Whereas, It is increasingly important to ensure that all individuals giving birth are informed of the risks associated with cesarean births; and

Whereas, A217/S2736, sponsored by Senator Julia Salazar and Assembly Member Amy Paulin, amends the public health law, in relation to informing maternity patients about the risks associated with cesarean section; and

Whereas, The bill would require maternal health providers to supply individuals with a planned cesarean and those who undergo an unplanned cesarean with a standardized written communication about cesarean sections; and

Whereas, Such written communication would include, but not be limited to, potential maternal injuries, potential injuries to the fetus, the impact of a cesarean delivery may have on future pregnancies and deliveries, and the circumstances in which cesarean delivery may be necessary to save the life of the parent or fetus; and

Whereas, The information would be developed by the Commissioner based on consultations with appropriate health care professionals, providers, consumers, educators, and patients, including the ACOG and the New York State Association of Licensed Midwives; and

Whereas, Such a law would ensure the universal dissemination of information to improve the health and safety of New York's birthing parents and newborns; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the New York State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A217/S2736, relating to informing maternity patients about the risks associated with cesarean section.

Referred to the Committee on Health.

Res. No. 96

Resolution calling on the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, S.1411B/A.307B, which would expand Medicaid benefits to one year postpartum.

By Council Members Rivera, Hanif, Riley, Stevens, Won, Restler, Brannan, Avilés and Nurse.

Whereas, According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), a pregnancy-related death is defined as the death of a person while pregnant or within one year of the end of a pregnancy (regardless of the outcome or duration of the pregnancy) from any cause related to or aggravated by the pregnancy or its management, but not from accidental or incidental causes; and

Whereas, Data from the CDC find that about one-third of all pregnancy-related deaths occur one week to one year after a pregnancy ends; and

Whereas, In a report released in 2019, New York State was ranked 30th in the nation for its maternal mortality rate; and

Whereas, New York State had a maternal mortality rate for Black women of 52 deaths per 100,000 live births, compared to 16 deaths per 100,000 live births for white women during 2014-2016; and

Whereas, According to the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), the postpartum period represents a time of increased vulnerabilities; and

Whereas, In addition to monitoring a person's physical wellbeing postpartum, it is important to maintain access to mental health and substance use disorder treatment services during this time; and

Whereas, Those with opioid use disorder relapse far more often in the postpartum period compared with during pregnancy and should have access to and continued use of treatment services; and

Whereas, New York State offers Medicaid to pregnant New York residents who meet income requirements, regardless of immigration status; and

Whereas, In the Medicaid for pregnancy program, babies receive health care services for at least one year after birth, but the pregnant individual only receives care for 60 days after the end of pregnancy; and

Whereas, S.1411B/A.307B, sponsored by Senator Gustavo Rivera and Assembly Member Richard Gottfried, would extend the coverage period for medical assistance to a period of one year beginning on the last day of pregnancy; and

Whereas, In New York State, over 50 percent of births were covered by Medicaid in 2018; and

Whereas, In 2019, about 56 percent of births in New York City were covered by Medicaid; and

Whereas, That year, approximately 77 percent of Hispanic (not of Puerto Rican ancestry), 67.5 percent of Puerto Rican, 66 of Black, and 55 percent Asian/Pacific Islander live births were covered by Medicaid, compared to 37 percent white live births; and

Whereas, According to a 2020 study comparing states that have expanded Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act to nonexpansion states, Medicaid expansion was significantly associated with lower maternal mortality by 7.01 maternal deaths per 100,000 live births relative to nonexpansion states; and

Whereas, Medicaid expansion effects were concentrated among non-Hispanic Black mothers, suggesting that expansion could be contributing to decreasing racial disparities in maternal mortality; and

Whereas, In New York City, Black pregnant people are 8 to 12 times more likely to die due to pregnancy compared to their white counterparts; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH), Black non-Latina women had the highest severe maternal morbidity rate (three times that of White non-Latina women), with rates also high among Puerto Rican and other Latina women compared to White non-Latina women; and

Whereas, The CDC has found that almost two-thirds of pregnancy-related deaths are preventable; and

Whereas, Extending Medicaid coverage past 60 days postpartum is a commonsense way to save lives and improve parent and child health outcomes and could help reduce stark racial disparities in maternal mortality; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the State Legislature to pass and the Governor to sign S.1411B/A.307B, which would expand Medicaid benefits to one year postpartum.

Res. No. 97

Resolution recognizing April 12th annually as Garifuna Heritage Day in the City of New York

By Council Members Salamanca, Hanif, Stevens and Restler.

Whereas, The Garífuna people are descendants of the indigenous Island Carib people of the Lesser Antilles in the Caribbean and formerly enslaved Central and West Africans, who either escaped plantations or mines on nearby islands or survived Spanish shipwrecks off the coast of St. Vincent in 1635; and

Whereas, Unlike much of the Caribbean archipelago following Christopher Columbus’ arrival in 1492, the Island Carib people were among the most successful Native American groups in resisting European conquest and colonization; and

Whereas, After a time of peaceful coexistence with French settlers, with whom the Garífuna formed an alliance against rival colonial powers, a series of wars erupted among the British, Spaniards and French, out of which the British emerged victorious in 1796; and

Whereas, In 1797, nearly 150 years after Barbados and St. Kitts were settled and successfully controlled by the British, St. Vincent became the last indigenous stronghold in the Caribbean when a few thousand Garífuna were deported to Roatán, an island off the coast of Spanish-controlled Honduras; and

Whereas, Over the next century, the Garífuna spread out along the Central American coastland and became heavily involved in the banana exportation industry until the 1940s, when a deadly epidemic spread among banana plants, forcing companies to shut down and their employees out of work; and

Whereas, Looking for work, many Garífuna men turned to seafaring businesses and during World War II served in the merchant marines for Great Britain and the United States, eventually settling in the port cities of Los Angeles, New York and New Orleans; and

Whereas, In 1823, William Henry Brown, the first American playwright of African descent, wrote “The Drama of King Shotaway,” recognized as the first Black drama of American theater, which has as its subject the 1795 Island Carib peoples’ defense of St. Vincent against colonization by the British; and

Whereas, Born of a fusion of race and ethnicities, and after more than 300 years of contact with British, French and Spanish colonizers, the Garífuna have maintained aspects of their ancestral culture and full use of their ancestral language, both of which are noted for being distinct; and

Whereas, The Garífuna historically were punished for expressing their culture and language in Belize, Guatemala, the Grenadines, Honduras, Nicaragua and St. Vincent, where they remain minorities in their respective countries; and

Whereas, In 2001, in recognition of the importance of preserving traditional and popular culture under threat of disappearing in an era of globalization, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organizations (UNESCO) awarded the title of “Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangibles Heritage of Humanity” to the Garífuna Language, Dance and Music of Belize; and

Whereas, Despite many contributions to the social and economic fiber of New York City, the Garífuna community remained relatively invisible until 1990, when a devastating fire at the Happy Land Social Club in the Bronx claimed the lives of 87 people, of whom more than 70 percent were of Garífuna descent; and

Whereas, Today, the Garífuna community makes a significant contribution to the cultural tapestry that defines New York City, which is home to the largest Garífuna population outside of Honduras, with an estimated 200,000 Garífuna living in the South Bronx, Harlem, Brownsville and East New York; and

Whereas, In observance of the anniversary of the forcible transfer of the Garífuna from St. Vincent and the Grenadines, March 11th through April 12th has been designated as Garífuna-American Heritage Month in the State of New York and April 12, 2018 will mark the 221st Anniversary of the expulsion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York recognizes April 12th annually as Garífuna Heritage Day in the City of New York.

Res. No. 98

Resolution calling on the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A. 8681/S. 7527, to prohibit prosecutors from using creative expression as evidence against a criminal defendant without clear and convincing proof that there is a literal, factual nexus between the creative expression and the facts of the case.

By Council Members Williams, Hanif, Stevens, Riley, Restler, Brannan, Farías, Louis, Avilés, Narcisse, Joseph, Ayala, Rivera and Richardson Jordan.

Whereas, A. 8681, introduced by Assembly Member Catalina Cruz and pending in the New York State Assembly, and companion bill S. 7527, introduced by State Senator Brad Hoylman and pending in the New York State Senate, seek to amend the Criminal Procedure Law by prohibiting prosecutors from using creative expression as evidence against a criminal defendant without clear and convincing proof that there is a literal and factual nexus between the creative expression and the facts of the case, in an effort to protect freedom of expression in New York State; and

Whereas, Article I, Section 8 of the New York State Constitution protects the right to freely express oneself, whether through speaking, writing or other creative outlets, enhancing protection of free expression guaranteed in the First Amendment of the United States Constitution; and

Whereas, According to the New York State Court of Appeals, New York State is “a cultural center for the Nation” that has “long provided a hospitable climate for the free exchange of ideas”; and

Whereas, In criminal proceedings in the United States, courts have perpetrated a disturbing trend of admitting creative expression into evidence as proof of wrongdoing; and

Whereas, Admitting creative expression into evidence to convict criminal defendants has a chilling effect on fundamental rights which the Federal and New York State Constitutions safeguard, and exacerbates bias against black and brown defendants who exercise their rights in particular forms of expression, like rap music, that are the subject of discriminatory associations linking black and brown people with criminal conduct; and

Whereas, Standards for the admissibility of evidence in New York State criminal proceedings do not adequately protect a defendant’s creative expression from being used against them; and

Whereas, An enhanced standard demanding clear and convincing proof that creative expression has a literal and factual nexus to the facts of the case would provide stronger protection of fundamental rights and would mitigate the risk such evidence poses for exacerbating racial biases that judges and juries show against black and brown criminal defendants, especially; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the State Legislature to pass, and the Governor to sign, A. 8681/S. 7527, to prohibit prosecutors from using creative expression as evidence against a criminal defendant without clear and convincing proof that there is a literal, factual nexus between the creative expression and the facts of the case.

Stated Council Meeting

Council Chambers – City Hall.....Agenda – 1:30 p.m

The following comments were among the remarks made by the Speaker (Council Member Adams) during the Communication from the Speaker segment of this meeting:

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the Senate confirmation hearings that were taking place regarding Judge Ketanji Brown Jackson's nomination to the U.S. Supreme Court. She complimented Judge Jackson's poise, composure, and grace during the confirmation process. In celebration of her nomination, the Speaker (Council Member Adams) noted that she herself was wearing the same colors of black and blue worn by Judge Jackson on the last day of her hearing.

The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the March 25th anniversaries of two horrific tragedies which changed the city: the March 25, 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Company Factory fire in Greenwich Village that killed 146 individuals, many of whom were young immigrant women working in sweatshops; and the March 25, 1990 Happy Land Social Club fire in The Bronx that killed 87 immigrant New Yorkers. She noted that the Council would continue in its efforts to keep homes, businesses, and buildings in New York City safe from preventable fires. The Speaker (Council Member Adams) acknowledged the Council's creation of a Twin Parks Citywide Taskforce in the wake of the tragic January 9, 2022 Twin Parks fire in Council Member Feliz's district. She also noted that legislation was being introduced at this Stated Meeting by Council Member Feliz in response to the Twin Parks tragedy which would help protect New Yorkers from such fires in the future.

Whereupon on motion of the Speaker (Council Member Adams), the Majority Leader and Acting President Pro Tempore (Council Member Powers) adjourned these hybrid proceedings to meet again for the Stated Meeting on Thursday, April 7, 2022.

MICHAEL M. McSWEENEY, City Clerk
Clerk of the Council

Editor's Note: The scheduled April 7, 2022 Stated Meeting was subsequently deferred and a Stated Meeting was scheduled for April 14, 2022 instead.
