

LOCAL LAWS
OF
THE CITY OF NEW YORK
FOR THE YEAR 1995

---

No. 79

---

Introduced by Council Members Koslowitz and Stabile (by the request of the Mayor); also Council Members Wooten and Cruz.

A LOCAL LAW

To amend local law 112 for the year 1993, in relation to the towing of vehicles and the removal of accident vehicles.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 27 of local law 112 for the year 1993 is amended to read as follows:

§27. The commissioner of consumer affairs shall submit a report to the council on the implementation of the special accident response districts designated pursuant to section 20-518.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by section twenty-one of this local law, no later than [one year after the effective date of the first special accident response district designated by the commissioner pursuant to such section 20-518.1, which effective date shall be prescribed by rule of the commissioner] August 1, 1996. No later than [sixty] thirty days after the commissioner of consumer affairs has submitted such report to the council, the mayor shall submit to the council any proposed legislation necessary to implement such report's recommendations. No later than [one hundred twenty] sixty days after the commissioner of consumer affairs has submitted such report to the council, the council's consumer affairs committee shall conduct a hearing to review the effectiveness of special accident response districts and to consider legislation proposed by the mayor, if any, to implement the report's recommendations.

§2. Section 28 of local law 112 for the year 1993 is amended to read as follows:

§28. This local law shall take effect one hundred twenty days after it shall have been enacted into law, provided, however, that sections six, ten, thirteen, fifteen, seventeen, twenty, twenty-one and twenty-four shall expire and shall be of no further force and effect [eighteen months after the effective date of the first special accident response district designated by the commissioner of consumer affairs pursuant to section 20-518.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by section twenty-one of this local law, which effective date shall be prescribed by rule of the commissioner, provided, however, that if the effective date of the first special accident response district is more than sixty days after the effective date of this local law, such sections shall expire and be of no further force and effect eighteen months after the effective date of this local law,] on October 28, 1996, and, provided, further, that the commissioner of consumer affairs may promulgate any necessary rules and take any other actions necessary for the timely implementation of this local law prior to such effective date.

§3. This local law shall take effect immediately and shall be retroactive to and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on October 28, 1995.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK, s.s.:

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a local law of the City of New York, passed by the Council on October 25, 1995, and approved by the Mayor on November 8, 1995.

CARLOS CUEVAS, City Clerk, Clerk of the Council
