Eternal and ever wise true and living God our father and our mother.
 Today, we celebrate this pivotal moment in the history of our city with the election of our Council Member, the Honorary Corey Johnson, our first gay male Speaker of the City of New York Council.
 Council Member Johnson provides a crucial representation of courage, confidence and success in his leadership role for our transgender youth and for those that are struggling under pervasive challenges of oppression and rejection.
 Most Holy God, you are no respecter of person.
 You do not discriminate against your human creation.
 You are the God who loves all members of our humanity, including our LGBTQ future generation and our brothers and our sisters.
 You are the God who chooses ordinary people to do extraordinary things.
 Therefore, unveiling a glimpse of your divine force working in every fiber of our society.
 We are grateful that you have brought to our great city esteemed workers from various walks of life who are committed to standing up for the freedom and justice of all.
 You have inspired them to work together and set goals, pass legislation that then answers the development and sustainability of our New York City the city we love.
 We beseech thee, oh, God that you inspire our leaders in the City Council to make decisions that will bring relief to all members of our city who are struggling, all members regardless of their race, color, religion, creed or gender.
 Our great spirit of life and light and truth we invoke your mighty presence to shower our newly elected and to shower all those profound members of the New York City Council.

Give them your life giving spirit.
Fill them with love of truth, and shackled their optimism,
and motivate their spiritual exuberance.
Help them to walk upright, have mercy and let justice roll down like a mighty stream.
We invoke your presence to surround these magnificent leaders.
Bring them together to be servants for the poor, providing for them the highest level of dignity in our great city.
Show up, oh, God; inspire their willingness to promote the highest good for their fellow human beings.
Restore upon them the power to perform their duties to obtain the ultimate benefits for those that are marginalized in our beloved New York City,
the greatest city in the world.
Show up, oh, God and inspire our leaders to speak on the behalf of the voiceless, the underserved, the weary and the down trodden of our great city.
Most merciful God, come in all your glory.
Fill the Chamber of the City Council with your blessing.
Fill it with your mercy.
Fill it with your peace that passes all human understanding.
Fill it with your love.
Be not silent eternal God, but be a silent listener

Such accountings shall be accompanied by a summary description specifying, at a minimum, the amounts devoted to the following functions and divisions of the Council: the divisions responsible for the budget and fiscal analysis, the Council's role in the land use process, legislative drafting, and legal services; the Council press office; each committee; the Sergeant at Arms and other security functions; each member's office; the Speaker's staff, including all amounts paid to all consultants as well as the functions of such consultants; and any changes in each of these amounts, other than changes in compensation of members of Central staff, from the Council budget adopted for the fiscal year covered by such accounting.

Such policy shall require that all organizations that wish to be considered for discretionary funding from the expense budget or for discretionary funding from the capital budget for a “non-City capital project” shall file an application with the Council or relevant City offices and/or agencies. For the purposes of this rule, a “non-City capital project” is a project for which the applicant organization is required to submit a Capital Funding Request Form for Not-for-Profit Organizations. Applications for discretionary funding from the expense budget or for discretionary funding from the capital budget for a non-City capital project shall be reviewed by the Council and/or relevant City offices and/or agencies to ensure that they are legally eligible to receive the City funds, are capable of providing the services for which they seek funding, are seeking funding for a public purpose, and are in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. All expense applications received by the Council shall be made available to the public in a searchable on-line database in summary form. All allocations for discretionary funding from the expense budget or for discretionary funding from the capital budget shall be made available to the public in a searchable on-line database and in a downloadable, machine-readable format. In addition, such policy shall require completion of conflicts of interest disclosure/certification forms as specified by the Speaker from (i) all organizations seeking discretionary funding from the expense budget or discretionary funding from the capital budget for a non-City capital project, (ii) all Council Members sponsoring discretionary funding allocations and (iii) all Council Members prior to voting to designate discretionary funds. Such disclosure/certification forms shall contain either disclosure of any relationship between an organization and applicable City officials and associated persons or firms so that a determination may be made as to whether funding such organization is consistent with the City's Conflicts of Interest Laws and if so whether disclosure is necessary, or a certification that no such relationships exist.

b. Allocation of discretionary funds from the expense budget or discretionary funds from the capital budget for a non-City capital project, designation of recipients of discretionary funds from the expense budget or discretionary funds from the capital budget for a non-City capital project, and delineation of the uses of such funds shall be made solely through the budget adoption or modification process or through a discretionary funding transparency resolution. All such funds shall be distributed between and among sponsoring Council Members for allocation pursuant to a publicly disclosed formula that allocates funds either equally among members, or based upon publicly available data about differences between districts, or some combination thereof. The Speaker shall be responsible for proposing no more than one half of all dollars allocated by the Council discretionary expense funding process.

2.60. Council Members’ Operating Expenses - The amounts allocated in the Council budget for the operation of individual members’ offices shall be the same for each member. The Speaker may not reduce such amount for any member unless all members are subject to the same reduction. The Speaker may not supplement the amount available to any member through direct or indirect payment, provided that the Speaker may, with notice to all members, supplement the amount available to an individual Councilmember in cases of special need. It is the intent of the body that the total amount allocated for the operation of individual members’ offices shall be reasonable in proportion to the amount allocated for central staff.

2.65. Prohibition against using funds from operating expenses for certain advertisements - a. No city funds appropriated to the Council (“Council funds”) shall be used by a Council Member for the purchase of advertisements in an organization’s journal or bulletin in print or other form; provided, however, that for purposes of this rule, a publication of an organization that is published at least quarterly and is distributed beyond the membership of the organization to the general public shall not be deemed a journal or bulletin.

(iii) contains a Council Member's likeness, picture or voice.

c. 2.80. Qualification of Council Members - Council Members, as public officers, must meet the qualifications of Section 3 of the New York State Public Officers Law in order to hold public office. In addition, Section 30 of such law sets forth provisions governing the creation of vacancies in public office. The Committee on Rules, Privileges and Elections shall have jurisdiction over these matters. The Committee, or staff of the Committee acting under its direction, shall request such information as is reasonably necessary to review the qualifications of Council Members-elect. In addition, the Committee may determine whether particularized review of qualifications of a Council Member-elect or eligibility to serve as a Council Member is appropriate based upon information submitted or otherwise available to the Committee, or based upon failure to submit information requested in accordance with the preceding sentence. In the event that such a particularized review is conducted, the Council Member-elect, or Council Member, shall be afforded the right to be heard. If the Committee believes that a Council Member-elect should not be seated, or that a Council Member is not eligible to serve in public office, due to failure to meet the qualifications of the Public Officers Law or due to the creation of a vacancy pursuant to such law, the Committee will recommend appropriate action to the full Council. The record of the proceedings before the Committee on the matter shall be made available to the members of the Council before any such action is taken by the full Council.

2.85. Outside Earned Income - Members may not receive outside earned income. Outside earned income means income other than the Council salary and benefits of a member, except that such term does not include (1) investment income, including but not limited to interest, dividends, rents, annuities and capital gains; (2) compensation for personal services actually rendered before the adoption of this rule or before such individual became a member; (3) income received from a pension or retirement account, or from social security; (4) copyright royalties received under usual and customary contractual terms; (5) compensation for speaking engagements or artistic performance, with advance approval by the conflicts of interest board; (6) income received for teaching a course of instruction at an established academic institution for which students receive credit, so long as such compensation does not exceed that normally received by others at the institution for a comparable type and amount of instruction; and (7) with advance approval by the Office of General Counsel, minimal earned income from activity involving only a limited time commitment, and which does not interfere with the performance of official duties. Any income received by a member shall be subject to the requirements of chapter 68 of the charter. Until January 1, 2018, the provisions of this rule do not apply to any member who submits a letter to the Speaker no later than March 1, 2016 stating that such member has received outside income during the Council's 2014-2017 session and intends to continue to receive outside earned income.

6.60. Legislative Drafting Services – a. The Speaker shall ensure that the Council central staff provides legislative drafting services to all members on an equitable and confidential basis. Confidentiality precludes Council central staff from refusing to provide legislative drafting services to any member on the basis that similar legislation is currently being drafted.

b. Some or all of such drafting services shall be provided by a dedicated drafting unit within Council central staff, the primary function of which is the drafting of legislation.

c. Members shall have access to a tracking database that identifies the staff member to whom each of their requests has been assigned, and which provides the status of each such request.

The Speaker shall determine the jurisdiction of the subcommittees and shall promulgate a list, which the Speaker may amend from time to time, of those matters within the jurisdiction of each subcommittee.

b. The chair of the committee or a subcommittee may appoint a member of the committee or subcommittee as the case may be, to act as a temporary chair to conduct a meeting in the chair's absence.

c. The chair of the Land Use Committee shall be an ex-officio member of all the subcommittees. As an ex-officio member, the chair may vote on matters before a subcommittee only if the chair's vote is required to break a tie.

d. The hearings and meetings of each subcommittee shall be held at the call of the chair of the subcommittee pursuant to the notice and other requirements of section 11.30 and other applicable provisions of these rules.

e. Each subcommittee shall consider all matters referred to the subcommittee at a meeting and shall report on any action it takes to the Land Use Committee pursuant to a schedule that will enable both the Land Use Committee and the Council to act within any time limits for Council action prescribed by law. The chair of the Land Use Committee may call-up to the committee any matter referred to a subcommittee if a call-up is necessary to enable the committee and the Council to act on a matter within any time limit for Council action prescribed by law. The Land Use Committee may close the record of the public hearing on any such matter, if the record has not already been closed by the subcommittee.

11.20. Referrals to Land Use Committee – a. All matters subject to review by the Council pursuant to chapters 8, 14, 29 and 74 of the City Charter shall be filed with the office of the Speaker. Upon filing, the Speaker shall refer each such matter to the subcommittee that has jurisdiction over the matter in accordance with the list provided for in section 11.10(a); provided, however, that matters that may be reviewed by the Council only pursuant to section 197-d(b)(3) of the City Charter and filings by the Mayor pursuant to sections 197-d(f) and 197-d(g) of the City Charter shall be subject to the provisions of subdivisions b, c, d and e of this section. All such referrals shall be made in a timely manner in order to permit the Council to act within any time limits prescribed by law.

b. A resolution providing for Council review of a matter pursuant to section 197-d(b)(3) of the City Charter shall be introduced directly to the Council, without referral to a committee or subcommittee; provided, however, that such a resolution may be introduced only if the resolution is sponsored by seven Council Members or if, pursuant to subdivision c of this section, the resolution is introduced by the chair. Any resolution introduced pursuant to this subdivision or subdivision c shall not be subject to debate at a Council meeting. Upon adoption by the Council of a resolution introduced pursuant to this subdivision, the matter that is the subject of the resolution shall be considered by the Land Use Committee and its subcommittees.

c. If a single project or development involves more than one matter filed with the Council at approximately the same time pursuant to section 197-d(a) of the City Charter and at least one but not all of such related matters are subject to Council review pursuant to sections 197-d(b)(1) or (2), the chair of the Land Use Committee shall introduce directly to the Council, without referral to committee, a resolution providing for Council review pursuant to section 197-d(b)(3) of all such related matters that are not subject to Council review pursuant to sections 197-d(b)(1) or (2). The chair shall introduce all such resolutions promptly upon the filing of such matters with the Council. For purposes of this subdivision, two or more matters shall be deemed to be filed "at approximately the same time" if they are filed with the Council prior to the date on which the Council votes, pursuant to section 197-d(c), on the first of the matters filed.

d. If the Council passes a resolution pursuant to subdivision c of this section to review one or more matters relating to a single project or development that are filed with the Council at the same time, all the related matters that are the subject of such a resolution shall be referred to and reported out of the Land Use Committee as a single package of related matters. For purposes of this subdivision only, two or more matters shall be deemed to be filed "at the same time" if they are filed prior to the date on which the notice for the public hearing on the first of the matters filed is issued.

e. A resolution to override a filing by the Mayor pursuant to sections 1 97-d(f) or 1 97-d(g) of the City Charter may be introduced by any Council Member at the next Council meeting following such filing and shall not be referred to the Land Use Committee or its subcommittees.

f. All matters subject to review by the Council pursuant to Article 16 of the General Municipal Law shall be filed with the office of the Speaker. Upon filing, the Speaker shall refer each such matter to the subcommittee that has jurisdiction over such matter in accordance with the list provided for in section 11.10(a). All such referrals shall be made in a timely manner in order to permit the Council to act within any time limits prescribed by law. The subcommittee shall hold a public hearing on all such matters within one hundred fifty (150) days of the date of filing with the office of the Speaker.

11.30. Calendar and Public Notice – a. The chairs of the Land Use Committee and the subcommittees shall cause to be prepared a regular calendar of the meetings of the Land Use Committee and each of its subcommittees. The calendar shall be posted on the Council’s website, electronically delivered to each Council Member, shall be made available to the public free of charge at City Hall, and shall be electronically delivered to each borough president and each community board. Each calendar shall include all matters referred to the committee and subcommittees and shall indicate the meetings of the committee and the subcommittees at which each matter is scheduled for public hearing or consideration. The failure to include a matter in the calendar shall bar the committee and its subcommittees from voting with respect to the matter unless the matter is added to the agenda as far in advance of the meeting at which the vote is to occur as is practicable and not less than two thirds of the members of the committee vote to add the matter to the agenda. The failure to include a matter in the calendar shall bar the committee and its subcommittees from holding a public hearing on the matter unless (i) the matter is added to the agenda as far in advance of the hearing as is practicable, (ii) any notice requirements in the City Charter are satisfied, and (iii) not less than two thirds of the members of the committee or subcommittee vote to add the matter to the agenda. The chair of the Land Use Committee may call meetings of the Land Use Committee in addition to those meetings on the calendar, and the chair of a subcommittee may call meetings of the subcommittee in addition to those meetings on the calendar, pursuant to the notice and other requirements of this section and the other applicable provisions of these rules.

b. Public notice of the time and place of each Land Use Committee and subcommittee meeting scheduled at least one week prior thereto shall be given to the news media and shall be posted on the Council’s website. Public notice of the time and place of every other meeting shall be given, to the extent practicable, to the news media and shall be posted on the Council’s website. In addition, public notice of all public hearings of the Council, the Land Use Committee and its subcommittees required pursuant to section 197-d of the City Charter shall be published in the City Record not less than five days prior to such hearing.

11.40. Public Hearings – a. Each subcommittee shall hold on behalf of the Council all public hearings required by law with respect to matters referred to the subcommittee. The Land Use Committee shall hold on behalf of the Council all public hearings required by law with respect to matters referred to the committee, which have not been the subject of a subcommittee hearing. If a number of matters relating to a single project or development are filed at the same time pursuant to section 197-d of the City Charter and such matters fall within the jurisdiction of more than one subcommittee, there shall be a single hearing on such related matters. The Speaker shall determine whether the public hearing on such related matters shall be held by the Land Use Committee or by a subcommittee.

b. Each person filling out an appearance form at a public hearing required pursuant to section 1 97-d of the City Charter shall be given the opportunity to speak. The member of the Land Use Committee presiding at a public hearing of the Land Use Committee or a subcommittee may establish a time limit for all members of the public speaking at such hearing.

c. The Land Use Committee and its subcommittees shall make available to all Council Members the record of all public hearings of the committee and its subcommittees with respect to matters referred to the committee pursuant to section 11.20. The record of a public hearing of the committee or its subcommittees shall consist of a list of the names and affiliations of the speakers at the hearing, each speaker's indication (on a form provided for that purpose) of support or opposition to the matter under consideration, any written statements offered by speakers, any other documents introduced on the record at the hearing, and any transcripts of the hearing. As far in advance as is practicable of consideration by the full Council of any such matter, copies of the items in the record and of materials filed with the Council as specified in sections 197d(a), 704(g) and 3020(8) of the City Charter shall either be given to Council Members or made available to Council Members on an ongoing basis. The record, any subcommittee and committee reports, and the other materials referred to in the preceding sentence shall be made available to the public for inspection by appointment.

11.50. Voting – a. All Land Use Committee and subcommittee determinations shall be on the affirmative roll call vote of not less than a majority of all the members of the committee or subcommittee, including vacancies and absences but not including ex-officio members.

b. Neither the Land Use Committee nor its subcommittees shall vote on a matter until the record of any public hearing required by law on such matter has been closed by the committee or subcommittee.

11.60. Discharge of Committee – a. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules, the Council shall not act upon a matter referred to the Land Use Committee or its subcommittees pursuant to section 11.20 until the committee has reported thereon, except as provided in this section. Any matter referred to the Land Use Committee for which, by law, there is a time limit for action by the Council, shall at the last stated meeting of the Council preceding the expiration of such time limit, be deemed to be discharged from further consideration by the committee and its subcommittees; provided, however, that the provisions of this sentence shall not apply to those matters that are reviewed by the Council (i) pursuant to section 195 of the City Charter or (ii) by virtue of a resolution under section 197-d(b)(3) of the City Charter other than a resolution adopted pursuant to section 11.20(c) of these rules. The Land Use Committee may be discharged from further consideration of any matter referred to the committee pursuant to Section 11.20 that is not subject to the automatic discharge provision of the preceding sentence by a majority vote of the Council. A member of the Council shall give written notice, at least five business days in advance, to the chair of the Land Use Committee and the Speaker of the intention to move at the next Council meeting for the discharge of any such matter. Such notice shall be accompanied by a memorandum in support of the motion to discharge, which shall be signed by at least nine members. A proposed resolution on any matter that has been discharged from the committee shall not be voted upon at the same meeting at which the vote on the motion to discharge occurred unless a time limit for Council action under the City Charter would expire prior to the next stated meeting.

b. Upon discharge from the Land Use Committee, the Council may close the record of the public hearing on the matter discharged if the record has not been closed by the committee.

11.70. Modifications of City Planning Commission Actions – a. The word “modification” as used in this section shall mean a change in the language of a resolution of the City Planning Commission that is subject to review by the Council pursuant to section 1 97-d of the City Charter. A “modification” need not include minor changes to such a resolution.

b. Either the Council or the Land Use Committee may file with the City Planning Commission a proposed modification pursuant to section 1 97-d(b) of the City Charter. Such a modification filed by the committee shall be filed only upon the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of its members.

c. The Land Use Committee and the Council may take action with respect to a modification filed with the City Planning Commission not less than fifteen days after the date the modification is filed with the City Planning Commission unless the Council has received from the Commission a written statement indicating that a majority of the members of the Commission have made one of the findings listed below, together with the reasons therefor:

- (i) the proposed modification may result in significant adverse environmental effects that (A) have not been addressed in the environmental review of the application, (B) are required to be addressed under the State Environmental Quality Review Act prior to approval of the proposed modification, and (C) cannot be addressed in the time period remaining for action by the Council under the City Charter; or
- (ii) the proposed modification so significantly alters the matter under consideration that the City Charter requires the initiation of a new land use review process pursuant to section 197-c of the City Charter.

Any statement filed by the City Planning Commission pursuant to this section shall fully set forth the reasons for each finding pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) above. If a modification includes a number of distinct changes to a Commission resolution, any such statement of the Commission shall include separate detailed findings with respect to each such change.

11.80. Action by Resolution – The Council shall act by resolution with respect to all matters subject to review by the Council, pursuant to chapters 8, 14, 29 and 74 of the City Charter.

11.90. Time Provisions – If the expiration of a time period for Council action set forth in chapter 8, 14, 29 or 74 of the City Charter falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the expiration date shall be deemed extended until the next working day.

11.100. Conflicts with Rules of the Council – In the event of a conflict between the Rules of the Land Use Committee in this chapter XI and the other chapters of these Rules, this chapter XI shall govern with respect to the Land Use Committee and its subcommittees.

He then yielded the floor to the Council Member Johnson, the newly elected Speaker, as those assembled applauded and cheered.

Remarks of the Speaker

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Johnson) delivered the following remarks to those assembled:

Thank you. Thank you all. I love you, Mom. Thank you. ... Thank you so much...

I want to say thank you to my friends and my colleagues. I want to thank you all for your support. Words cannot express how honored and humbled I am by the confidence that you've placed in me.

I'd like to recognize some of the honored guests who are here with us in the room today:

The former Mayor of the City of New York David Dinkins - thank you, Mr. Mayor. He's been acknowledged many times and he deserves it, a former Speaker of the New York City Council, Peter Vallone, Sr. One of the most decent, honorable, good guys and human beings that I've ever been able to get to know in politics, our incredible Congressman Joe Crowley from Queens. I want to recognize and I want to thank Jerry Sweeney and Mike Reich and Ann Marie Anzalone who are up in the balcony as well. A former member of this body who now represents our great city in Congress, Congresswoman Yvette Clark [is] in the balcony; our Public Advocate Letitia James - she and I danced together in the Pride Parade (we're going to keep that going); our great Comptroller and my former Manhattan Borough President who was very helpful to me when I was on the Community Board before I was elected to the Council, Scott Stringer. Assembly Member Charles Barron was here - he may have left, but I wanted to recognize him as a former member of this body and as his great wife and our colleagues said, someone who presented himself for Speaker eight years ago- I want to recognize Council Member Barron and his presence here today.

Someone who preceded me in this seat who broke barriers long before I came around who ran for office as an openly gay man; who came out about his HIV status at the height of the epidemic when protease inhibitors did not exist, when people were dying. He ran the first time and barely lost to Carol Greitzer and then ran the second time, and had an overwhelming victory; the first openly gay member of this body, my friend and a mentor and a family member to me, former State Senator and former Council Member Tom Duane.

I want to acknowledge: former Assemblyman Keith Wright, the Chair of the Manhattan Democratic Party for his support; I want to recognize former Council Member Dr. Una Clark who's sitting up in the balcony; one of my closest dearest friends, (I don't see him her, but I'm sure he's here), former Council Member Jimmy Vacca... ; former Council Member and former Minority Leader of this body, Council Member Vinny Ignizio who's here; former Council Member Dominic Recchia, Jr. who is in the house; former Council and the former Chair of the Land Use Committee Council Member David Greenfield who just started a big new important job with the city of New York; former Council Member and savant when it comes to political history my friend Mark Weprin who's up in the balcony; former Council Member Diana Reyna who preceded Antonio Reynoso in this body; former Council Member-at-Large, (he's not that old) Council Member Ed Wallace who is here as well.

I want to acknowledge an incredible labor leader in this city, someone who was one of my biggest supporters, someone who has been thoughtful, honest and an incredible advocate for his members, someone who I've gotten to know in an incredible way and who I am deeply, deeply grateful for his friendship and support, the President of the Hotel and Motel Trades Council, President Peter Ward who's here. I want to acknowledge Gerald Fitzgerald, the President of the Uniformed Firefighters Association, President George Miranda of Teamsters Joint Council 16. An amazing guy and labor leader in our city the President of the Central Labor Council Vinny Alvarez, and there are other labor leaders who were not able to be here today, and I look forward to thanking them in person for all they did in this process. Even if they didn't support me, they played a very important role in the process and they play a really important role in the city of New York.

So, I want to thank all of you for your dedication and service to New York City.

To my good friends Robert, Ydanis, Jimmy, Mark, Donovan, Jumaane who is not here today, Ritchie and Inez, and inspired by each one of you and your dedication to your constituents, your districts and the City of New York. I'm proud to call you friends, and I look forward to learning from you and partnering with you to do great things over the next four years.

Some people who are very special to are here today. I don't want to get emotional, but one person in particular my mom, Ann, drove down from Massachusetts to be here. My family never had it easy, and my mom worked incredibly hard to provide for my sister and me. She taught me the meaning of overcoming adversity and she taught what unconditional love is. She taught me the importance of service to others, and she taught me that fierce women get things done. You are my best friend, you are my rock, and I wouldn't be here without you. I love you more than words can possibly describe. Thank you, mom. To my stepfather Rod, who drove a Pepsi truck day in and day out to provide for his family and who died six months before I was elected to the City Council and to my biological father who was adopted from Seoul, South Korea and brought here by an American couple when he was three years old, and he died a few months into my first term who I never had the opportunity to meet, I wish you could both be here, but I want you to know that I love you very much, and I have no regrets. I have so many other people that I could thank. I could spend the next four years naming them, but all of you know who you are and I am eternally grateful for your friendship and for your support.

We stand on the shoulders of leaders who came before us. Again, I want to thank former Speaker Peter Vallone (who is with us today), Speaker Gifford Miller, Speaker Christine Quinn, and Speaker Melissa Mark-Viverito for their strong stewardship of this body. It is because of your leadership that my colleagues and I are inheriting a strong inclusive and independent City Council.

Over the last four years under the leadership of Mayor de Blasio, Speaker Mark-Viverito and the members of this Council, our city has made significant progress on a number of critical issues: free universal Pre-K for every 4-year-old in New York City; historically low crime rates, and a dramatic decrease in the truly harmful and corrosive practice known as stop and frisk; tens of thousands of new units of affordable housing, a dramatic drop in traffic fatalities, the lowest unemployment rate in decades, paid sick leave and living wage laws that are benefitting working families without killing a single job in this city.

But the problems and challenges we continue to face are of historic proportions.

The affordability crisis gripping our city threatens the very existence of our neighborhoods. New Yorkers who have lived in the same community their entire lives now find themselves priced out unable to afford their rent, or even groceries. Many working families are living pay check to pay check. One missed shift or one medical expense away from eviction. Our shelter system is overflowing with families who are working full-time jobs, but can't afford homes for themselves and for their children.

Mom and pop small businesses are finding themselves unable to compete with deep-pocketed chain stores. Subway riders are experiencing the consequences of years of disinvestment in our infrastructure, and shamefully racial disparities persist in nearly every aspect of life including life expectancy, health outcomes, criminal justice and education, and the coming fiscal realities presented by Washington and Albany will only deepen the challenges that we face.

These problems are incredibly complex and entrenched, but the future of our city depends on our ability to confront them, and confront them we will.

We believe in a New York where every person has access to good paying jobs, affordable housing, quality healthcare, and good public schools. We believe that small business owners with big dreams should be given a fighting chance to succeed without getting evicted from their storefronts. We believe the poorest New Yorkers should have access to public transit that they can afford. We believe that women must be properly represented in government, and that includes here in the New York City Council. We believe—we believe that a person's health outcome should not be determined by their zip code. We believe that no person should be stopped and frisked based on the color of their skin. We believe that in a New York where no—we believe in a New York where no one is targeted simply because of who they are: Muslim New Yorkers, immigrants, the undocumented, Jewish New Yorkers, transgender New Yorkers. We reject hate in all its forms and stand united against bigotry and racism during these difficult times.

There has never been a more important time to ensure that our city has a strong unified and independent Council to take on these challenges. I know that with the immense talent, wisdom and experience of this body and of all of you, we will prevail, and we must defend these principles while renewing our focus on the hyper local issues that our constituents ask us for help with every day. Residents of all neighborhood are entitled to clean and safe streets, well maintained public parks and city agencies that are actually responsive to their needs.

Running for Speaker took me to nearly every neighborhood in all five boroughs. If I ever write a book about the Speaker's race, which I don't think I ever will, I'm going to call it the End of the Line because I rode literally every subway line to the final stop many, many times. I don't own a car. One thing that struck me as I spoke with New Yorkers around the city was how much their Council Members mean to them. People care deeply about their neighborhoods and they see their local Council Member as their neighborhood champion, their advocate down at City Hall. We are the people's house, the voice of millions of New Yorkers who wake up every single morning in Brooklyn, in Queens, in the Bronx on Staten Island and Manhattan. New Yorkers who had to work or school or church to build their futures brick by brick, block by block. Their voices, your voices need and deserve to be heard.

We have one mission: To better the lives of our constituents who day and night place their trust in us to represent their interests and advocate for their needs. We must not and will not forget who sent us here. We are the bodega owner in Bay Ridge forced to choose between the lights on, and buying his daughter's textbooks. We are the teachers at PS-150 in Sunnyside Queens who nurture the hearts and minds of their children, lay awake at night wondering how to afford necessary supplies for the classroom while still making their own rent. We are the senior citizen in Hell's Kitchen who wonders if next year, she'll be able to climb up to her fourth floor walk-up. We are the high school graduate in the Bronx who gets a scholarship to her dream college. We are the homeowners on the southernmost tip of Staten Island—hear that, Burley?—who keep watch for the next storm and wonder if we are truly ready. We carry these voices in us. Their stories motivate us to work harder, to sleep even less and to be ever more responsive to their needs. If we become unmoored and lose our way, we need only listen to the voices of those who we represent to correct our course.

At this time, 32 years ago, in this very Chamber in this very room, the City Council considered legislation that would finally outlaw discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, in housing, employment and public accommodations. As the AIDS epidemic was decimating and ravaging the gay community, supporters and opponents of the bill engage in a long and bitter fight in this very Chamber. The City Council passed that bill. Opponent said the bill would lead to societal acceptance of the LGBT community and guess what? They were right.

Let us continue to take on the important issues that may be considered controversial today, but will be indisputable tomorrow. Let us continue to use the power of this body to expand opportunity for all, and be the voice for the voiceless, the champions of the most vulnerable. Let us continue to be a source of light, and love and hope in this very turbulent world

Dear colleagues, I am incredibly honored by the confidence that you have placed in me. I have the chills saying it. To Adrienne, Allen, Alikea, Andy, Andy, Antonio, Barry, Ben, Bill, Brad, Carlina, Carlos, Chaim, Costa, Daneek, Daniel, Danny, Deborah, Diana, Donovan, Eric, Francisco, Fernando, Helen, Inez, Jimmy, Joe, Jumaane, Justin, Kalman, Karen.(I love you, Karen), [Keith,] Laurie, Margaret, Mark G., Mark L. and Mark T., Mathieu, Paul, Peter, Rafael L. and Rafael S., Ritchie and Rob, Robert, Rory, Reverend Ruben, Sr., Steve, Steven, Vanessa and Ydanis. I don't know if I could do that in a memorized way. I want you to know that in good times and in bad, through thick and thin, I will always have your back. Those of you who supported me, those who didn't support me, those who ran for Speaker, and those who have been here in this body, and those who are new, I will have your back in this body.

I want to thank you for your support. I want to thank you for your friendship. I want to get to work, and lastly I want to end just with this story, which I didn't plan on telling today. You know, my mom is my best friend, as you all know, and—and really the—the love of my—of my life and I talked a little bit about my growing up, and I don't want my actually dear Republican friends to be offended by this story because they are incredibly valuable members of this body and close friends of mine. When I came out at 16-years-old, I was suicidal, despondent, and didn't want to live. I told my mother that I was gay, she told me that she loved me unconditionally without hesitating. A few months later, [I went to see] the patriarch of our family, my grandfather, who had ten children (my mom is one of ten) and had nearly sixty grandchildren [and] who helped raise me. My mom dropped me off at his house for me to give him the news that I was gay... He was an 82-year-old, old Irish Catholic guy; he went to Mass every single day; and I walked into his home, and when I walked in he said, "Corey, sit down. We're going to make you supper." So, I sat down and he looked at me and he said, "What's the matter?" And I said, "Oh, grandpa, I have something to tell you", and he said, "You're killing me. Spit it out" and I said, "Well, I—I told mom and dad that I'm gay", and he says, "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I thought you were going to tell me you were a Republican." He says, "You can be gay. You just have to be a Democrat." Well, (I look up), well, grandpa, I've lived up to that end of the bargain. I am gay and I am a Democrat, and each one of us in this body has a story like that - every single one of us no matter where we've come from, no matter what our unique life experiences, that is the great thing about our city. It's the most diverse city in the world. I came here on a wing and on a prayer, and on a dream, with two bags at the age of 19 years-old knowing two people, not knowing where I was going to live. Each one of us had that experience. This body is an incredible body because of the work and influence and power that we have to shape and change and support the lives of 8½ million New Yorkers. I look forward to doing that with all of you. Thank you, very, very much.
