Introduction

The budget is an opportunity to lay out a blueprint for New York City and to set forth the priorities and principles by which the City should operate. The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget represents the vision of the unified and independent City Council under the leadership of Speaker Corey Johnson.

We recognize that we are fortunate to adopt a budget during a time of prosperity for the City, but we know that this prosperity is not enjoyed by all. While Mayor de Blasio and the Council share many values, throughout this year's budget process the Council spoke with one voice to advance our priorities and to make clear to the Administration that we were not willing to accept anything less than what we know our constituents deserve. Throughout the Fiscal 2019 budget process, we pushed for, and attained, transformative initiatives and creative solutions to protect the City's social safety net and to provide much-needed resources to as many New Yorkers as possible, while at the same implementing fiscally prudent budgeting practices to protect the City's future.

The Path from Budget Response to Adoption

Budget Response

On April 10, 2018, the Council submitted its response to the Fiscal 2019 Preliminary Budget which presented the Council's vision for increased accountability in the budget process and a budget that lifted up the neediest New Yorkers and afforded opportunities for all to continue on their individual paths to stability and success. The proposals set forth in the Budget Response were not created in a vacuum. Rather, they were formulated with the recognition of several different realities facing our City, including the unprecedented financial risks on the federal level, funding shortfalls on the State level, and the steep growth in spending that the City has seen under the de Blasio Administration. Therefore, the spending measures we proposed were focused and offset by identified revenue sources, savings, and agency reductions.

The Speaker and the Council Members targeted the Budget Response at several large-scale programs that we wanted to see included in the budget, in addition to the agency-specific improvements and enhancements that we prioritized. These significant proposals included:

- Bolstering the City's reserves;
- Instituting Fair Fares;
- Providing a road to property tax reform;
- Prioritizing permanent housing;
- Directing education dollars to schools; and
- Improving accessibility in schools.

As always, the Council continued to press the Administration to adopt more accurate and transparent budgeting practices, including:

- Recognizing unfunded State mandates, such as the Metropolitan Transit Authority's Subway Action Plan, Raise the Age, and Close to Home;

- More realistically projecting revenues and expenditures, by removing the anticipated receipt of taxi medallion revenue from the financial plan and lowering debt service estimates; and
- Discontinuing the use of vague and overbroad units of appropriation in favor of the smaller, programmatic units of appropriation envisioned in the law.

Both throughout the budget process and in its Budget Response, the Council also had a renewed focus on the Capital Budget, as demonstrated by the creation of a new Subcommittee on Capital Budget, which for the first time held Preliminary and Executive Budget hearings focused solely on the Capital Budget and the Capital Commitment Plan. As part of this effort, in its Budget Response, the Council called on the Administration to stop front-loading the Capital Commitment Plan in the first two years of the five-year plan, to reduce excess and unnecessary appropriations in the Capital Budget, and to create more descriptive budget lines with fewer projects contained within each one.

Executive Budget

When the Mayor released the Executive Budget on April 26, 2018, the Council was disheartened and frustrated by the lack of consideration of its Budget Response proposals in the Executive Budget. Of the 50 expense- or revenue-related proposals, not including the three State unfunded mandates that the Council persuaded the Administration to accurately account for in the financial plan, the Fiscal 2019 Executive Budget reflected full or partial support for only eleven of these proposals.

However, in a major triumph for the students in New York City's public schools in the Executive Budget, the Council secured $125 million in additional Fair Student Funding, the unrestricted funding that gives school principals the flexibility to decide how much to spend on instruction, support services, administrative functions, and enrichment programs. With this increase, every school in the City will receive at least 90 percent of its Fair Student Funding allocation, with the average rising to 93 percent citywide.

In addition, the Council made meaningful strides towards capital budget reform in this year's Executive Budget. Excess appropriations are often a result of the City frontloading the Capital Commitment Plan, which generates unnecessary new appropriations. With large available appropriation balances, the Administration can raise, lower, or create new capital projects mid-year without coming to the Council for approval. Better alignment between appropriations and more realistic planned spending in the Capital Commitment Plan ensures the Charter-mandated checks and balances on the City's Capital Budget are maintained. Responding to the Council's advocacy, the Administration agreed to rescind $5.8 billion in excess appropriations in the Adopted Budget, in consultation with the Council, and it redistributed $6.4 billion in planned commitments from Fiscal 2018 and 2019 across Fiscal 2020-2022 in the Executive Capital Commitment Plan.

With these proposals included, armed with the information learned from agency Commissioners during the three weeks of Executive Budget hearings in May, the moving public testimonies offered by our constituents and service providers, and the data and knowledge that there were sufficient resources available to pay for our requests, the Council forged ahead with negotiations as a unified body.

And our persistence paid off for all New Yorkers.

Adopted Budget

The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget is full of victories for the people of this City – from our oldest residents to our youngest, from the neediest of us to those working so hard to stay in the middle class, from every borough, and from those of us who were born and raised here to our neighbors who have come from all over the world.

Fair Fares: One of the most significant achievements in this budget is the launch of Fair Fares. This program will make the nearly 800,000 New Yorkers living at or below the federal poverty level eligible for half-price MetroCard, thereby saving them more than $700 per year in transportation costs. The 12,000 veterans enrolled in New York City colleges will also qualify. In this city, mobility is opportunity. The $106 million included for Fiscal 2019 and the commitment by the Administration to continue to fully fund the program in the outyears will literally open turnstiles and doors to the neediest residents.

Increased Reserves: The Adopted Budget will add $225 million to the City's reserves. According to recent Finance Division analysis, there is a one-in-five chance that the current amount of reserves is not enough to make it through the Financial Plan period without having to make budget cuts or raise taxes. This infusion will help the City avoid painful spending cuts or tax increases during downturns allowing New York City to instead draw on its fiscal cushions.

A Road to Property Tax Reform: The Mayor and the Council jointly announced the creation of a Property Tax Reform Commission. To develop recommendations to reform New York City's property tax system to make it simpler, clearer, and fairer, while ensuring that there is no reduction in revenue used to fund essential City services. The commission will solicit input from the public by holding at least ten public hearings. The last in-depth review of the system by a government-appointed commission was in 1993.

Prioritize Permanent Housing: As the City's spending on shelter continues its sharp rise, the Council has continuously pushed the Administration to prioritize permanent housing solutions over homeless shelter spending. As part of the budget agreement, the Administration has agreed to construct more supportive and congregate housing at a faster rate, as well as to construct 1,000 new senior housing units across six new developments.

School Accessibility: No student should be prevented from attending their preferred school because they cannot get up the stairs and no parent should have to miss a school play or a parent-teacher conference because there is no access to the auditorium or the second floor. New York City is better than that, and that is why $150 million will be added to the Adopted Budget for capital projects to increase accessibility in the City's school buildings.

Funding for Libraries: Libraries have an essential presence in every neighborhood of New York providing indispensable services in a safe and reliable space. Therefore, the three library systems will collectively receive $17.3 million, including $8 million in Council funding and $9.3 million from the Administration, with $7.3 million of the funding baselined. Additionally, the Administration will add $45 million in capital funding for the libraries.

District Attorneys: The District Attorneys' Offices will see an additional $16 million in the Adopted Budget, with $13.4 million baselined. In addition to baselining support for pay parity, the funding will support other programmatic initiatives.

Increasing Employment Opportunities for Youth: In order to come closer to meeting the demand for summer youth jobs, $10.3 million will be added to the Summer Youth Employment Program to support an additional 5,000 slots, for a total of 75,000 jobs in the summer of 2018. In addition, the Administration agreed to fully fund Work, Learn, Grow, the year-round youth employment program, with a $19 million restoration that will fund thousands of additional slots in Fiscal 2019.

Pick Up More Trash: The Administration has added $3.5 million for additional sanitation services, including increased basket pick up on Sundays. This funding will be combined with $11.2 million from the Council's NYC Clean Up Initiative, which received a $1 million enhancement over Fiscal 2018.

Maintain Services for Parks: The Department of Parks and Recreation budget will be increased by $12.3 million which will allow for the employment of an additional 150 parks maintenance workers, a one-week extension of the pool and beach season, and for increased tree stump removal.

Summer SONYC: Since the release of the Executive Budget, the Council tirelessly advocated for the restoration of Summer SONYC. As a result, the Administration has agreed to restore 22,800 slots at a cost of $15 million in Fiscal 2019.

Adult Literacy: Approximately 2.2 million adult New Yorkers lack English proficiency or a high school diploma. The City's adult literacy programs will be preserved by the addition of $12 million, $8 million of which is funded by the Administration and $4 million of which is funded by Council initiatives.

3-K for All Capital Investment: The Council called for the Administration to identify the seat need for 3-K for All in the Education Capital Plan. For the first time, the Administration is doing so and will include $306.6 million in capital funding for the roll-out and expansion of 3-K for All. This appropriation will fund 5,000 new seats.

Baselining Council Initiatives and One-Year Funding

While the traditional "budget dance" ended with the conclusion of the Bloomberg Administration, the de Blasio Administration continues to play games with certain core agency services and vital programs that it funds for only one year at a time or assumes that the Council will fund through our initiative funding. This attempt to have the Council settle for the restoration of programs that the Council knows are so important to our constituents in lieu of the inclusion of other budget priorities in the Adopted Budget is unacceptable. For the sake of the New Yorkers who rely on these programs that cost relatively small amounts of money, but that have giant impacts on the lives of those who need the most help, the Council demanded that this practice be curbed this year. As a result, the Administration baselined $55.9 million of programs that provide fundamental services and deserve a stable funding stream and of Council initiatives that had been funding core agency services.

COMPASS: The Comprehensive After School System (COMPASS) program helps to support the development of young New Yorkers in kindergarten through twelfth grade with academic and other enrichment activities. The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget will include $16 million, with $8 million baselined, to maintain and stabilize programs citywide.

Crisis Management System: The Adopted Budget will include $35.4 million, of which $9.4 million is newly baselined Council initiative funding that deploys teams of credible messengers who mediate conflicts on the street and connect high-risk individuals to services that can reduce the long-term risk of violence.

Support for the Arts: The Council's Support for the Arts Initiative, which provides programming support to new and existing cultural organizations to expand their services, will be baselined at $5 million, with $1 million going to local arts councils and $4 million for cultural organizations and programs. This brings the total additional cultural funding to $20 million. The Administration will also add $109 million in capital funding for cultural organizations.

Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP): Emergency food is a crucial part of our social safety net, yet baseline funding for this program has not been increased for several fiscal years. The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget will include over $20 million for EFAP, with $8.7 million baselined.

Runaway and Homeless Youth: An additional $3 million will be baselined for 60 new runaway and homeless youth shelter beds that will extend services to youth 21-24 years old.

Child Care Vouchers: The Administration will baseline $14.8 million for Priority 5 Child Care vouchers, which are available to children on the Administration for Children's Services waitlist whose parent is employed or enrolled in a training program and whose family's income is at or below 200 percent of the State Income Standard.

Council Initiatives

With the above-referenced items baselined by the Administration, this year the Council could rightly focus its initiative spending on enhancing what is already funded in the budget and filling in gaps in services as identified by Council Members as representatives of their local districts and in their capacities as Committee Chairs.

Guidance Counselors: Guidance counselors are an integral part of the school community and work closely with individual students, as well as the entire school community to address academic planning, social-emotional development, and career and post-secondary planning. There are currently many schools that do not have a single guidance counselor or social worker. This initiative will allocate $2 million to ensure that the schools with the neediest populations have a guidance counselor on staff.

Trans Equity Programs: The Council will allocate $1.8 million to support a range of services to help empower the transgender and gender non-conforming community, including education programs, employment services, workforce development, healthcare navigation, legal guidance, community workshops, and academic research.

Opioid Prevention and Treatment: In the Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget, the Council will invest $2 million in combatting the opioid epidemic, which claimed 1,374 lives in New York City In 2016. The Council will launch a $2 million initiative to support both overdose prevention and treatment.

CUNY Childcare: The Council will allocate $600,000 to support childcare centers at CUNY colleges. The funding will support expanded enrollment capacity, expanded hours, additional teachers, materials, and equipment for children’s activities. The services provided at CUNY childcare centers help support student-parents’ retention and graduation.

Low-Wage Worker Support: The Council will enhance the $2 million allocated by the Administration for legal services for workplace rights with an additional $500,000. This initiative supports outreach efforts to low-wage workers in need of employment-related civil legal services.

Terms and Conditions

The Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget also includes a record 44 terms and conditions. These measures require agencies to facilitate information sharing and reporting as project-specific spending advances in order to increase transparency and strengthen the Council’s oversight role. In addition to many terms and conditions that were attached to last year’s budget and are being reattached to this year’s budget, some of the new terms and conditions for Fiscal 2019 include:

- A report from the Department for the Aging on air-conditioning at senior centers;
- Semi-annual reports from the Department from Education on the number of students receiving and waiting to receive transportation from homeless shelters to their schools;
- A report from the Department of Design and Construction on the staffing and number and type of projects within its Front-End Planning and In-House Design Units; and
- Report from the New York City Housing Authority on its Roof Repair Program.

Schedule C

Discretionary Funding

Each year, Council Members allocate discretionary funds to not-for-profit organizations in order to meet local needs and fill gaps in City agency services. While not a large part of the budget, this funding allows the City to take advantage of Council Members’ localized knowledge to better target services to residents. Council rules adopted in 2014 raised the already high standard of transparency by which this funding operates in requiring that the method used to allocate funding among Members be publicly disclosed.

In this budget, each Member is allocated a base $400,000 in expense funding. Members are further allocated an additional $25,000; $50,000; $75,000; or $100,000 depending upon the level of poverty in the district.

Fiscal 2019 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

This year's Schedule C reinforces the Council's commitment to supporting our communities above and beyond the core services already provided by City government. Our spending plan complements the long-term accountability, performance, efficiency, and transparency measures the Council negotiated for as part of the larger budget. This plan addresses inadequacies in the type, scale, and accessibility of services and programs available to New Yorkers to ensure equity, access, and opportunity for those who need it most.

Procedure and Requirements for Designation

Schedule C designates funding for community based not-for-profit and other public service organizations. Expenditure of any funds for each organization identified in Schedule C is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of: 1) a detailed initial review process; and 2) all applicable City procurement requirements at the time of contract award. Even then, funding may be used only for appropriately reimbursable expenses, as determined by the administering agency.

For-profit entities may not receive discretionary funds, except when the primary not-for-profit funding recipient subcontracts with a for-profit entity as part of the delivery of services. Such proposed subcontracts, however, must be:

- only an ancillary part of the program to be funded - not the primary basis for the discretionary award; and
- pre-approved by the contracting agency and the City Council.

The New York City Council and the Mayor's Office of Contract Services (MOCS) have established the following review for all organizations listed in Schedule C:

- The Council reviews the public purpose, potential conflicts of interest, compliance with the NYS Charities Bureau, past performance, compliance with laws, rules, regulations, and policies, including not-for-profit status, any reported investigations, audits, inquiries, and other relevant information; and
- MOCS reviews organizations which were allocated more than $10,000 cumulatively in this fiscal year to confirm whether the organization has been prequalified, indicating organizational capability to establish a business relationship with the City of New York and deliver specific services.

While approved subcontractors of organizations that receive discretionary funding are not generally required to submit a prequalification application, they are subject to conflict of interest disclosure requirements, as are not-for-profit organizations. Prior to the designation of community-based not-for-profit and other public service organizations, members disclose on the record any potential conflicts of interest with organizations funded by other members. A record of such disclosures for organizations funded in this document can be found on the Council's website, available at <http://council.nyc.gov/budget/fy2019/>.

For organizations requesting funding in excess of $10,000, MOCS conducts an additional review. MOCS reviews each such organization to determine whether the organization has the ability to establish or maintain a business relationship with the City and can demonstrate experience or capability to provide services to New Yorkers. MOCS prequalification is administered through HHS Accelerator and renewed every three years. Each organization's compliance with annual filing requirements is reviewed each year to maintain prequalified status. In addition, the Department of Cultural Affairs (DCLA) administers the Cultural Development Fund to establish prequalification for organizations awarded cultural funds through DCLA. Further, for any organization receiving funding through a fiscal conduit, the fiscal conduit must also be approved by MOCS through the prequalification process. Only organizations receiving less than $10,000 total in discretionary funding may be eligible to use a fiscal conduit.

For those organizations identified in Schedule C without an asterisk, the Council has completed its review process and, where applicable, MOCS has prequalified the organization and any associated fiscal conduit, and the organization has attended MOCS corporate governance, fiscal management and compliance training (if required to attend).

For those organizations identified in Schedule C with an asterisk, either MOCS or the Council's review process has not yet been completed; the New York State Attorney General's Office has not yet provided the Council with final verification of the organization's charitable filing status; or the organization is required to attend MOCS corporate governance, fiscal management and compliance training. All such reviews and requirements must be completed prior to contract award.

Further restrictions to ensure the appropriate use of City funds will be incorporated through the City's procurement process.

All organizations receiving funding pursuant to an initiative will be subject to prequalification review and approval by the Mayor's Office of Contract Services.

Fiscal 2019 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Anti-Poverty

When allocating funding this year, the Council used a poverty indicator as a basis by which to fund programs. Poverty was estimated at the Council District level using 2012 American Community Survey data, specifically the number of individuals below the federal poverty level. Funding to the listed organizations will help to address income disparities throughout the five boroughs.

Children's Services

Children's Services Initiatives support child care programs and reflect the Council's interest in increasing access to early childhood education programs. The Council has supported child care programs since Fiscal 2013 in order to expand the reach of the City's subsidized day care system beyond those programs with EarlyLearn contracts. This fiscal year, the Administration agreed to add $4.5 million for child care providers previously supported by the Council, which brings the total allocation to $9.9 million. In addition, the Council advocated for the Administration to fund three recommendations for the Foster Care Taskforce totaling $7.8 million. These recommendations include improving the quality time of family visits, Kinship Navigators, and enhancing funding to existing ACS Workforce Employment Development initiatives. Finally, after years of funding Priority 5 vouchers for one-year only, the Administration has agreed to baseline $14.8 million for Priority 5 vouchers which are available to children on the Administration for Children's Services voucher waitlist.

Children's Services initiatives funds City's First Readers, an innovative consortium program that boosts literacy among the youngest New Yorkers. Early literacy reduces the achievement gap and helps prepare children to start school successfully. In order to expand the reach of the City's early literacy programs, the Council has supported City's First Readers since Fiscal 2015.

Community Development

The Council has long provided funding to community-based organizations that offer a broad range of community and capacity-building programs and services. In Fiscal 2019, the Council will continue its strong support for community development efforts. The Council successfully negotiated with the Administration to restore its commitment to fund adult literacy service. The Fiscal 2019 budget includes $12 million for Adult Literacy services, with the Administration adding $8 million and the Council allocating $4 million to various community based organizations (CBOs). Other Community Development priorities will expand digital literacy and help build the City's non-profit sector, and connect New Yorkers to careers in the digital sector. Across all of the following initiatives, a total of $15.2 million will have an impact on largely underserved communities and the organizations that support them.

In Fiscal 2019, the Council will fund two new initiatives, including $2 million for LGBTQ Community Centers and a $1.8 million investment for the Trans Equity Program, to help empower New York City's transgender and gender non-conforming (TGNC) community. Funding will support a range of community-based programs and services intended to address trans-specific barriers to affordable housing, healthcare, immigration, education, and employment opportunities. The initiative will harness the power of grassroots organizations to promote TGNC inclusion and equality throughout the five boroughs.

Cultural Organizations

The Council has allocated more than $27 million to support cultural organizations throughout the City. This is in addition to $20 million added by the Administration at the urging of the Council to enable new and existing cultural organizations to expand their programming. Of the $20 million, $6.25 million is baselined. This partnership with the City Council will allow DCLA to have their largest Cultural Development Fund (CDF) allocation ever in Fiscal 2019, with more than $40 million going to support more than 900 cultural organizations across all five boroughs.

The organizations supported by these initiatives, many of which are smaller than those traditionally supported by the City, provide creative and innovative programming that strengthen the diverse fabric of the City through activities such as providing art enrichment to the young and increasing access to the unique cultural offerings of immigrant heritages. The Council’s funding ensures that the arts remain a central feature of civic and economic life in the City.

Education

The City Council prioritized the needs of NYC students, teachers, and staff in Fiscal 2019 with an increase of over $1.6 million in educational initiatives for a total of $37.95 million. This includes an expansion of LGBTQ Inclusive Curriculum, Community Schools, Dropout Prevention, and Educational Programs for Students. Additionally, the Council successfully advocated for the Administration to provide $125 million in additional Fair Student Funding, which was included in the Executive Budget, as well as an increase of $1.6 million to support the needs of students living in temporary housing.

The Council has demonstrated its commitment to increasing the number of social workers and guidance counselors in schools by adding two new initiatives. The Council is providing $2 million this school year to ensure every school has a guidance counselor. Additionally, the Council is expanding the Bridging the Gap program by providing $2 million to support additional school-based social workers who work directly with students living in temporary housing.

This fiscal year, the Council will continue its collaboration with the Administration for Teacher’s Choice, which provides a reimbursement to public school teachers for supplies. Two initiatives previously jointly funded by the Council and the Administration will be fully funded by the Administration in Fiscal 2019: a restorative justice program in 25 schools across the City at $1.3 million and $3.5 million enhancement for the Urban Advantage science education initiative that the Council has funded since 2005.

Fiscal 2019 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Food Initiatives

The Council has successfully advocated to increase the baseline budget to $20.1 million with an increase of $8.7 million to support food procurement for the Emergency Food Assistance program (EFAP). Through the Council’s efforts, Fiscal 2019 will see a total of over $16 million in baselined funding for emergency food that will form a tremendous support for hungry New Yorkers. New York City Council’s own food initiatives support critical programs that assist low-income New Yorkers in accessing food, federal benefits and create awareness of healthy food and nutrition. These initiatives support hundreds of soup kitchens and food pantries around the city that supply freshly cooked meals, fresh, shelf-stable and frozen food to families and individuals. For Fiscal 2019, the Council enhanced the Food Pantries initiatives by $600,000 for a total of $4.6 million. In addition, Food Initiative funding supports programs that get households Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) assessments and assistance to enroll in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). The initiative also provides improved access to affordable healthy food in low-income communities as well as nutritional education through hands-on training such as cooking demonstrations and classes.

Health Services

The Health Services initiatives funded by the Council in Fiscal 2019 demonstrate the Council’s commitment to reducing health disparities and promoting health equity throughout the five boroughs. The Council’s Fiscal 2019 Health Services Initiatives will fund the provision of reproductive and sexual health services, cancer prevention and support programs, and automated external defibrillators (AEDs).

Major investments in Fiscal 2019 include $6.9 million for Ending the Epidemic, a constellation of programs to reduce the number of new HIV infections annually and, subsequently, to end the AIDS epidemic in New York by 2020. Associated initiatives include the $1.9 million Viral Hepatitis Prevention Initiative that supports efforts to combat the spread of HIV and Hepatitis B/C as passed through intravenous drug use and other modes of transmission, and the $1.1 million HIV/AIDS Faith-Based Initiative.

In Fiscal 2019, the Council worked with the Administration to secure $4 million in baseline support for the Nurse Family Partnership (NFP), an evidence-based nurse home visiting program that supports low-income first-time mothers. The Council’s Child Health and Wellness Initiative will further support children’s health through programs intended to combat childhood obesity, asthma, and dental caries.

The Council bolstered its commitment to reducing the high rates of maternal morbidity and mortality among Black women in NYC with a $500,000 enhancement to the Maternal and Child Health Services Initiative, which will support additional doula services.

The Council also enhanced the Access Health Initiative by $1.3 million to $2.5 million to expand outreach and education efforts regarding healthcare access and coverage, and to help low-income immigrant communities navigate the health care system.

The Council also worked with the Administration to secure additional funding for animal welfare projects, as called for in the Fiscal 2019 Preliminary Budget Response. The Administration will allocate $3 million to Animal Care Centers of NYC (ACC), to accept all homeless, abandoned, injured, or sick animals in need of help.

Higher Education Initiatives

The City Council has demonstrated a lasting commitment to public higher education in New York City. As an incentive for high academic achievement, the Council will continue its investment in merit-based scholarships for City high school graduates attending CUNY colleges and the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT), making funding available to eligible students for the length of their undergraduate studies. The name of the scholarship program has returned to honor its founder, and is now the Peter F. Vallone Academic Scholarship. Additionally, a new initiative to expand childcare centers at CUNY will help support student-parents. CUNY Research Institutes received an enhancement of $1 million increasing the allocation to $3.1 million in Fiscal 2019. Other initiatives support workforce development and cultural activities across CUNY campuses. This fiscal year, the Administration will provide $2 million to the University’s remediation programming, which was previously funded by the council. For Fiscal 2019, the Council’s support for higher education programs and services totals $20.1 million.

Homeless Services

In Fiscal 2019, the Council continues to provide emergency grants to families in crisis at risk of eviction to keep them in their homes and avoid the shelter system through the Citywide Homeless Prevention Fund. This initiative builds upon existing efforts by the Administration to prevent families entering the homeless shelter system. Additionally, the Council funds an innovative program to address the mental health and emotional needs of families in shelter as well as providing wrap-around aftercare services to families through the Children and Families in NYC Homeless System initiative. This initiative fulfills a gap in trauma informed services not currently provided by the Administration and works towards the long-term outcome of keeping families out of shelter.

As part of increased transparency on shelter spending, the Council has an agreement with the Administration to receive regular reports on the Department of Social Services shelter spending and associated rental assistance programs after the release of every Financial Plan.

Fiscal 2019 Adopted Expense Budget Adjustment Summary

Housing

Housing agencies and related programmatic activities rely heavily on federal subsidies. However, federal resources for housing agencies remain under severe pressure and there is tremendous uncertainty as to future federal funding. This requires housing agencies to coordinate with elected officials on programmatic activities to ensure that community needs are met at the City level. In addition, the implementation of Housing New York 2.0, Mayor de Blasio’s plan to create and preserve 300,000 units of affordable housing by 2026, will bring substantial new construction, significant population growth, and increased pressure on existing infrastructure and affordability levels in the City’s housing market. To this end, the City Council has called for the construction and preservation of additional units of affordable housing for seniors and other vulnerable populations. In the Fiscal 2019 Adopted Budget, the City will add $100 million in Capital funds to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development’s (HPD) Capital Budget to support an increase in the number of supportive housing, congregate units produced annually from 500 to 700 per year through Fiscal 2030. An additional $500 million will also be added to support the new construction of 1,000 affordable senior housing units at six city-owned sites.

At the local level, City Council funding provides critical resources to ensure that communities access the tools, resources, and programming necessary to address local housing needs. In Fiscal 2019, the City Council has allocated approximately $10.8 million to HPD’s annual operating budget to support various housing initiatives, including tenant advocacy and education, code enforcement advocacy, housing court assistance, and other housing-related public education and $255,000 to the Department of Consumer Affairs’ (DCA) operating budget for financial empowerment and housing application support for tenants. In addition, with the Council’s support and collaboration, the Administration added an additional $750,000 in the Adopted Budget for HPD Alternative Enforcement Program and $1.5 million to enhance the Office of Special Enforcement. Most of the Council funding, approximately $10.6 million, is allocated to local community-based organizations which are tasked with carrying out the goals of Council housing initiatives.

Immigrant Services

For Fiscal 2019, the City Council included $19.8 million for immigrant services that reflect the Council’s continued commitment to ensuring that immigrant New Yorkers have access to legal assistance, health services, and other supports. This includes a continued commitment of $10 million to the New York Immigrant Family Unity Project (NYIFUP), the nation’s first government-funded legal representation program for detained and non-detained immigrants. # Libraries

The Council has allocated $8 million in Fiscal 2019 to the library systems to continue to provide the same level of service they delivered during the nearly 37 million collective visits last fiscal year. This Council funding is in addition to $9.27 million provided by the Administration at the urging of the Council in Fiscal 2019. Along with increases in programming and circulation, the library systems have also seen a rise in the cost of materials, staff, and operating expenses. Funds will allow the systems to maintain physical spaces and cover repairs and upkeep that are not eligible for capital funding. The cost of providing six-day services has increased and substantial funding is needed to sustain operations and ensure the libraries continue to provide vital programs to their patrons and the communities.

Public Safety

In Fiscal 2019, the Council has allocated $5.9 million to three public safety initiatives that support the Council’s efforts to promote public safety and reduce violence. The Council secured $22.8 million in baseline funding; $13.4 million for the operating budgets of the District Attorneys and $9.4 million for the Crisis Management System (CMS). The Council continues to fund the Crisis Management System, which uses a community-based approach to reducing gun violence, with a $2.6 million allocation. In total, the Fiscal 2019 Budget includes $35.8 million for CMS. Art, a Catalyst for Change, which is also funded by the Council, works in tandem with the CMS.

Partnering with the Administration, the Council boosted the District Attorney’s budgets by a collective $16 million, of which $9.2 is baselined. This supplements the $4.2 million increase in the Executive Budget. The adopted budget also adds $1.5 million for post-arrest diversion programs in the Bronx, Brooklyn and Richmond County DA’s offices, $1,025,000 of which the Council funded in Fiscal 2018. In addition, with the Council’s backing, the administration will fund the establishment of a Fire Squad on Staten Island. Finally, the Administration included $1 million for a fire alarm distribution program.

Small Business Services and Workforce Development

The initiatives in this program area support the formation and growth of the City’s small businesses and promote neighborhood development as well as workforce development. These initiatives build on the services offered to the business community by the Department of Small Business Services (SBS), to reach a wider and more diverse range of small businesses and workers, particularly in emerging employment areas such as worker run cooperatives, and green and technology jobs. At the urging of the City Council, the de Blasio Administration has baselined $848,000 for SBS program staff to manage City Council initiatives. For many years, the City Council provided support for SBS program staff as a percentage of the Council’s initiative. With the Administration picking up this funding, the City Council will now be able to allocate the full initiative funding to the small businesses of New York City.

Veteran Services

Through the Veteran Services Initiatives, the Council maintains its strong support for one of the City’s most deserved populations. In Fiscal 2019, the Council has provided $2.3 million, an increase of $1 million over Fiscal 2018, to address the critical needs of the City’s veterans. This funding builds upon the work of the Department of Veterans’ Services, which the City Council established with the passage of Local Law 113 of 2015. This agency, which is in its third year of operation, has greatly bolstered the City’s capacity to develop and implement a sustainable and long-term strategy to serve our veteran population. In addition, the City Council further anchored its support for veterans by extending Fare Fairs eligibility to the approximately 12,000 veteran students who are currently enrolled in New York City colleges.

Young Women's Initiative

YWI lays out a blueprint for investing in the future of young women and girls in New York City over the long-term, especially those of color. Programs supported through this initiative are recommendations of the YWI Task Force, which included community-based organizations, grassroots partners and women and girls themselves.

For Fiscal 2019, the Council negotiated with the Administration to fund, for one year, three YWI initiatives previously funded by the Council. These initiatives are: $500,000 for the ACS Youth Health Initiative, which helps ensure that youth in foster care, juvenile detention, and other City facilities have access to inclusive health care and health education; $1,025,000 for Post-Arrest Diversion programs for drug users charged with non-violent low-level drug offenses, and; $150,000 for Transgender Healthcare Training at H+H which provides staff training in gender-affirming practices and care, as well as other issues pertinent to the health care needs of LGBTQ people. In addition, the Council doubled its commitment to Wrap-Around Support for Transitional-Aged Foster Youth, to $1.1 million. With these programs, the YWI package totals over $5.9 million in Fiscal 2019.
