SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: It's the first ceremonial, so can we have a little quiet? Or the only ceremonial for today that's in Council Member Julissa Ferreras' district, so Council Member is coming forward to... not yet. Can we have a little quiet in the chambers so that the council member can introduce the person that we're honoring this afternoon? Council member?

COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: Thank you, everyone. If we could call up my colleagues, I'd like to honor someone who's very special to our city and she's going to be coming up with her family; her sister and her niece; Miss Idalia Washington [phonetic]. Many of you may have heard this story and as you know... we should give her a round of applause. [applause] Miss Idalia Washington has worked for the MTA for the last... over 15 years. Many of you know that my father's a retired TWU member for 30 years, so when I read this story, I was actually on maternity leave and I understood the importance of the amazing, amazing movement that she made really, and then the fact that she really stood up for a woman says a lot. I get a little emotional because as chair of the Women's Issues, both the Speaker and many of you know, we always go out with flyers to find the rapist; to find the groper. Well, Miss Washington made sure that we didn't have to do that in this case. She was driving her train and heard this woman screaming at the top of her lungs.

IDALIA WASHINGTON: Right, I'm a conductor.

COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: And conductor.

IDALIA WASHINGTON: Actually when I pulled into the station and opened the doors, this girl ran off screaming at the top of her lungs and a gentleman was chasing her, and she screamed he was raping her. So I signaled for her to get in the car ahead of me and I locked the doors and then I trapped him in the doors behind us, but he wiggled out and then I closed down and we pulled off. As a mother, I have daughters, I have sisters, aunts and as a woman myself; nieces; I just was glad my motherly instinct kicked in and I was able to help another young lady. Thank you.

COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: For that reason, we bring Miss Washington to her house. This council is your house, so welcome.

IDALIA WASHINGTON: Oh, okay.

COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: And she's also... she's not amazing just because of the amazing things that she does, but she's also amazing 'cause she's an eight-year cancer survivor, so [applause, cheers] we thank you and thank God that you're still here with us. Again, this is a reminder of how when you see something, we have to say something, and one neighbor takes care of another and in this case, one amazing conductor from New York City did an amazing thing, so thank you. If you could read the proc.

CITY CLERK: Council City of New York Proclamation. The Council of the City of New York is proud to honor Idalia Washington for going above and beyond her call of duty to courageously save the life of a fellow New Yorker. And whereas the City of new York has made meaningful progress in reducing sexual assault and over the last 20 years the overall rates of violence against women have decreased, years ago, victims had fewer resources

2 and often no recourse, today victims are now more
3 empowered to speak out and get help, while new laws
4 have increased options for both safety and justice.
5 Despite this progress, there is much work to be 6 done. Across the nation young women ages 16 to 24 7 still experience the highest rates of rape and 8 sexual assault. 84 percent of the college women 9 who reported a sexual assault experienced the 10 incident during their freshman or sophomore years.
11 Even today, many victims of sexual assault
12 including women, men and children suffer alone, 13 burdened by shame or unsure anyone will listen. As 14 a result, sexual assaults remain consistently 15 underreported even though the physical and 16 emotional trauma they leave behind can last for 17 years. On this occasion, we are proud to pay 18 tribute to Idalia Washington for bravely and 19 creatively intervening during such a crime, and 20 whereas in addition to being a conductor with MTA
21 NYC Transit for more than 15 years, Miss Washington 22 is an eight-year cancer survivor. She is active in 23 fundraising for the American Cancer Society and 24 recently participated in the Walk for a Cure for 25 breast cancer in October. And whereas on May 15th,

1
2 2013, Miss Washington was working on the four train
3 and as she pulled into the Saratoga Avenue Station
4 in Brownsville, Brooklyn it was around 3:00 a.m.
5 and her train was nearly empty, but when she opened 6 its doors and looked out the window she saw a young 7 woman jump out screaming at the top lungs. "He's 8 trying to rape me," she yelled. "He's trying to 9 rape me!" As she tried to flee, a man appeared 10 running behind her exposing himself and attempting 11 to sexually assault her. And whereas that night,
12 Miss Washington's four train was comprised of 10
13 cars in two segments, each half locked and sealed 14 off from the another. When the young woman broke 15 away from her assailant and jumped back into the 16 train; the front half of the train and Miss 17 Washington swiftly shut the doors to that segment
18 to protect the passenger from the monster outside.
19 When the relentless attacker moved to board the 20 adjacent car, Miss Washington moved quickly to 21 close the rear doors hoping to lock him in the back 22 of her train until the police could get him. With 23 a split second difference in timing, the assailant 24 ended locked out of the train altogether, then ran 25 to confront Miss Washington face-to-face, cursing

1 at her. Although the man vanished before the 2 police could arrive, her quick thinking actions 3 halted this man's sexual assault and prevented the 4 young woman from possibly being raped. And whereas 5 Miss Washington has truly distinguished herself in 6 her courageous rescue and is worthy of the esteem 7 of all New Yorkers, now therefore, be it known that 8 the Council of the City of New York gratefully 9 honors Idalia Washington for rescuing a fellow New 10 Yorker from sexual assault and taking a bold stand 11 for human dignity. Christine C. Quinn, Speaker for 12 the entire council, Julissa Ferreras, Chair,
13 Women's Issues Committee [applause] and Darlene
14 Mealy, Council Member 41st District, Brooklyn.

16 IDALIA WASHINGTON: I just want to say
17 this is an honor. I'm so glad to have my sister 18 and my niece with me to share this moment with me, 19 and I would do it again in a millisecond. We all 20 have to look out for each other. It takes a 21 village to raise a child. Thank you.

22 COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: Alright,
23 thank you. [applause]

SPEAKER QUINN: Here.

[Pause]

COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: We have a quorum. We're honored to have the Invocation to be delivered by Rabbi Joseph Potasnik. All please rise.

RABBI POTASNIK: Thank you, Council Member Comrie. Speaker Quinn, I just want to say to you and so many other members of the council, thank you for your steadfast service to this city. You spoke of a quorum. In Jewish tradition, for us to have a public service, we need 10 people or a minion; that's our quorum. When I first became a rabbi, we had nine people at a service. I went outside. Somebody walked by. I said, "Excuse me, sir. Are you Jewish?" He said, "Yes." I said, "Would you come in? We need one more for a minion." He said, "Sir, I don't believe in organized religion." I said to him, "Sir, if we were organized, would I be standing here on a street [laughter] stopping people?" [applause] So, let me say I want to thank you for organizing us all of these years. We don't put up statues for critics; we put them up for authors and you have

2 authored much, you and many others. Let me say to 3 all of you very briefly, years ago we had a
4 magazine called Life. After that, we had a
5 magazine called People. From People we had a
6 magazine called Us, and after that we had a 7 magazine called Self. So we started at Life; we 8 concluded at Self, but we Jews read from right to 9 left, so first you start with self and then you 10 realize it's not just about self; it's about us as 11 a people living together, seeing each other with 12 different faces and different faiths, but 13 ultimately as members of one family. Amen.

14 ALL: Amen. [applause]

15 RABBI POTASNIK: Thank you so much.
16 Thank you.

17 COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: Council Member
18 Koslowitz to spread the Invocation. Quiet, please, 19 quiet.

20 COUNCIL MEMBER KOSLOWITZ: Motion to 21 spread the Invocation in full upon the record.

22 COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: Adoption of

2 COUNCIL MEMBER NELSON: I make a motion

6 SPEAKER QUINN: Mr. Acting Majority 7 Leader, if you could before we move on in the 8 meeting, just recognize some of our very special 9 guests who are with us today, please.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: Yes, we are 11 honored today not only to have the invocation done 12 by the esteemed Rabbi Joseph Potasnik, but we are 13 truly honored that we have some Tuskegee Airmen
14 with us, both [applause] who are over 90 years old, 15 Mr. Wilfred DeFour, Mr. Dabney Montgomery, and 16 they're escorted by Miss Amelia Montgomery.

9 have been with us for most of the part of today,
10 and this street renaming is not just a name to tag 11 some signs in our community, but it is going to 12 leave a legacy or allow us to look at a legacy and 13 change the perspective of many young people who 14 have thought that their expectations have been 15 drowned. So today I would like to thank the rest 16 of my councils 'cause I'm sure that they will all 17 vote in the affirmative for the street renaming and 18 the heroes that we have today with us, which are 19 the Tuskegee Airmen and Miss Montgomery, because 20 they are only as good as the women... or we are 21 only as good as the women that we are with. Thank 22 you, Mr. Majority Leader.

CITY COUNCIL STATED MEETING

CITY CLERK: Koppell. Your mic's not on.

COUNCIL MEMBER KOPPELL: Sorry. I'd ask unanimous consent to vote aye on all matters on the...

[crosstalk]

COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: So ordered.

[crosstalk]

COUNCIL MEMBER KOPPELL: General Order Calendar, as well as resolutions.

COUNCIL MEMBER COMRIE: So ordered.

COUNCIL MEMBER KOPPELL: I vote aye.

CITY CLERK: Oddo.

COUNCIL MEMBER ODDO: Yes.

CITY CLERK: Speaker Quinn.

SPEAKER QUINN: Aye.

CITY CLERK: Today's Land Use Call-Ups were adopted by a vote of 34 in the affirmative, zero in the negative. Communications from the Speaker.

SPEAKER QUINN: Thank you. Well, first I want to say how thrilled we all are to see Council Member Lew Fidler back [cheers, applause] and Preston, stop bothering Lew Fidler, and glad

1
2 that he is looking so well and healthy so. And I
3 want to just, on behalf of everyone, echo the 4 statements of Council Member Wills. It's a great 5 honor to have two of our Tuskegee Airmen with us.
6 I believe they're exiting the chambers, so let's 7 give them [applause] another round of applause.

8 We are voting on a number of pieces of 9 legislation today; the first 1047-A out of 10 Environmental Protection. I want to thank the 11 chair, who is also the sponsor, Jim Gennaro and I
12 want to thank Samara Swanson, Laura Popa and Baaba
13 Halm for their work on this legislation. This is a 14 piece of legislation that builds on work we have 15 already done, pushing biofuel forward in an effort 16 to make the fuels we use in this city more 17 sustainable and less polluting. I want to thank 18 Chair Gennaro for his long-term focus on biofuel
19 and making this council a real leader in that area 20 and call on him to give us more information about 21 1047-A, please.

22 COUNCIL MEMBER GENNARO: Thank you,
23 Madam Speaker. Thank you for your leadership and 24 doing all the things we've done to make the air 25 cleaner in New York City, particularly what we've

1 done with biofuels. It's a very, very short back 2 story. People may remember that two years ago, we 3 did a B2 mandate, which means all heating oil in 4 New York City had to contain at least two percent 5 vegetable oil, and that's what makes it bioheat.
6 We did that in combination with several other 7 measures to clean the air and the results of what 8 we did and when it was last year's... last year was 9 the first heating season we had all the oil in New 10 York City at the B2 level and we did that with a 11 couple of other measures and all of the results we 12 got from that were really, really terrific. We 13 have a huge reduction in the fine particulate 14 matter of many hundreds of tons, which is 73 15 percent of what we wanted to accomplish, all the 16 levels of the very harmful pollutants that really 17 hurt people. I won't go into the same level of 18 detail that I did at the Pre-stated Press
19 Conference, but the B2 law that we did two years
20 ago in last heating season has been a clean air 21 bonanza for the city that has been really, really 22 terrific. So now we'll talk about what we're doing 23 today, which follows forward, as the Speaker said, 24 with what we've done before. So Intro 1047-A is 25

1
2 going to take the B2 level, which is set in all of 3 New York City buildings. We're going to take city
4 government buildings and we're going to raise them 5 to B5 because that's going to be a prelude for the 6 entire city going to B5, and we're also doing a 7 pilot project where at least five percent of city
8 buildings will have to go to 10 percent biodiesel 9 in the heating oil, what we call B10. So and then 10 as a further prelude to kind of set the stage for 11 the entire city, going to B5 from where it is now
12 at B2, we're doing a study that the Office of Long-
13 Term Planning and Sustainability will have to do
14 and that will... and then they will have to make a 15 recommendation whether and when we go to B5 in the 16 entire city, which I'm sure they'll find it will be 17 prudent to do. So just to recap, we're at B2 now 18 citywide. We're going to city buildings going to 19 B5. We're piloting B10 in city buildings and we're 20 setting the stage for the entire city going to B5
21 by doing this study. This is a great bill and all 22 of the clean air benefits it would take me hours to 23 indicate all the clean air benefits that we've been 24 able to do with this and many bills like it. So 25 thank you, Madam Speaker, for your leadership. I

1
2 want to thank all the staff that was involved and 3 all the sponsors and also the members of the EP
4 Committee. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

5 SPEAKER QUINN: Thank you, Chair
6 Gennaro. And we are passing a number of pieces of 7 legislation out of the Housing and Buildings 8 Committee today, many of which are bills related to 9 Hurricane Sandy. Today, when we pass our 10 legislation, we will have passed 26 pieces of 11 legislation [applause] in response to Hurricane 12 Sandy to make this city more climate change ready 13 and more emergency prepared, and I want to thank 14 everyone who's worked on that, in particular Baaba 15 Halm, Ed Atkin, Laura Popa, Jeff Baker and many 16 other members of the staff, and if we could just 17 get a round of applause for all of the staff that 18 worked [applause] on the 26 post-Sandy pieces of 19 legislation.

20 And today, we are voting on Intro 1092-21 A, introduced by Council Member Lappin. All of the 22 bills we're now going to mention went through the 23 Housing and Buildings Committee, and I want to 24 thank Chair Dilan. Council Member Lappin's bill is 25 one that requires secondary electrical power

1 heating and cooling systems for adult homes and has 2 greater requirements around back up power for 3 hospitals and other healthcare facilities. We, of 4 course, saw the significance of this during 5 Hurricane Sandy. 1093-A, which has been introduced 6 by Council Member Levin; it's requiring to the 7 usage of temporary flood control and response 8 devices be removed from the administrative code.
9 Inadvertently, we actually had things that made it
10 hard for people to put in flood prevention devices.
11 We also have 1094-A, introduced by Council Member 12 Mendez, which is a very important bill that 13 requires an access in a common area to drinking 14 water. It's very important. When buildings are 15 without power, they often can't get drinking water.
16 Intro 1101-A, in relation to requiring natural gas
17 usage as a back-up for emergency and standby power
18 systems that was introduced by Council Member 19 Vacca. I want to thank him. Also out of Housing 20 and Buildings Committee we have a piece of 21 legislation today sponsored by the chair or Council
22 Member Dilan, which does not deal with Sandy 23 related matters, but will require more up to date 24 smoke alarms. One of the significant things about 25

1
2 these smoke alarms is the ones we are requiring 3 will last for 10 years. You cannot take them
4 apart; you cannot take the battery out. They have 5 a 10-year long battery, and we know that we've lost 6 lives already this year in homes that didn't have 7 smoke detectors or had smoke detectors where people 8 had taken out the battery and not replaced them.
9 This bill will help prevent that. As has already 10 been mentioned, and I believe he's escorting them
11 out, but we are passing a piece of legislation
12 today out of the Parks and Recreation Committee.
13 We want to thank Chair Mark-Viverito and Council
14 Member Wills, the sponsor, which renames a street
15 in Queens in recognition and honor of the Tuskegee 16 Airmen, calling it Tuskegee Airmen Way. I want to 17 thank Baaba Halm, Jeff Baker, Chris Satori and 18 Patrick Leveille [phonetic] for their work on this 19 legislation. We are also out of the Technology 20 Committee and I want to thank Chair Cabrera and the 21 sponsor, Gale Brewer, a piece of legislation that 22 requires, as the council has done, that all city
23 agencies webcast their public meeting and web
24 archive them. I want to thank Baaba Halm, Cullen
25 Howe, Jeff Baker and Laura Popa and I want to call

1
2 on the sponsor, Council Member Brewer, to say a few 3 words.

4 COUNCIL MEMBER BREWER: Me first?

5 SPEAKER QUINN: Yes.

6 COUNCIL MEMBER BREWER: Okay. Well,
7 thank you. I want to thank the Speaker; Chairman
8 Cabrera for scheduling the vote today on Intro 132, 9 and as the Speaker indicated, it would require that 10 all public meetings by city agencies, committees, 11 commissions or task forces be webcast. I
12 particularly want to thank Rob Newman, Cullen Howe
13 from the Speaker's staff and Will Cogrove
14 [phonetic] from my staff. I first introduced this 15 idea in 2007. I think this bill will bring an 16 unprecedented level of transparency to New York
17 City government. Webcasting of public meetings 18 opens up government to the public, particularly for 19 those who cannot travel to City Hall. We believe 20 that there are 18 agencies who are not currently 21 webcasting who would be doing so under this bill
22 and at a very small cost. As many city meetings 23 take place during the standard workday, achieving 24 digital video of meetings allows people to view it 25 as it takes place, and obviously there would be an

1
2 archive component. We would be able to... I want
3 to also mention that being webcast live as a city
4 council shows the importance of it and the quality, 5 which is exceptional here at the city council. We 6 have a lot of meetings, they're all webcast and the 7 public is very pleased. I am a strong believer 8 that transparency and technological innovation lead 9 to a smarter, more accountable government and this 10 bill would be a big step forward in bringing 11 government to the people. And I have to say that 12 as you know, I really do think that transparency's 13 important, technology is the way to do it and 14 groups like Code for America and Beta NYC and the 15 folks from Citizens Union, OpenPlans, which is 16 another group that works on technology, NIPERG and 17 Allway, Reinvent Albany and the good news is this 18 transparency effort has brought together those who 19 are interested in technology and open government
20 and those who have been working on good government 21 for a very long time. It's a powerful coalition 22 and I think the webcasting is an example of what 23 can be achieved and great accolades to the Speaker 24 and her amazing technology staff, as well as those 25 from the Mayor's Office, who've been working to

1
2 make the success of the webcasting in the city
3 council. Thank you very much.

4 SPEAKER QUINN: Thank you very much,
5 Council Member Brewer. We're also passing three 6 pieces of legislation out of the Transportation 7 Committee, and I want to thank Chair Vacca and also 8 Council Member Levin and Council Member Ignizio, 9 who are the sponsors of two of the bills. I want
10 to thank Lyle Frank, Kadazale Zaleoff [phonetic], 11 Jonathan Maseroni, [phonetic] Terza Nazar
12 [phonetic] and Molly Murphy for their work on the 13 bill. The three pieces of legislation are Intro 14 234-A, in relation to taking all of the advisory 15 boards of the TLC and putting them into one board 16 with diverse representation that'll be an easier 17 and cleared point of entry for members of the 18 public, as well as for stakeholders in a taxi
19 field. Intro 904-A, introduced by Council Member 20 Levin, which requires that the Traffic Safety Plan
21 that the city recently released not be a one-time 22 thing, but be redone every five years. I want to 23 thank Council Member Levin for that. And lastly, 24 Intro 1155-A, which is a bill that deals with some 25 confusion around right turns from bus lanes and

1
2 thanks to Council Member Ignizio and Chair Vacca,
3 and let me call on Chair Vacca. Chair Vacca.

4 COUNCIL MEMBER VACCA: Thank you. I
5 found my chair. Thank you. Thank you, Speaker 6 Quinn. The bills before you today refer to finally 7 formalizing the advisory boards to the Taxi and 8 Limousine Commission, and for some time, the 9 advisory boards have not really met and they've not 10 been cohesive, and the legislation in front of you 11 today provides for representation from all the 12 various stakeholders, as well as from the disabled 13 community. So I'm asking that the council approve 14 this. I think it will be significant because it 15 will bring everyone to the table in a formal way to 16 get input from all segments of the industry, and 17 then to impart that input to the Taxi and Limousine
18 Commission on a regular basis. Thank you, Madam
19 Speaker.

20 SPEAKER QUINN: Thank you very much,
21 Chair Vacca, and that concludes Communications from 22 the Speaker.
