OF
THE CITY OF NEW YORK
FOR THE YEAR 2013

No. 104

Introduced by Council Members Vacca, Chin, Dromm, Fidler, Koppell, Nelson, Rodriguez, Koo and Van Bramer.

A LOCAL LAW

To amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the taxi and limousine commission advisory board.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 19-520 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§ 19-520 Advisory [Boards] Board. a. Taxi and limousine commission advisory board.

There shall be an advisory board whose members shall be appointed for two-year terms by the mayor and the speaker of the council to enable the commission to be kept aware of current views of all segments of the [taxi industry] industries regulated by the commission and of the public and to be available to the commission to provide the expertise of its members for the better administration of the commission and service to the public. Such advisory board shall consider and provide recommendations to the commission regarding issues related to such industries, including, but not limited to, the promulgation of rules, enforcement of existing laws and rules, and issues related to accessibility, safety regulations, fees, rates, work conditions and other industry matters.

b. The advisory board shall consist of [fifteen] twenty-four members, including each chairperson of the transportation, consumer affairs, and finance committees of the council or such

- (13) a driver of a black car vehicle;

- (14) a driver of a luxury limousine vehicle;
- (15) a driver of a for-hire vehicle other than a luxury limousine or black car;
- (16) an operator of a paratransit base;
- (17) a driver of a wheelchair accessible taxicab or for-hire vehicle;
- (18) a holder of a HAIL vehicle permit as applicable;
- (19) an advocate for the environment;
- (20) an operator of a base station that has a permit issued by the commission to dispatch one or more HAIL vehicles as applicable; and
- (21) an operator of a base station that does not have a permit to dispatch any HAIL vehicles as applicable.

c. Except for the chairpersons of the transportation, finance and consumer affairs committees or such chairpersons' designees, eight of the members [within each category] of the advisory board set forth in subdivision b of this section shall be appointed by the speaker of the council and [half] thirteen shall be appointed by the mayor all for two-year terms, none of whom shall be an employee or staff member of the council or the commission. No members of such advisory board serving two-year terms shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive two-year terms. The board shall meet no less often than every three months[, unless the board determines otherwise, but in no event shall the board meet less often than every six months] beginning after the complete board is initially appointed.

d. Not more than thirty days following any meeting of the advisory board held pursuant to this section, the commission shall provide to the council and to all board members a written summary of such meeting, including but not limited to any recommendations made by such advisory board.

e. Nothing contained in this section shall preclude any members of the commission from holding meetings with members of the board or other interested industry members that are not advisory board meetings.

§2. This local law shall take effect immediately.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF THE CITY CLERK, s.s.:

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a local law of The City of New York, passed by the Council on November 14, 2013 and approved by the Mayor on December 2, 2013.
