

CURRENT INTRODUCTION NUMBER:

Int. No. 632

INITIAL SPONSORS:

Council Member Miller

TITLE:

A local law amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring successor employers in the grocery industry to retain eligible employees for a transition employment period.

BILL SUMMARY:

This plain language summary is for informational purposes only and does not substitute for legal counsel. For more information, you should review the full text of the bill, which is available online at legistar.council.nyc.gov.

This local law would require new grocery store owners to retain the previous owner's staff for a transition period after a business is sold. Employees are to be kept by the new owner for ninety days. After the transition period, the new employer must evaluate each employee and consider keeping them as employees.

CODE SECTIONS AFFECTED:

- Adds Administrative Code § 22-507

EFFECTIVE DATE:

Immediately after enactment into law.
