A P P E A R A N C E S (CONTINUED)

Cora Cahan
President
The New Victory Theater

[background comments]

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: So good afternoon everybody, we're gonna get started, we have one ceremonial today that we are going to do. One of the things -- the Women's Caucus is facilitating today, we're doing the Council Member for a Day and I have Kadesha [sp?] Benoit [sp?] from my district as me -- we all have doppelgangers; she's my doppelganger today, Kadesha, who's here with me as well from one of my schools in the Bronx part of the district.

So the one ceremonial we have today is from Council Member Corey Johnson, to The New 42nd Street Victory Theater, so whoever is here to receive this Proclamation can please step up. The New 42nd Street Victory Theater, in recognition of their Usher Corps, it's a program which recently received the National Arts and Humanities Youth Award, which is the highest national honor that a youth program can achieve, so we wanna thank [cheers, applause] The New 42nd Street Victory Theater. And with that I will pass -- everybody come on over here, join us. I'm gonna pass the mic over -- hi, nice to see you again.

[background comments] So with that I'm gonna ask

2 Council Member Johnson to say a few words before we 3 hear the Clerk read the Proclamation.

5 COUNCIL MEMBER JOHNSON: Thank you...

6 [background comments] Thank you, Madame Speaker; I
7 just wanna recognize the folks that have joined us 8 here today, Cora Cahan, who is the President of The 9 New 42nd -- it's good to see you -- Anthony Pound, 10 the Youth Corps Manager; Sendie Brunard, an usher --
11 good to see you -- Manny Delgado, another usher -- 12 good to have you with us -- Melania [sp?] Wozniak; 13 did I say it right? [background comment] Good,
14 Gabriela Sasas [sic] [background comment] Casas;
15 Maritza Ramos, [background comment] yes, Maritza 16 Ramos and Rory Nooks. Great. Well thank you all for 17 being here. This incredible, incredible theater and 18 this Usher Corps has a deep and rich history; The New 19 Victory moved to Times Square, 42nd Street, in 1995 20 is when they opened their doors and Times Square was 21 a much different place in 1995; it's not the Times 22 Square and 42nd Street that we know today, and the 23 first day they opened their doors they started this 24 incredible program, this usher program, this corps, 25 which has provided, I believe, over the course of

2 time, over the last 20 years, over 500 jobs for young 3 people in New York City to be able to participate in 4 a real way and get some experience and gets some 5 money too. So I believe last year in the fall Sendie
6 was invited, along with Anthony, to the White House
7 to meet The First Lady and they were only one of 12
8 programs recognized nationally by the White House for 9 the important work that they do, so I am incredibly 10 proud that this program is in my district, but as 11 many Council Members know, this theater and this 12 program serves young people, children all over the 13 city, in every district across the city and..

14 [interpose, background comment] you're from Council 15 Member King's [laughter] district? Very good. So we 16 are so grateful that you're here; we congratulate 17 you; you are a gem and a treasure and an asset for 18 the City of New York and before we read the 19 Proclamation, the Clerk reads it, I wanna hand it 20 over to Cora, if you wanted to say something.

21 CORA CAHAN: I'll say this very quickly.
22 I grew up in New York, I actually grew up in 23 Brooklyn, as we were just discussing and -- public
24 school, public college, CUNY graduate from Brooklyn
25 College -- and we found out... [background comment]

1
2 yes, whoever said that, yes, yes. We found out that 3 the thing we could do in opening the first theater on 4 42nd Street almost 20 years ago was provide jobs, 5 year-round jobs for young people in the city who are 6 not gonna be our audience, but they are the front of 7 house staff and I have said that the street went from 8 people pushing drugs to people pushing strollers. So 9 thank you very much, City Council, for this 10 Proclamation; we are very, very proud of it.

11 [background comment, applause]

12 COUNCIL MEMBER JOHNSON: And if the Clerk
13 could please read the Proc.

14 CITY CLERK: Council, City of New York
15 Proclamation. Whereas, the Council of the City of 16 New York honors and congratulates the distinguished 17 members of The New Victory Theater Usher Corps upon 18 receiving the 2014 National Arts and Humanities Youth
19 Program Award.

20 And whereas, The New Victory Theater
21 introduces extraordinary performing artists from 22 around the world to extraordinary audiences in New 23 York City, bringing kids to the arts and arts to 24 kids. Created in 1995 for young New Yorkers, their 25 families and schoolmates, The New Victory Theater

1
2 presents a diverse season of international companies
3 at low ticket prices year after year through award-
4 winning education programs. The New Victory 5 continues to provide access to schools and 6 communities of our city seeking to experience 7 excellent theater, often for the very first time.

8                   And whereas, The New Victory Usher
9 Corps provides paid employment, job training, 10 academic support, mentorship and an introduction to 11 the performing arts for 50 young New Yorkers each 12 year. Created to address the urgent need for youth
13 employment in New York City, the rigorous three-year 14 program offers an opportunity for teens to invest in 15 their future while earning a paycheck. At every 16 performance these hard-working and enthusiastic young 17 people assist audience members, ensure public safety 18 and work as teaching assistants in arts-based 19 workshops for families. Between shows, New Victory
20 Ushers interact with professional artists from all 21 over the world, participate in job and life skills 22 workshops, like time management, resume writing and 23 personal finance and discover how a theater runs, all 24 while experiencing new cultures and art forms.

1
2           And whereas, The New Victory Usher Corps
3 was launched the day the theater opened nearly 20
4 years ago and has provided over 400,000 hours of paid 5 employment to more than 500 New York City teens from 6 across the city. While some New Victory Ushers are 7 recruited from social service agencies, some are 8 recent immigrants and others are from families who 9 have called the city home for generations. For most 10 participants, however, The New Victory marks their 11 first introduction to the rich world of the 12 performing arts; the majority go on either to college 13 or to full-time jobs, with some participants entering 14 the entertainment industry.

15           And whereas, this year The New Victory 16 Usher Corps was one of just 12 programs in the United 17 States recognized with the prestigious National Arts 18 and Humanities Youth Program Award, our nation's 19 highest honor for after-school arts and humanities
20 programs. The awards recognize and support 21 outstanding programs that lay new pathways to 22 creativity, expression and achievement outside of the 23 regular school day. On November 10th, The New 24 Victory Usher Corps representative, Sendie Brunard
25 and New Victory Usher Corps Manager, Anthony Pound

1
2 visited the White House to accept the award, which 3 includes a $10,000 grant from First Lady Michelle 4 Obama.

5 And whereas, The New Victory Usher Corps
6 has truly excelled in its mission and its dedicated 7 members have truly earned the esteem of all New 8 Yorkers.

9 Now therefore be it known, that the 10 Council of the City of New York honors and 11 congratulates The New Victory Usher Corps upon
13 Program Award. Melissa Mark-Viverito, Speaker for 14 the Entire Council; Corey Johnson, Council Member 3rd
15 District, Manhattan; Mathieu Eugene, Council Member 16 40th District, Brooklyn.

17 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Okay; give me one
18 second; Speaker Benoit wants to say one quick thing.

19 SPEAKER BENOIT: Congratulations New 20 Victory Theater.

21 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Alright.
22 [cheers, applause] Well thank you very much. This 23 is a really beautiful partnership; you know to really 24 provide opportunities to our young people. I was 25 just talking to this young woman here and you must

1
2 have watched some wonderful performances over the 3 years as well and we all know the importance that 4 culture plays here in New York City and the life of 5 New York City, but also independently what it brings 6 and the value it brings to expanding the educational 7 opportunities for young people, so thank you so much 8 for that partnership; it's appreciated. And with 9 that we end the ceremonial, this is the only 10 ceremonial we have today, so all eyes are you. [sic]

22 COUNCIL MEMBER IGNIZIO: Yes.
23 COMMITTEE CLERK: Speaker Mark-Viverito.
24 SPEAKER BENOIT: Speaker Melissa votes
25 aye.

[laughter]

PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Today's Land Use Call-Ups were adopted by a vote of 44 in the affirmative, 0 in the negative... quiet in the chambers. [background comments] Communication from the Speaker, Melissa Mark-Viverito.

SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you, Madame Public Advocate.

I wanna open my remarks today by acknowledging two recent tragedies here in New York City. On March 21st, as we all know, a fire in Midwood, Brooklyn claimed the lives of seven children in the Sassoon family. And on March 26th, an explosion in an East Village restaurant took the lives of two young men; this happened in Council Member Mendez's district. The one individual who has been officially identified, Nicholas Figueroa, was a constituent.

I wanna make mention of one staffer here at the Council, Walter Aguirin [sp?], who has gone above and beyond in assisting the community in the wake of the explosion. Walter, along with the rest of the Community Engagement Division, UCEF [sp?] and all others, has stepped up and answered the call in

2 this extremely difficult time; we're all extremely 3 grateful. Having just unfortunately celebrated the 4 one-year anniversary of the East Harlem explosion, 5 the amount of devastation here is overwhelming and 6 obviously our hearts and prayers are with all three 7 of these families as they mourn the loss of their 8 loved ones and I would like to ask everyone to join 9 me in a moment of silence.

10 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Quiet down; a
11 moment of silence, please. Please rise.

12 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you my 13 colleagues.

14 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Please be seated.

15 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Today we have a 16 package of bills from the Civil Rights Committee that 17 will serve as vital first steps in revamping the 18 City's Human Rights Commission. We're gonna be 19 requiring that the Commission's annual report to the 20 Council includes information regarding the number of 21 investigations conducted each year. Additionally, we 22 have two bills that require the Commission to begin 23 proactive testing programs to investigate housing and 24 employment discrimination. These bills will require 25 the HRC, the Commission, to conduct investigations in

1
2 which pairs of testers who differ based on one or 3 more protected classes, such as age, race, national 4 origin or gender, but have otherwise similar 5 qualifications and credentials apply for the same 6 housing or employment. Through these tests HRC will 7 be able to proactively investigate where 8 discrimination may be occurring in New York City.
9 The bills require that at least five housing
10 discrimination investigations and five employment 11 discrimination investigations take place over a one-12 year period beginning this October. Further, upon 13 conclusion of the investigations, the Commission will 14 be required to report the details to the Council in 15 its annual report. In February, at the State of the 16 City Address, I presented a vision of a reinvigorated 17 Human Rights Commission as part of the Council's 18 agenda for 2015. I said that it's time for us to put 19 teeth into a Commission that has been ineffective for 20 far too long, because our city's commitment to human 21 rights is essential to ensuring fairness for all New 22 Yorkers. The City Council has stepped up to this 23 challenge and today's bills represent the first step 24 in this process.

1
2 I would like to thank staff members
3 Rachel Cordero, Alicia Brown; Muzna Ansari for all of 4 their work and I'm gonna ask Council Members Darlene 5 Mealy and Brad Lander to speak on both of these 6 bills. Council Member Mealy.

7 COUNCIL MEMBER MEALY: I wanna thank you,
8 Council Speaker for putting teeth into this bill and 9 to this legislation and committee. And I wanna thank 10 my City Council Member Miss Edwards here today also, 11 for Council Member for a Day.

12 I'm proud to sponsor these two Intros, 13 0421-A and 0690-A. [cough] Excuse me.

14 Intro 0421-A will shed more needed light
15 on the investigations the Human Rights Commission
16 initiates by requiring the Commission to include 17 those investigations in the annual report to the 18 Mayor and to this City Council body.

19 Intro 60 [sic] will go a long way towards 20 making the Commission a more proactive agency that is 21 able to root out discrimination in the area that 22 affects almost all New Yorkers and that's employment.

23 [cough] Excuse me. I congratulate my colleague, 24 Council Member Brad Lander on his Introduction 0689, 25 which creates a housing testing program just like the

2 program for 0690, that two people of different ethnic 3 backgrounds with the same employment and same 4 education will go for the same job and we pray that 5 they treat them right and if they do not, that is 6 discrimination and we will be rooting that out.

7 I'm grateful to Speaker Mark-Viverito for 8 her support for this legislation and her commitment 9 to civil rights of all New Yorkers. And just to let 10 you know the effect that Intro 0423 and 0690, how far 11 will go, it would be strengthening our Human Rights
12 Commission. Right now we have a strong Human Rights 13 Law and a Commission with the reputation for 14 weakness; we have to change that; we need a proactive 15 Commission that uses the power granted by law to get 16 rid of our city of effects of discrimination. Right 17 now I must say in this city we have a budget of 298; 18 only 194,000 summonses were signed out four 19 discrimination in this big city and we know for sure 20 that we have a whole lot more discrimination. So I 21 hope now that having the teeth in this legislation, 22 if one employer or housing person gets caught, it'll 23 be a $250,000 fine and if they do not abide by that 24 law, guess what, it'll be $50,000 for the first fine 25 and then $150 a day after that. So I know we have

1
2 teeth in this legislation now and I thank my 3 colleagues and I hope and pray that you sign on to 4 this great legislation. Thank you, Madame Speaker.

5 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you,
6 Council Member Mealy. Council Member Lander.

7 COUNCIL MEMBER LANDER: Thank you, Madame
8 Speaker. Earlier [background comments] this month we 9 observed the 50th anniversary of the march from Selma 10 to Montgomery and while luckily we are not called on 11 to show the courage of those marchers who risked 12 their very lives, we are called upon to do all we can 13 to root out discrimination and advance human rights, 14 as Congressman Lewis and President Obama so 15 powerfully reminded us. We know that even now, and 16 even here in New York City discrimination continues 17 to exist and that despite having one of the best 18 human rights laws in the country, for the past 20 19 years we have woefully failed to enforce it and 20 therefore we have as a city stood by and allowed 21 discrimination in the job market, as Chair Mealy just 22 spoke to, and in the housing market continues to 23 fester. Landlords who discriminate against people of 24 color, against the LGBTQ community, against people 25 with disabilities, against people with housing

1
2 vouchers, they violate our fundamental sense of right
3 and wrong, worsen our affordable housing crisis, 4 segregate our city and indeed violate our laws.
5 Along with the bills that Chair Mealy spoke about,
6 Intro 0689 will help us do more to address
7 discrimination by landlords. Matched Pair Testing
8 sends out two testers otherwise similar; one black 9 and one white or Latino; one straight and one gay; 10 one with a disability, one without, and/or one with a 11 housing voucher and one without a housing voucher and 12 you see what happens. You focus this proactive 13 discrimination against the worse offenders, people 14 who you suspect are discriminating but you haven't 15 yet been able to prove it and with Matched Pair 16 testing you're able to build a case, prove 17 discrimination, get real accountability of the kind 18 the Chair spoke to and bring about systemic change, 19 so I'm proud to be part of the package today.

20 I also wanna salute both Chair Mealy and 21 especially Speaker Mark-Viverito; the leadership that 22 you've taken, that you announced in the State of the 23 City is moving the city forward to where it needs to 24 be and advancing human rights and upholding the human 25 rights law with the resources the Commission needs,

2 with real transparency, with proactive testing and 3 with updating the human rights law with the agenda
4 that you've outlined and now under the new leadership 5 of Carmelyn Malalis as the Chair of the Commission on 6 Human Rights, we are going to return New York City to 7 its human rights best self and truly be able to say 8 not only do we have the best law in the country, but 9 we're doing the most we possibly can to do the best 10 in the country on issues of discrimination; I'm very 11 proud to work with you and with Chair Mealy.

12 I also wanna briefly say thank you to 13 Beth Golub, Muzna Ansari, Alicia Brown and also to 14 Rachel Cordero, Matt Gewolb and Laura Popa for their 15 work on this legislation, as well as Ben Smith from 16 my office; I look forward to joining my colleagues
17 and voting for these bills. Thank you.

18 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you,
19 Council Member Lander. And you know this City
20 Council has stepped up to this challenge; today's 21 bills on the Human Rights Commission is a step in the 22 right process. We don't need to look very far to see 23 how disastrous and appalling a disregard for human 24 rights can be. For the past week the whole country 25 has watched at Indiana has adopted pro-discrimination

1
2 policies, policies which will negatively impact the 3 LGBTQ community. What Indiana has done is an 4 absolute disgrace and Governor Pence and the State
5 Legislature should be ashamed. These laws are mean-6 spirited and run counter against our country's 7 values, the values of inclusion and the values of 8 progress, and so what we're doing here today with 9 these bills and stepping up to fortify the Human 10 Rights Commission is the opposite of what Indiana has 11 done; what we are doing is standing up for human 12 dignity and standing up for basic human rights. What 13 Indiana has done should serve as a reminder that 14 without diligence and a constant push for progress, 15 our basic rights are never more than a stroke of the 16 pen away from being taken and that will never happen
17 here in New York City.

18           And before we end today, we have a few 19 people that we need to send off today. After more 20 than 10 years with the Council, our Senior 21 Legislative Financial Analyst, Kate Seely-Kirk, is 22 headed to the New York City Housing Authority.
23 [applause, cheers] It's good to know that we're 24 gonna have a partner in NYCHA who's gonna work hand
25 in hand with Nathan and everyone else in the Finance

1
2 Division; very excited about that. Everyone at the 3 Council will miss Kate's contributions this budget
4 season, but perhaps more so we'll miss her 5 contributions on the field this softball season,
6 sorry about that. She helped propel the Council team
7 to its 17-13 win against the Mayor's Office last 8 year; do not join the Mayor's team. [laughter] No, 9 that's gonna be a term of agreement between us.
10 Okay. [laugh]

11           Additionally, John Waldman is heading to 12 the Buildings Department to work in their Government
13 and Community Relations Division. [applause, cheers]
14 John has worked in the Speaker's Office for the last 15 15 years; most of those assigned to the Legislative 16 Counsel assisting all the Council Members, their 17 staff and central staff. We wish him much success 18 and thank him for so ably working half of his life 19 here at the Council.

20           And finally, my First Deputy Chief of 21 Staff, Elizabeth de Leon Bhargava, is leaving the 22 Council to serve as a Deputy Secretary for Labor in 23 the Cuomo Administration. [background comment,
24 cheers, applause] Elizabeth played... [applause]
25 Elizabeth played an invaluable role in my transition

1
2 into the Speaker's Office and was instrumental in the 3 formulation of the Council's Unaccompanied Minors 4 Initiative, which has already taken on 424 cases and 5 halted 13 deportations, among other responsibilities
6 as well. We wish her the best, thank her for all her 7 hard work over the past year and to all of those that 8 are moving and transitioning on; we obviously wish 9 you the best. And with that I end Communications 10 from the Speaker.

11 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you, Madame
12 Speaker and congratulations to all the staff members.
13 Discussion of General Orders. Council Member Julissa
14 Ferreras, the blushing bride.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: Aw. Thank you,
16 Madame Public Advocate. I just wanted to say to you, 17 Madame Speaker, we know tomorrow is your birthday and 18 this Council body would like to wish you a happy 19 birthday, so we've imported a cake all the way from 20 Corona, [background comments] a great Dominican 21 bakery, it's diet, 00:43:30 [Spanish], diet, 22 [background comments, applause, cheers] and it made
23 it through the BQE, which we were really worried 24 about; we need to get those BQE roads fixed, but we

1
2 wish you a very happy birthday, so colleagues, let's 3 sing happy birthday.

4 [singing, clapping]

5 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: So most people...
6 Julissa. Julissa [laughter]. Julissa, they don't 7 know the Stevie Wonder version. No.

8 COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: I see, I see;
9 I'm sorry. [laugh]

10 [singing, clapping]

11 [pause]

12 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: I can't believe 13 they actually put 46 candles on the cake. [laughter]
14 My secret is out.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: So there'll be 16 cake in the Committee Room after... [interpose]

17 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank...

18 COUNCIL MEMBER FERRERAS: the hearing for 19 everyone.

20 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you,
21 Julissa; that means a lot; I appreciate -- to all my 22 colleagues, thank you for your support. And the last 23 thing [background comments] I forgot to mention,
24 Madame Public Advocate, if I may, just an extension 25 of my remarks, I wanna thank the Women's Caucus for

1
2 doing the Council Member for a Day; I think this is 3 an incredible initiative, especially in Women's 4 History Month, every day is Women's History Month, 5 but this month we really highlighted and celebrated,
6 and having these young women here with us I think can 7 serve as an inspiration for their future in terms of 8 what they may be looking to do and I wanna thank 9 Kadesha Benoit, who is a young woman from my district
10 that is here today and salute all the young women 11 that have received certificates and are here as 12 Council Members for a day. Thank you very much.

13 [applause, cheers]

COUNCIL MEMBER TORRES: Aye.

COMMITTEE CLERK: Treyger.

COUNCIL MEMBER TREYGER: Permission to briefly explain my vote.

PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Yes.

COUNCIL MEMBER TREYGER: Just wanna -- it's very fitting that we're paying tribute to Kate Seely-Kirk when we've just learned that the Federal Government, FEMA, is allocating over $3 billion to NYCHA for all the Sandy impacted buildings where the people are still going through a lot, [cheers, applause] and it was this Council and this Speaker, with my great colleague, Chair of the Public Housing Committee, Ritchie Torres, that had an historic hearing a year ago, and Kate and other staff were very instrumental in making that happen, so that historic hearing has produced an historic result.

2 Kate, we wish you nothing but the best; make sure
3 NYCHA gets to work. And with that I vote aye. Thank 4 you.

19 items currently under consideration.

20 COMMITTEE CLERK: Ignizio.

21 COUNCIL MEMBER IGNIZIO: I'm sorry, my 22 colleagues. I vote no on Intro 0689-A and 0690-A and 23 I wanted to thank my colleagues for their support of 24 the South Shore BID, Intro 0656 and I appreciate the 25 fine work of both the SBS Commissioner, who is

1
2 wonderful and my good friend Julissa Ferreras, who 3 spear-headed it through the Finance Committee. Thank 4 you all very much. I vote aye.

5 COMMITTEE CLERK: Speaker Mark-Viverito.

6 KADESHA BENOIT: Speaker Mark-Viverito
7 votes aye.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Congratulations
9 Council Member Ignizio. All items on today's General 10 Order Calendar were adopted by a vote of 48 in the 11 affirmative, 0 in the negative and 0 abstentions,
12 with the exception of Intro 0689-A, which was adopted
13 by a vote of 46 in the affirmative, 2 in the negative
14 and 0 abstentions and Intro 0690-A, which was adopted 15 by a vote of 46 in the affirmative, 2 negative and 0 16 abstentions and Revised Land Use Call-Ups were 17 adopted by a vote of 48 in the affirmative, 0 in the 18 negative. Introduction and Reading of Bills.

19 KADESHA BENOIT: All bills are referred 20 to committees as indicated on the agenda.

21 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
22 Discussion of Resolutions, beginning with Intro 0520-23 A. Council Member Steve Levin.

24 COUNCIL MEMBER LEVIN: Thank you very 25 much, Madame Public Advocate. My colleagues, I wanna

1
2 call your attention [background comment] and ask for 3 your support on proposed... [crosstalk]

4 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Quiet in the 5 chambers, please.

6 COUNCIL MEMBER LEVIN: proposed 7 Resolution 0520-A. I wanna thank the Speaker and 8 Finance Chair, Julissa Ferreras and the Finance staff 9 for their support of this Resolution calling on the 10 State Assembly to pass Assembly Bill 6272 and the 11 Senate to pass Bill 4490. This would call on the 12 Assembly and Senate and the Governor to sign 13 legislation that would provide a property tax 14 exemption for privately-owned vacant land while such 15 property is being used for the public benefit. As 16 all New Yorkers know, there are many pieces of vacant 17 land throughout our city that is privately owned; not 18 being currently used and that land could be...

19 [background comment] [interpose]

20 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Excuse me Council
21 Member. May we have quiet in the chambers, please; 22 we're still in session. [background comment]

23 COUNCIL MEMBER LEVIN: that land could be 24 effectively used for such public uses as a pop-up 25 park or a community garden or an urban farm, allowing

1
2 public access to that private land that is 3 underutilized. [bell] Often that can be 4 incentivized with a property tax exemption; we are 5 calling on the State Legislature and Governor to 6 enact that legislation forthwith so that there could 7 be public access in our neighborhoods. Thank you.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you,
9 Council Member. Resolution 0563 and Resolution 0635.
10 Council Member Dromm.

11 COUNCIL MEMBER DROMM: Thank you very 12 much. Today the Council will be voting on a package 13 of four Resolutions aimed at protecting and 14 strengthening public education. I am the chief 15 sponsor of two of these Resolutions. Recently 16 Governor Cuomo proposed that so-called failing 17 schools be placed into receivership. By allowing 18 private enterprises to step in and take over, this 19 proposal essentially gives up on our public schools
20 [background comments] at a time when the de Blasio 21 Administration's Renewal Schools Program has barely 22 had a chance to take root. In addition, Governor 23 Cuomo proposed that the cap on the number of charter 24 schools be raised. New York City has not even 25 reached the current charter cap, so without more

1
2 information as to the reason behind and the impact of 3 this proposal we cannot sanction the raising of the 4 cap. Next, Council Member Rosenthal's Resolution
5 calls on the Department of Education to ensure that 6 parents are informed about their right vis-à-vis
7 opting out of high-stakes testing. Council Member
8 Levine's Resolution addresses the biggest impediment 9 to the success of our public schools, equitable 10 funding. New York City students are owed $2.6
11 billion [bell] in funding and I urge my colleagues to 12 support these Resolutions. Thank you very much.

13 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you. On 14 Reso 0563, Council Member Williams.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER WILLIAMS: Thank you. I
16 actually support the rest of these resolutions; I 17 wanted to speak on this one, 'cause I plan on 18 abstaining because I feel -- I felt like voting for 19 this resolution made it seem as if I was opposed to 20 charter schools as of right, which I am not, I am 21 opposed to the way the charter schools have been used 22 in the New York City educational system; I feel that 23 four school locations were problematic; there is not 24 enough transparency in the budget, particularly with 25 the charter schools that exist now and in addition,

1
2 I've been waiting and trying to get an answer to how 3 we're learning from the charter schools and how it's 4 being brought back to the population in general, and 5 I don't believe that any of those questions have been 6 answered, but the position of voting for this right 7 now was a little disconcerting for me and I'm gonna 8 abstain, but I wanted to make sure that why I'm 9 abstaining was on the record. Thank you.

11 Resolution 0577, Council Member Rosenthal.

12 COUNCIL MEMBER ROSENTHAL: Thank you
13 Public Advocate James. As all public school parents 14 know, the week after spring break is the week of 15 testing and whether you like the testing or don't 16 like the testing, you might not know and many parents 17 don't know that there is an option now to opt out of 18 those tests. Information about what the 19 repercussions of opting out of the tests are buried 20 on the Department of Education website. This 21 resolution asks the Department of Education to 22 include in the Parents Bill of Rights and 23 Responsibilities information about opting out. This 24 coming Friday is the last day that parents have to 25 inform their principal that their children will be

1
2 opting out. I would hazard to guess that very few of 3 the, what is it, 2.5 million -- no, that's too high,
4 one million? [background comment] Thank you, one 5 million public school children in New York City, that 6 very few of them know that they have that right.
7 [bell] So I encourage my colleagues to support this 8 resolution and I thank Council Member Dromm for 9 bringing it to the floor.

10 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
11 Resolution 0592, Council Member Mark Levine.

12 COUNCIL MEMBER LEVINE: Thank you Madame
13 Public Advocate. Pleased to be sponsoring Reso 0592 14 which calls on the State to implement its 15 constitutionally mandated and court ordered 16 obligation to fully fund our school system here in 17 New York City and I am deeply disappointed that in a 18 year in which our state budget was in surplus, is in 19 surplus, in a year in which we had a $5 billion 20 windfall from a bank settlement, preliminary reports
21 coming out of Albany indicate that while they found 22 the money to give a tax exemption to people buying 23 yachts in New York State they did not find the money
24 to fully fund our schools to live up to the court 25 mandated obligation which is short changing our

1
2 students $2.6 billion a year. So I will be hoping 3 for a last-minute miracle as the budget approaches 4 final agreement tonight, but either way I know that 5 colleagues will join me in continuing to fight as 6 long it takes to win our city's fair share of 7 resources. Thank you.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Speaking on 9 Resolution 0563, Council Member Cornegy.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER CORNEGY: Thank you Madame
11 Public Advocate. I've often mentioned my family here 12 on the floor and my vote on 0563 is anchored in my 13 experience as a father of six unique children who 14 demonstrate the importance of giving families access 15 to a wide range of educational options. My eldest 16 daughter is in a gifted and talented program outside 17 of my home district, my son who has an IEP attends K-18 12 public school in South Brooklyn and my three 19 youngest children attend charter school in Bedford-20 Stuyvesant. Choice has been critical to us as a 21 family and so my goal as an elected official is to 22 increase the high quality options available to 23 families in my district. Charters may be less 24 necessary in Central Brooklyn if there was parity in 25 the distribution of gifted and talented programs

2 across the city; sadly this is far from the case.
3 Today there are no gifted and talented programs in 4 District 16 and a dozen in District 21; this lack of 5 equity contributes to the concentration of poverty in 6 our local public schools as parents who have means 7 and knowledge send their children to private schools 8 or gifted and talented programs in other 9 neighborhoods. Charters aren't perfect, they must be 10 held to high educational standards and work to 11 improve their services to... [crosstalk]

12 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
13 please bring your comments to a close.

14 COUNCIL MEMBER CORNEGY: children with 15 limited English proficiency, they're a proven route 16 to increasing educational opportunity and quality in 17 my district... [crosstalk]

18 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
19 please...

20 COUNCIL MEMBER CORNEGY: therefore my 21 vote on the resolution is to maintain the charter is 22 no.

23 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you. Any 24 other members seeking to speak on any other 25 resolutions before the vote? And now to the vote.

1
2 Resolution 0521-A, an amended resolution calling on 3 the New York State Assembly to pass Assembly 6272, 4 the New York State Senate to pass Senate 4490 and the 5 Governor to sign such legislation which would provide 6 property tax exemption for privately-owned vacant 7 land while such property is being used for the public
8 benefit. All of those in favor say aye.

9 [collective aye]

10 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: All of those
11 opposed? Any abstentions? The ayes have it.

12 Resolution 0653, a resolution calling up 13 on the New York State Legislature to reject any 14 attempt to raise the cap on the number of charter 15 schools. All those in favor say aye.

16 [collective aye]

17 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: All of those 18 opposed?

19 [collective no]

20 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Any abstentions?
21 [background comment] The ayes have it. Those 22 members who wish to record their votes, please 23 approach the desk.

24 Resolution 0577, a resolution calling
25 upon the Department of Education to amend its Parents

1
2 Bill of Rights and Responsibilities to include
3 information about opting out of high school testing 4 and distribute this document at the beginning of 5 every school year to every family in every grade.

6 All of those in favor say aye.

7 [collective aye]

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: All of those
9 opposed? Any abstentions? The ayes have it.

10 Resolution 0592, a resolution calling
11 upon the New York State Legislature to fully 12 implement the education funding requirements for New 13 York City resulting from the Campaign for Fiscal 14 Equity v the State of New York case. All of those in 15 favor say aye.

16 [collective aye]

17 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: All of those 18 opposed? Any abstentions?

19 And Preconsidered Resolution 0635, a
20 resolution calling upon the New York State
21 Legislature to eliminate the Governor's receivership 22 proposal in the Executive Budget for New York City.

23 All of those in favor say aye.

24 [collective aye]

1
2 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: All of those
3 opposed? Any abstentions? The ayes have it.
4 [background comment] Please keep it down. And now
5 General Discussion. And members, please be mindful 6 that the Speaker's birthday cake awaits us.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member
9 Johnson.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER JOHNSON: Thank you Madame
11 Public Advocate. I rise today to discuss 12 Introduction 0731. Following instances of buildings 13 prohibiting rent stabilized tenants from accessing 14 gyms, playrooms, pools and other building amenities, 15 today I'm introducing legislation that would require 16 developers and building managers to provide equal 17 access to such facilities for all residents. All New 18 Yorkers should be treated with dignity and respect; 19 discriminating against tenants because they occupy 20 rent-stabilized units is contrary to the values of 21 New York City. Developers cannot deny equal access 22 to an amenity on the basis of race, gender, national 23 origin or sexual orientation and they should not be 24 able to deny access to a person simply because he or 25 she occupies a rent-stabilized apartment. This

1
2 legislation would address this critical issue and 3 prevent New Yorkers from being discriminated against 4 within their own homes. I thank you, Madame Public 5 Advocate and Council Members Mark Levine, Helen 6 Rosenthal, Ritchie Torres and Antonio Reynoso for co-7 sponsoring this important legislation and I urge my 8 colleagues to support it today.

9 I also wanna discuss Introduction 0730.
10 As we know, it's about school safety; as we know,
11 African-American, Latino, LGBT and special education
12 students are significantly more likely to face 13 discipline than their peers, these increased out of 14 class time and in-school arrest rates in turn 15 severely decrease their likelihood of graduating high 16 school. Last month's announced changes to the DOE's...
17 [background comments]

18 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.

19 COUNCIL MEMBER JOHNSON: Last month's 20 announced changes to the DOE's Disciplinary Code are 21 a good step in the right direction, aimed at 22 decreasing unnecessary suspensions, recognizing the 23 adverse effects of such punishments and fairly 24 enhancing safety at schools citywide. And I'd like 25 to thank Chancellor Farina, the NYPD, Mayor de Blasio

1
2 and his Office of Criminal Justice, as well as my 3 colleagues on the Council, particular Danny Dromm, 4 for their hard work and dedication to achieve these 5 reforms, but there is more to do; we must not rest 6 until we bring an end to suspensions for extremely 7 minor infractions [background comment] and we should 8 focus on positive interventions; this is why my 9 colleague, Public Safety Committee Chair Vanessa
10 Gibson and I [background comment] have been working 11 closely on legislation that would address many of 12 these issues. [background comment] This bill seeks 13 to have multiple suspensions of same student use of 14 restraints, introduction of metal detectors and metal 15 [bell] protectors left in place after requests to 16 remove them..

17 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
18 please bring your comments to a close.

19 COUNCIL MEMBER JOHNSON: we need
20 statistics. I look forward to working with everyone 21 here to ensure that all of our students have a safe, 22 supportive environment in which to learn. Thank you 23 Madame Public Advocated.

24 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
25 Council Member Eric Ulrich to vote.

1
2 COUNCIL MEMBER ULRICH: Thank you Madame
3 Public Advocate. I ask for unanimous consent to vote
4 on all items on the Land Use Calendar and all General 5 Orders.

6 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Yes.

7 COUNCIL MEMBER ULRICH: I vote aye on all 8 with the exception of Intro 0689-A and 0690-A in 9 which I abstain.

10 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Any resolutions...
11 [interpose]

12 COUNCIL MEMBER ULRICH: I vote aye on 13 all, with the exception of five... what is it, the...
14 [background comments] the charter school one. I
15 wanna raise the cap, so [laughter] surprise. Anyway, 16 so I'm voting against that, but on the rest of them I 17 vote in favor. Thank you.

18 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you Council
19 Member. Council Member Deutsch.

20 COUNCIL MEMBER DEUTSCH: Thank you Public 21 Advocate. Ten days ago our city suffered an 22 unspeakable loss; seven young children, seven 23 brothers and sisters perished in a tragic fire in my 24 district. Two survivors, a mother and 15-year-old 25 daughter remain hospitalized after escaping from

1
2 their burning home. I wanna take this opportunity to 3 express my gratitude to our Speaker, Melissa Mark-4 Viverito and to the Public Advocate, as well as to my 5 fellow Council Members for your unwavering support
6 and offers of assistance. This heartbreaking tragedy 7 has left a community in shock and in grief as well as 8 our city. Thank you all for standing together with 9 us as we continue to pray for the recovery of the two 10 surviving victims. As we begin to heal from this 11 painful loss and attempting to turn our pain into 12 purpose, I would also like to express my condolences 13 for the two people that died in the East Village fire 14 last week in Council Member Mendez's district and 15 thank the heroic members of the Fire Department and 16 the NYPD for all that they do. Thank you so much.

17 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: And we also want
18 to thank Dr. Norman Blumenthal and the OHEL
19 organization. Council Member Williams.

20 COUNCIL MEMBER WILLIAMS: Thank you.
21 First I just want to acknowledge and congratulate 22 Inspector General Uri for releasing his first report 23 yesterday. Of course there is a lot that we are 24 hoping that the IG's office will do; all of that of 25 course is not in this initial report or in the

1
2 initial chokehold report that he did, but it is the 3 first year and we're looking forward to... as we move 4 forward, seeing more and more things happening with 5 that office; I think Council Member Lander and I both 6 said that it wasn't gonna be the answer, it was gonna 7 be a continuing conversation. I am waiting however 8 to see what comes out of the NYPD's response, which 9 is due on April 12th. One of the very good things
10 that are part of that law is that although the IG 11 does not have the power to make any changes, at least 12 in minimum the NYPD has to respond; there were four 13 fairly good recommendations from the chokehold report
14 and I'm looking forward to seeing the NYPD's response 15 to them. I'd like to call attention to, my 16 colleagues to two bills, a resolution honoring the 17 late Horace Morancie, a long-time Caribbean activist 18 who joined the ancestors Wednesday, February 4th; he 19 was 85 years old; he was born in Trinidad and Tobago, 20 served as Director of Central Brooklyn Model Cities, 21 a massive and multi-million dollar 1960-70's anti-22 poverty program; he also is very well-known in 23 developing the city's first large steel band.

24 I'd also like to call attention to 25 Resolution 0640, a resolution recognizing as Gun

1
2 Violence Awareness Month in New York City. Last June 3 we did it for the first time; we have to do it again 4 every successive June, so I ask all my colleagues to 5 sign up for the resolution for this June to be Gun
6 Violence Awareness Month; we will have a whole host 7 of activities happening throughout the city and we 8 will be providing the orange bands I'm sure again
9 this year. Thank you.

10 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.

11 Council Member Kallos.

12 COUNCIL MEMBER KALLOS: Today I rise to 13 introduce three pieces of legislation. Introduction
14 0734, the Back to Work bill, with Council Member 15 Cumbo and Cornegy, helps New York City parents
16 seeking to return to the workforce. Twenty-seven 17 percent of women and 10 percent of men leave their 18 jobs to care for their families; of these, 31 percent 19 of the mothers said it hurt their careers, compared 20 with 18 percent of the men. Our bill expands
21 Workforce One training and resources to help bridge 22 this gap. I want to thank Planned Parenthood of New 23 York City, Women's City Club, Lower East Side Girls 24 Club, NARAL Pro-Choice, New York Communities for 25

2 Change, NYLAG and A Better Balance for supporting 3 this bill and hope you'll sign on.

4 Introduction 0732, the second bill, is 5 designed to empower our communities by making 6 available urban planning professionals to each of our 7 city's 59 Community Boards and we must do what is in 8 our power to help boards speak for their communities, 9 especially in the age of over-development and luxury 10 superscrapers.

11 Introduction 0733, the third bill, makes 12 New York City construction greener by requiring a 13 percentage of concrete to consist of recycled 14 materials. Each year in New York City miles of 15 concrete sidewalks and roadways are built or replaced 16 using thousands of tons of concrete; we have the 17 capability to divert much of the material from our 18 landfills by reusing it for new construction. Thank 19 you and please sign on.

20 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
21 Council Member Crowley.

22 COUNCIL MEMBER CROWLEY: Thank you Madame
23 Public Advocate. Just over one year ago I stood in 24 these very chambers and I voted for a package of rule 25 reforms. As a Council Member it was one of the

1
2 proudest days that I could remember. We voted for 3 reforms that would ensure this body would be a 4 member-driven body and that not one person could 5 stand in the way of democracy. This past November I 6 introduced Resolution 0474, which calls for parity in 7 pension disability benefits for all New York City
8 police officers and firefighters. Presently there 9 are 36 co-sponsors who joined me in supporting this 10 resolution for a total number of 37 Council Members.
11 This resolution has sustained a super majority for 12 more than 60 days, yet no hearing has been scheduled; 13 there's not reasonable explanation as to why a 14 hearing has not been scheduled. Far too many days 15 have passed during this time; the Council has been 16 failing the democratic process. The complete 17 disregard for the Council's rules impedes the 18 progress of important legislation. Pursuant to 19 Council Super Majority Rule 7110, I call for a public 20 hearing to be scheduled immediately.

21 On a different note, I'd like to thank 22 Council Member, the Co-Chair of the Women's Caucus
23 and all the 15 members who make up the Women's Caucus 24 in inviting a new generation of women leaders to the 25 chambers, [interpose, cheers] I'd like recognize my

1
2 two Council Members, [applause] Noor Ismail, who's a
3 12th grader from the Young Women's Leadership School
4 of Astoria and Tiffany Arizaga, who is a 12th grader 5 from Grover Cleveland High School, both live in my 6 districts and both are leaders in their respective 7 schools. Thank you.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you Council
9 Member; congratulations to your leaders. Council 10 Member Espinal.

11 COUNCIL MEMBER ESPINAL: Thank you Madame
12 Public Advocate. Today I'll be introducing a pro-13 business bill with Council Member Cornegy and the 14 birthday girl, Speaker Melissa Mark-Viverito, that 15 would require DCA and the Department of Small 16 Business Services to hold biannual business education 17 events in two different venues throughout the five 18 boroughs. For many years business owners in our city 19 have complained that some of the rules and 20 regulations pertaining to them are confusing and 21 unfair. The business education events require, under 22 Intro 0726, will help clarify some of this confusion
23 by providing businesses with relevant and up-to-date
24 information regarding the laws, rules and regulations
25 enforced by DCA and cover such topics as consumer

1
2 protections, truth in pricing and licensing schemes.
3 I ask my colleagues to please support us in this 4 effort by co-sponsoring the bill. And in spirit of 5 biannual reports, it's six months since Ovarian 6 Cancer Awareness Month; [background comments] just 7 wanna remind everyone to please tell every amazing
8 lady in your life about the signs and symptoms; I'm 9 working closely with this group named Teal and helped 10 on the PSA to do just that. So thank you everyone.
11 Thank you, Public Advocate.

12 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you Council
13 Member. Quiet in the chambers please. Quiet in the 14 chambers. Council Member Gibson.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER GIBSON: Thank you very 16 much Madame Public Advocate. I'd like to rise today
17 and call attention to Intro 0730, along with Council 18 Member Johnson, that we are introducing today, which 19 focuses on making the necessary and needed amendments 20 to the Student Safety Act which was passed by this 21 Council in 2011 and truly, this bill would required
22 additional transparency and accountability on the use
23 of metal detectors and restraints in our schools, EMS
24 calls and multiple suspensions of the same students 25 and also requires the number of complaints that are

1
2 made against school safety agents. Truly this 3 legislation is a step in the right direction, along 4 with a number of other initiatives that have been 5 announced by the DOE and the NYPD school safety. The 6 conversations must be truly creative and innovative 7 in our approach to focus less on detention and more 8 on prevention. Children as young as 5 years old are 9 handcuffed in our school system and it is 10 unacceptable; we wanna create a safe environment for 11 our children where they do not feel like they're in 12 prison while they're in school, so I ask all of my 13 colleagues to please consider joining us in Intro
14 0730. I wanna thank Council Member Johnson and Chair 15 of Education, Council Member Dromm for their 16 leadership and also today I wanna join with my 17 distinctive women in the Women's Caucus, including 18 our Speaker and introducing my junior Council Members 19 for this afternoon, Miss Vanessa Ochampong [sp?], who 20 is a sophomore at the Beacon School in Manhattan, as 21 well as Alondra Perez, who is a freshman at Bronx
22 Community College; truly proud of these young ladies, 23 they serve as interns right now in my district office 24 in the Bronx and I'm so proud that god has brought 25 them to me because it is my responsibility to open

1
2 doors for other young women as someone has opened a 3 door for me. So I thank them for being here, they 4 will continue to be with me and working in my office 5 because I wanna continue to create opportunities for 6 all of our sisters. Thank you Madame Public 7 Advocate.

8 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you and we 9 welcome the young ladies. Council Member Mark 10 Levine.

11 COUNCIL MEMBER LEVINE: Thank you Madame
12 Public Advocate. I am pleased to call my colleagues'
13 attention to Intro No. -- I wanna get this right -- 14 0736, which I'm co-sponsoring with our Council
15 Speaker, which will create our city's first ever 16 Office of the Civil Justice Advocate. For years
17 we've had an Office of a Criminal Justice Advocate 18 and of course in criminal court you have the right to 19 an attorney no matter how rich or poor you are. The 20 same can't be said, sadly, about civil court, where 21 people facing life-altering judgments are forced to 22 fend for themselves if they don't have the money to 23 pay for an attorney; this could be a tenant facing 24 eviction, an immigrant facing deportation, a parent
25 facing the loss of custody of their children. I

1
2 believe it is profoundly unfair for anyone to have to 3 enter through a judicial proceeding of this magnitude
4 without the benefit of an attorney and this Council 5 has been at the forefront of changing that,
6 allocating money for attorneys for unaccompanied 7 minors facing deportation hearings and more than 8 doubling the resources we're allocating towards 9 providing attorneys for tenants in housing court.
10 The creation of this office will help build the 11 infrastructure to take this even further by providing 12 a permanent source of advice for the Mayor, 13 coordinating with the agencies, reporting annually to 14 this body on our progress made towards full 15 representation in housing court and most importantly, 16 creating a five-year plan to serving the full civil 17 justice needs of low-income New Yorkers.

18 I also wanna call your attention to Reso
19 -- excuse me -- 0730... forgive me, forgive me, my time 20 is running -- 0738, which would be believe 21 dramatically improve the safety of those working on 22 gas pipelines. This has been in the works for a 23 year; sadly relevant again after last week's tragedy; 24 I'm pleased to be co-sponsoring this reso with my 25 colleague, Council Member Crowley, which will require

1
2 more robust certification for [bell] plumbers working 3 on gas pipelines. Thank you.

4 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you. Quiet
5 in the chambers. Council Member Garodnick.

6 COUNCIL MEMBER GARODNICK: Thank you. I
7 rise today to speak about the hateful law that we saw 8 passed in Indiana this past week; the law which 9 allows corporations and businesses to discriminate 10 against members of the LGBTQ community under the 11 guise of religious freedom aims to turn back the 12 clock on what we have accomplished in the fight for 13 equality. We have sadly grown used to political 14 leaders fighting against and voting against basic 15 equal rights for gay people, but the aim to do it 16 under the auspices of religious freedom is a new and 17 particularly offensive tactic. We should all be free 18 to worship however we choose and that is a right that 19 we hold dear, but those in Indiana who proposed this 20 bill are not facing persecution. The goal of this 21 bill has been clear from the start, to create a 22 pathway for legal discrimination against the LGBTQ 23 community, and since this law was passed we have seen 24 a number of artists, companies and even other state 25 and local governments speak out and boycott Indiana;

1
2 we have seen the leaders of Connecticut, Portland, 3 San Francisco, Seattle and the State of Washington
4 all ban state- or city-funded travel to Indiana; that 5 is a small, but important step to show where they 6 stand and I am pleased that moments ago New York 7 Governor Cuomo signed an Executive Order doing the 8 same here in New York. We should take stock and use
9 New York City's additional leverage to join New York
10 State and so many others in taking a stand against 11 invidious discrimination in Indiana and wherever we 12 find it. New York has long been a leader in the 13 fight for LGBTQ civil rights; we are the place of 14 stonewall. In 2011, our state was the first in which 15 a republican-held legislature passed a marriage 16 equality bill; at the same time more than doubling 17 the number of people who lived in a state where the 18 freedom to marry was granted to all, when the kind of 19 outright discrimination we see in Indiana is 20 happening [bell] -- my last line, Madame Public 21 Advocate, and we'll see if it's a good one -- New 22 York is right to join so many other cities and states 23 in the country and remain out front in the fight.
24 Thank you... [crosstalk]

1
2 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
3 Council Member Barron.

4 COUNCIL MEMBER BARRON: Thank you Madame 5 Public Advocate. I rise to call attention to the 6 recent passing of one of the greats, in terms of 7 studying African-American history and Dr. Ben-8 Jochannan, who passed recently.

9 And in recognition of Women's History
10 Month, just wanna give a brief bio of another one of 11 my heroes, Fannie Lou Hamer, born in 1917 in 12 Louisville, Mississippi in an all-black town, the 13 20th of 20 children, was limited to an elementary 14 school education, but left sharecropping, had her own 15 farm, but those who were jealous of her and those who 16 did not want to see her succeed, those other whites 17 in that community poisoned the feed and killed the 18 stock, so she had to return to sharecropping. During 19 the freedom summer she became an outspoken traveler 20 with SNCC, she fought for the right to register to 21 vote and said that she was traveling to unbrainwash 22 people as to the limitations of what was happening.
23 She challenged the seating of the Mississippi
24 delegation on the basis that they did not have a 25 representative democratic body. Her words were so

1
2 powerful and so impactful that LBJ, in an attempt to 3 undermine her, called an impromptu conference and all 4 the media rushed to cover what it was that he was 5 saying. He did offer a compromise and said that they 6 could have two seats that would be at large seats 7 with no voting power; that compromise was accepted by 8 many, including Martin Luther King, but Fannie Lou 9 Hamer said, "You mean to tell me..." and Vice President 10 Nominee Humphrey was being nominated and said it was 11 important for him to have that position, that she 12 accept that compromise -- "You mean to tell me that 13 your position is more important than 400 black lives?
14 Senator Humphrey, I know lots of people in 15 Mississippi who lost their jobs trying to register to 16 vote; I had to leave the plantation, so if you lose 17 this job" [bell] "of Vice President because you do 18 what's right, because you help the Mississippi 19 Freedom Democratic Party, then everything will be 20 alright 'cause god will take care of you..."
21 [crosstalk]

22 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
23 could you bring your comments to a close?

24 COUNCIL MEMBER BARRON: Yes. "But if you 25 take this nomination this way, then you will never be

1
2 able to do any good for civil rights, for poor
3 people, for peace or any of those things you talk 4 about. We didn't come all this way for just two 5 seats." Thank you.

7 Cumbo.

8 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: Thank you. I just 9 wanna say I am very pleased on this last day of 10 Women's History Month and the new beginning that it
11 will create; I'm just so very pleased of Council 12 Members Mealy and Council Member Crowley, the 13 opportunity to celebrate Women's History Month 14 yesterday was incredible and the women energy that 15 was brought here in the City Council was amazing and 16 I'm so pleased that all of my colleagues, both male 17 and female, were here to celebrate that great day and 18 also we just recently came off of a luncheon today 19 for many of the, as I say, Council Members in 20 training. We had a lovely lunch and I hope that so 21 many of the young women here were inspired because I 22 certainly was by the story of each of my colleagues 23 and how they came to the position to sit in the seats
24 they are in today. So today's been a wonderful day, 25 it's been an incredible month and I'm so pleased that

1
2 so many of my colleagues were here for this. And I'm 3 very pleased today that my Council Member in training
4 who's so dynamic, her name is Shanelle [sp?] Daley
5 [sp?]; she is a senior and she's actually finished 6 because she's so brilliant, but she's taking the next 7 six months to actually work; she is a student at WEB
8 Dubois; she wants to go to college and major in hotel 9 management and she's quite personable, quite 10 fantastic and I know that she will be successful in 11 all of her endeavors. I am very excited to bring 12 attention to Intro 0734 with Council Member Ben 13 Kallos and Council Member Robert Cornegy, the Back to 14 Work Bill; this is going to be incredible; with women 15 representing more than half of our city's population, 16 they often find themselves at a greater disadvantage
17 when returning to the workforce after an extended 18 period of absence; we can't just continue to think 19 that women taking a leave of absence that they are 20 automatically welcomed back into the workplace with 21 all the skills that they need and this is an 22 incredible opportunity for us as colleagues to give 23 women and men who have taken family leave an 24 opportunity to get back into the workplace. I'm also 25 very proud to bring to your attention Resolution 0634

1
2 about Jazz Appreciation Month, from Louis Armstrong
3 and Miles Davis to Duke Ellington, [bell] Max Roach
4 and Randy Weston, I am proud to bring to.. [crosstalk]

5 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
6 bring your comments to a close.

7 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: the City Council..
8 I most certainly will..

9 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: to make April Jazz
11 Appreciation Month in homage to all of these artists
12 who deserve recognition for their invaluable
13 contributions to our cultural identity.. [crosstalk]

14 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.

15 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: Thank you so very 16 much.

18 Member. Council Member Chin.

19 COUNCIL MEMBER CHIN: Thank you Madame 20 Public Advocate. I would like to introduce my 21 Council Member for the day, Miss Ashley Stewart; 22 she's an 8th grader at the Castle Middle School where 23 she is a peer leader with the middle school success
24 center and she is gonna be talking about Intro 0724.

1
2 ASHLEY STEWART: Good afternoon. I would 3 like to draw my colleagues' attention to Intro 0724,
4 which I am introducing with Council Member Cornegy
5 and our Speaker. Intro 0724 would create an office 6 within Small Business Services that would be able to 7 take complaints from small businesses about agency
8 inspections, language access and customer service.
9 This office would also be able to advocate on behalf 10 of small businesses to make recommendations regarding 11 policies that effect small businesses. In my office 12 we often work with small businesses to get their 13 cases addressed in a fair manner at hearings; many of 14 them have complained to us about inspections that are 15 unfair and we have been able to get fines dismissed.
16 This office would help small businesses by giving 17 them an office within city government that can speak 18 for them and look into matters on their behalf. I 19 hope my colleagues will join us in supporting this 20 legislation which is just one step to making our city 21 more small business friendly.

22 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you; you
23 were great. Council Member Mealy.

24 COUNCIL MEMBER MEALY: I rise -- I just 25 wanna concur with my colleague, Laurie Cumbo and my

1
2 co-leader, Elizabeth Crowley for a wonderful day
3 yesterday with the Her Story event and remember women 4 every day as our Her Story and every second we make 5 history also for doing so many things at one time.
6 And I just wanna let our Council Member and our 7 Speaker, say happy and blessed birthday, wish you
8 many, many more and I just wanna introduce my Council 9 Member, Kim Edwards from Brooklyn School of 10 Technology High School and she wants to be the first 11 African-American Supreme Court Justice and I would 12 like to yield my remaining time to her. Thank you.

13 KIM EDWARDS: Good evening; I am Kim 14 Edwards, the Junior Member [background comments] of 15 Council Member Mealy and I would also like to thank 16 all of the Council and Committee Members of part of 17 the Women's Caucus for providing me with this 18 opportunity to be here and I would also like to 19 comment on the testing of students. I agree with the 20 resolution to give parents the opportunity to speak 21 with their children on opting out of testing, because 22 not many families are aware of this and as a high 23 school student, and I might be speaking on behalf of 24 the other junior committee members as well, that 25 testing is extremely stressful and difficult and as a

1
2 student it shouldn't hold as my representation or any 3 other student's representation in looking for higher 4 learning. Thank you.

5 [background comments]

6 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you, judge,
7 and when you become a judge you can declare it
8 unconstitutional. [cheers, applause] Council Member 9 Mendez.

10 COUNCIL MEMBER MENDEZ: Thank you Madame 11 Public Advocate. I wanted to thank you and the 12 Speaker for being in my district last week and Madame 13 Speaker, thank you for spending a couple of days with 14 me, giving me advice, particularly since you went 15 through this a year ago. I can't speak highly enough 16 of your staff and in particular, Walter Algarin, who 17 was incredible [background comments] throughout this 18 whole ordeal and this weekend and still is there in 19 my district doing work.

20 I want to bring to light what has 21 happened because this explosion, which appears, 22 apparently may be the reckless work of a few 23 individuals, has led to 66 families being homeless, 24 18 of which do not have a building to return to and 25 caused the loss of life of two innocent young men who

1
2 were just doing what young men do; one was working 3 and the other one was on a lunch date on his way back 4 to work. It is a real tragedy and I have been very 5 supported by my colleagues, you all have called me, 6 texted me, and even when I didn't ask for help, my 7 colleagues sent some anyway; I showed up to the 8 emergency center to see some of Margaret's staff 9 there in case translation was needed, so Margaret,
10 thank you, and Corey Johnson sent his chief of staff 11 to my district office to help out for a while. So to 12 all of my colleagues, from the bottom of my heart, 13 thank you and we still have a way to go in this 14 recovery and I want you all, when we reopen, to come 15 and join me and my district, 'cause there are about 16 60 businesses that have not been able to do business 17 because of this tragedy. Thank you very much.

19 Member. Council Member Lander.

20 COUNCIL MEMBER LANDER: Thank you Madame
21 Public Advocate and thank you Council Member Mendez 22 for those words.

23 First I just wanna echo what Council
24 Member Williams said about the first annual report
25 being released today by the Office of the Inspector

1
2 General and urge people to keep your eye out on April
3 12th for when the NYPD's response to the chokehold
4 report is due. As you may recall, that report 5 identified the fact that even those relatively small 6 number of complaints from CCRB of excessive use of 7 force, which CCRB substantiates, when they were 8 referred in the prior administration of the 9 Commissioner in the vast majority of cases were 10 either dismissed or given some lesser sentence and a 11 set of recommendations were made to the NYPD and it
12 will be important to watch how the NYPD Commissioner 13 responds to the Inspector General's report, I'm 14 hopeful that in large part if not in total they will 15 adopt those recommendations, but it's important this 16 Council pass that law; it'll be important for us to 17 watch it.

18                   Second, I wanna thank Council Members
19 Gibson and Johnson for the introduction of the School
20 Safety Act; we had a very troubling incident around 21 school safety in my district at Park Slope Collegiate 22 at John Jay High School last Thursday, which some of 23 you may have seen where a young entering the school 24 with simply a paperclip, a safety pin to hold his 25 glasses together set off the metal detector and a

1
2 really deeply troubling incident ensued; I have 3 reached out to the Commissioner's office and been 4 assured that that incident has been referred for 5 investigation to the CCRB, to the Internal Affairs 6 Bureau and to the Investigative Division of the 7 School Safety Division and will be following up to 8 make sure that there's a real thorough investigation.
9 But it shows why we need to get the metal detectors
10 out of John Jay High School; treating our young 11 people, our high school students as though they're 12 headed for prison and not for college too often 13 becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy; that's not 14 something we can do by Local Law, sadly, but I will 15 be advocating at John Jay High School, but I do
16 appreciate what Council Members Gibson and Johnson 17 are doing to help make sure we have more 18 transparency.

19           And finally, I'm modeling the PBNYC tote
20 bag and I just wanna make sure everybody knows that 21 Participatory Budgeting Vote Week in New York City
22 begins prior to our next Stated, April 12-19 in 24
23 districts across the city... [crosstalk]

24           PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you Council
25 Member.

1
2 COUNCIL MEMBER LANDER: something like
3 25,000... [crosstalk]

4 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Can you bring 5 your comments to a close?

6 COUNCIL MEMBER LANDER: people are gonna
7 come out to vote. If you haven't already...
8 [background comments] exactly, it's also a renewable 9 bag, if you haven't already gone online to the 10 Council's website to figure out whether you're voting 11 in your district and pledge to vote, please do.

12 Thank you very much... [crosstalk]

13 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member,
14 bring your comments to a close. Thank you so much.
15 Council Member Cornegy.

16 COUNCIL MEMBER CORNEGY: Thank you Madame
17 Public Advocate. City Council is often described as 18 a collegial body and it's true; we tend to get along 19 very well because we all share a commitment to public 20 service and a passionate love for the specific 21 neighborhoods we represent, we're in close contact 22 with our constituents; sometimes unbelievable close, 23 as they catch us on the block in shops, or for me, 24 when I drop my children off at school. We hear from 25 individuals and also from our local nonprofits,

1 public institutions and of course our small 2 businesses. Like all New Yorkers, we frequent small 3 businesses in our communities and they play a major 4 role in our daily lives. We also deal with them as 5 constituents who approach our offices for help, so it
6 was no surprise that many of my colleagues have ideas
7 for how to assist small businesses that are grounded 8 in their experiences in government and small business 9 supporters. It's a pleasure to chair the Small 10 Business Committee in the Council with this much 11 creativity and dedication. My partners in a 12 legislative package being introduced today include of 13 course my Speaker and birthday girl, Speaker Mark-14 Viverito, who highlighted several of these ideas in 15 her State of the City Address and also Council 16 Members Margaret Chin, Rafael Espinal and Vincent 17 Gentile. The proposal and summary relate to the 18 creation of a small business advocate within SBS, an 19 analysis of business citations dismissed by the 20 Department of Consumer Affairs Tribunal, an expansion
21 of the Department of Consumer Affairs Business
22 Education events to locations across the five 23 boroughs and finally, a bill I sponsored to ensure 24 that the City customer service training [background 25

1
2 comments] for inspectors is informed by feedback by 3 businesses who of course have the closest and most 4 relevant perspective. I look forward to a robust 5 conversation with the administration about these 6 proposals and to working with all of my colleagues to 7 advance them and future proposals to support the 8 small businesses that make New York City great. I 9 invite small businesses to continue tweeting at 10 #nyccsmallbus and emailing their struggles with 11 landlord tenant issues to Cornegysmallbus@gmail.com
12 and I hope that many of you will join us by signing 13 on a co-sponsors today and/or in the days to come.
14 Thank you.

15 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
16 Council Member Richards.

17 COUNCIL MEMBER RICHARDS: Good afternoon
18 colleagues. Today I rise to ask you to support Intro
19 No. 0739, being introduced by Council Member Lancman
20 and I. This bill creates the position of a solar 21 ombudsperson within the New York City Department of 22 Buildings to respond to comments, questions and 23 complaints about solar power systems. As New York 24 City fulfills its commitment to ensuring that our 25 buildings operate more efficiently and move into the

1
2 use of renewable emergency sources, such as solar 3 power, it is critical that our agencies be equipped 4 with the right administrative infrastructure to 5 address the challenges that the building owners and 6 operators of today are faced with. I look forward to 7 your support as we transition into an even greener 8 city powered by renewable energies. Thank you.

9 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you.
10 Council Member Rose.

11 COUNCIL MEMBER ROSE: Thank you Madame 12 Public Advocate. My colleagues, I rise today not to 13 discuss an intro or legislation, but to acknowledge 14 the fantastic and phenomenal young women that we had 15 the pleasure of meeting here today and I would be 16 remiss if I did not discuss my particular and 17 introduce my Council Member for the day, who is 18 Destiny Moe [sp?], who is a young, courageous woman 19 when last year there was a fire, an all-hands fire 20 across the street from her home and the father of a 21 young infant had to throw his children out of the 22 burning building, Destiny and her family went to 23 their aid, provided comfort and warmth and everything 24 for not only the victims of the fire, but the 25 firemen, the police officers and the Council Member

1
2 who came to the area. Destiny is a junior at 3 Tottenville High School and much like her name, she 4 is destined for success and I just wanna say to 5 Destiny and all of the young ladies here that girls 6 rock and that there really is a lot of power in their 7 futures and so I just wanted this Council to meet
8 Destiny Moe.

9 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you. Thank
10 you Destiny for all you have done. And now Council 11 Member Crowley for an introduction.

12 COUNCIL MEMBER CROWLEY: Thank you Madame
13 Public Advocate. Noor Ismail will say hello first; 14 she is a young Council Member from Young Women's 15 Leadership School in Astoria.

16 NOOR ISMAIL: Hello, I would like to 17 thank the Women's Caucus and City Council for this 18 inspiring opportunity. I would like to take this 19 time to talk about Resolution 0577, about amending 20 the parents' bill, resolution for opting out high 21 stakes testing. I know that my younger siblings are 22 both in elementary school at Queens and they would 23 really benefit by the passing of this bill because 24 having testing after spring break is just kind of 25 difficult. Again, as the student body president at

1
2 the Young Woman's Leadership School of Astoria, I 3 would like to thank you and I hope that I could 4 continue leading at whichever university I attend, as 5 well as the City Council one day. Thank you.

6 COUNCIL MEMBER CROWLEY: And then Tiffany
7 Arizaga, who is from Grover Cleveland High School, 8 young Council Member for a day.

9 TIFFANY ARIZAGA: Hello. I would like to 10 thank the Women's Caucus for having us today and 11 sharing their truly inspiring stories with us. They 12 have helped us learn so much more about government 13 and becoming powerful women, so thank you very much 14 for that. I would love to come back and visit.
15 Thank you.

16 [applause]

17 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Council Member
18 Mendez for introduction.

19 COUNCIL MEMBER MENDEZ: Thank you. I
20 wanna introduce my Council Member for the day, Jenna 21 Rotero [sp?]; she attends a school in my district and 22 coincidentally happened to live in Margaret's 23 district and Margaret chose a Council Member for a 24 day who lives in my district but goes to a school in 25 her district, so we kind of did a swap of a sort, but

1
2 we're both very proud of our junior Council Members 3 and without further delay, Jenna, if you'd like to 4 say a few words.

5 JENNA ROTERO: Yes, I would just like to 6 thank everyone for this opportunity. I would also 7 like to comment on Resolution 0577. In my school I 8 have the opportunity to take exhibitions, which would 9 be around a 15-page paper rather than take 10 standardized testing and while I also have taken 11 standardized testing and I have to say that taking a 12 project or doing a test is actually a better 13 reflection of a student than a test that you're going 14 to take in four hours rather than a reflection of the 15 entire year. I guess that's it. Thank you.

17 you. Council Member Greenfield.

18 COUNCIL MEMBER GREENFIELD: Thank you
19 Madame Public Advocate, a very happy birthday to our 20 Speaker; that cake looked rather delicious, I'm happy
21 I'm on a diet. I just want to also wish everyone a 22 very Happy Easter and upcoming Happy Passover
23 holidays and enjoy those holidays. I would also like 24 to yield my time to Shanelle Daley, who is in fact a 25 junior Council Member for the day for Council Member

1
2 Cumbo; in the spirit of friendship I am going to give 3 her the opportunity to say something here on the 4 floor of the City Council, a very bright young woman 5 who, I don't know how she did it, but somehow she 6 actually graduated from high school a few months
7 early, which is certainly incredibly impressive. So 8 Shanelle, take it away.

9 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: What gentleman
10 during Women's History Month; I hope that I can count 11 on this level of chivalry throughout the entire year.

12 COUNCIL MEMBER GREENFIELD: For you,
13 Laurie, you know that's always there.

14 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: The clock is 15 running.

16 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: Chivalry is not 17 dead. We wanna bring your attention to Intro 0742.
18 Today is a momentous day that marks the first 19 legislation introduction to amend New York City
20 Percent for Art Local Law. Since 1982 the Percent 21 for Art has remained unchanged as a city, we have 22 grown and matured around it, in three decades much 23 has changed and now our Percent for Art Program must 24 change too. Hit it.

1
2 SHANELLE DALEY: The amendment reads that 3 reasonable advance notification to the community will 4 be given and the project shall be also posted on the 5 website of the Department of Culture Affairs
6 following notification of the intention to include 7 works of art in any project. The Department of 8 Cultural Affairs shall hold one or more public 9 hearings on such works of art prior to such inclusion
10 and notice of such public hearing shall be published 11 in City Record at least 14 days prior to any such 12 hearings.

13 COUNCIL MEMBER CUMBO: Alright. Thank
14 you very much. Thank you very much, Council Member 15 David Greenfield; this was much appreciated. Thank 16 you... [crosstalk]

17 COUNCIL MEMBER GREENFIELD: That was 18 outstanding. Thank you... [crosstalk]

19 PUBLIC ADVOCATE JAMES: Thank you. Thank 20 you. And congratulations to all of the ladies who 21 have served as members of the day for their 22 leadership and for their commitment to civic 23 engagement. I also would like to invite my 24 colleagues to sign onto Intro No. 0731, a bill that 25 would eliminate discrimination against rent-regulated

1 tenants. I'd like to thank the primary sponsor,
2 Corey Johnson for allowing me to co-sponsor this bill
3 with him. As many of you know in this chamber, last 4 year it came to light the actions of several 5 developers and management companies who were 6 discriminating against rent-regulated tenants in 7 their buildings by now allowing them to use building 8 amenities such as gyms, playrooms and storage areas.
9 My office was involved in litigation on this very 10 issue and I've heard from many of my colleagues, 11 including Council Members Johnson, Rosenthal, Torres
12 and Reynoso, all of whom have been outspoken about 13 this issue and I know will be strong supporters as we 14 move this bill forward; this legislation will ensure 15 that all New Yorkers are able to fairly access their 16 building amenities without discrimination.

17
18 All items on today's General Order
19 Calendar were adopted by a vote of 49 in the 20 affirmative, 0 in the negative and 0 abstentions,
21 with the exception of Intro 0689-A, which was adopted
22 by a vote of 46 in the affirmative, 2 in the negative
23 and 1 abstention, and Intro 0690-A, which was adopted
24 by a vote of 46 in the affirmative, 2 in the negative
25 and 1 abstention and the revised Land Use Call-Ups

1
2 were adopted by a vote of 49 in the affirmative, 0
3 negative. And there is a meeting of the Black,
4 Latino and Asian Caucus in the meeting room next door
5 and to close, the Speaker, Melissa Mark-Viverito.

6 SPEAKER MARK-VIVERITO: Thank you Madame
7 Public Advocate. And again, to all the young women, 8 I wish you the best and to Kadesha, it's been a real 9 pleasure spending some time with you and getting to 10 know you and thank you for helping me with the 11 meeting today. So with that, at 3:20, hope everyone 12 has a great afternoon.

13 And please have cake everybody; it was a 14 big cake.
