

blazed the path for a generation of singers from Otis Redding and Wilson Pickett to Aretha Franklin and Al Green;” and

Whereas, Many music historians and admirers believe that Sam Cooke may have been the most important soul singer in history, was the inventor of soul music, and was a most popular and beloved performer in both the black and white communities; and

Whereas, According to Gale Musician Profiles, Cooke also introduced black phrases into the popular music lover’s vocabulary with songs like “Bring It On Home To Me” and his posthumous release “A Change Is Gonna Come,” which according to Gale gave new social overtones to a familiar black expression; and

Whereas, Sam Cooke died a tragic death at the age of 33 in December 1964; and

Whereas, Posthumous honors for Sam Cooke include his 1986 induction as a charter member of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, his 1999 Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award, being listed as #16 in 2004 by Rolling Stone on their list of “100 Greatest Artists of All Time,” and the 2008 declaration by Rolling Stone to be the fourth “Greatest Singer of All Time;” now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the New York City Council honors the life and legacy of Sam Cooke and declares that January 22nd of each year be celebrated as a holiday in memory of this great and renowned singer and songwriter.

MB
LS 1719
6/7/11