

Legislation Details (With Text)

File #: Res 0188-2002 Version: * Name: Condemning Judith Levines book "Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children From Sex"

Type: Resolution Status: Filed

In control: Committee on Youth Services

On agenda: 4/10/2002

Enactment date: Enactment #:

Title: Resolution condemning Judith Levine and her book, "Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children From Sex," in which she encourages minors to have sex and suggests that the statutory age for rape be reduced to 12 years old.

Sponsors: James S. Oddo, Andrew J. Lanza, Dennis P. Gallagher, Joel Rivera

Indexes:

Attachments:

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result
4/10/2002	*	City Council	Introduced by Council
4/10/2002	*	City Council	Referred to Comm by Council
12/31/2003	*	City Council	Filed (End of Session)

Res. No. 188

Resolution condemning Judith Levine and her book, "Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children From Sex," in which she encourages minors to have sex and suggests that the statutory age for rape be reduced to 12 years old.

By Council Members Oddo, Lanza, and Gallagher; also Council Member Rivera

Whereas, Next month the University of Minnesota Press will release a book written by Judith Levine entitled "Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children From Sex;" and

Whereas, This book condones sexual relationships between adults and minors; and

Whereas, Ms. Levine said in an interview about her book that a sexual relationship between a priest and a youth could be positive; and

Whereas, Ms. Levine cites the Dutch sexual age-of-consent law as a "good model" because it permits sex between an adult and a child as young as 12 years old; and

Whereas, Ms. Levine argues that adults who want to deny young people the opportunity for positive sexual experience exaggerate the threat of pedophilia and molestation by strangers; and

Whereas, The nation's largest public policy women's organization, Concerned Women for America's Culture and Family Institute, believe that "Child molesters are getting a big boost toward legitimacy with the University of Minnesota Press' publication of a book advocating sex with children. Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex is every child molester's dream -- and every parent's nightmare;" and

Whereas, This book ignores a key fact - that children as young as 12 years old are incapable of giving meaningful consent to sex, and that any sexual consent given by a 12 year old would be coerced and would cause damage that could last a lifetime; and

Whereas, Although no one disputes the author's First Amendment right to publish this book, it is nonetheless irresponsible to promote arguments that justify the actions of pedophiles; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Council of the City of New York condemns Judith Levine and her book, "Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children From Sex," in which she encourages minors to have sex and suggests that the statutory age for rape be reduced to 12 years old.