RENT REGULATED ACCOMMODATION. The term "rent regulated accommodation" means a building [containing one or more] in which more than 35% of dwelling units are required by law or by an agreement with a governmental entity to be regulated in accordance with the emergency tenant protection act of 1974, the rent stabilization law of 1969, or the local emergency housing rent control act of 1962.

A covered building where at least one dwelling unit is required by law or by an agreement with a governmental entity to be regulated in accordance with the emergency tenant protection act of 1974, the rent stabilization law of 1969, or the local emergency housing rent control act of 1962, but that is not a rent regulated accommodation pursuant to this article, may delay compliance with annual building emissions limits until January 1, 2026, and submission of the first report required by section 28-320.3.7 until May 1, 2027.

§ 3. The definition of "rent regulated accommodation" in section 28-321.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by local law number 147 for the year 2019, is amended to read as follows:
