g. (1) The term of the revocable consent shall be one license period and shall be concurrent with such license period. The term of the renewal of such revocable consent shall be two consecutive license periods and shall be concurrent with such license periods.

(2) The consent shall be [for such term and] upon such conditions as may be provided in the approval of the petition by the department, as such approval may be modified by action of the council pursuant to subdivision f of this section, but shall be revocable at any time by the department. § 3. Section 20-227.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision h to read as follows:

h. For purposes of this section, a person shall not be deemed to be operating an unlicensed sidewalk cafe

if such person:

(1) submitted a timely and complete petition to renew a revocable consent issued pursuant to section 20-225 or 20-226 of this subchapter and such petition has not yet been approved or denied by the department;

(2) held a valid license issued pursuant to section 20-224 of this subchapter at the time such petition to renew a revocable consent was submitted; and

(3) provided proof to the department that such person has cured any violation of this subchapter, or of the terms and conditions of such license or revocable consent within ten days after having been found guilty of such violation, or, where cure within ten days is not possible, at the earliest practicable date.

§ 4. This local law shall take effect one hundred and twenty days after its enactment, provided, however, that the commissioner may take any actions necessary prior to such effective date for the implementation of this local law including, but not limited to, the adoption of any necessary rules.
