Whereas, On October 10, 2003 the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) aired an episode of Law and Order: Special Victims Unit that depicted Dominicans and Mexicans residing in New York as members of violent gangs who are the primary perpetrators of violent crimes; and
Whereas, The episode went so far as to refer to Dominicans and Mexicans as "animals"; and
Whereas, This is not the first instance where NBC has made such stereotypes in regards to New York City's Hispanic population; and
Whereas, On January 24, 2001, NBC aired an episode of Law and Order, seen by 18 million viewers, which used the mayhem that took place after the 2000 National Puerto Rican Day Parade as a backdrop for a fictional murder; and
Whereas, This episode portrayed all of the Latino characters involved as either criminals or as being uncooperative with police; and
Whereas, In 1998, NBC aired an episode of Seinfeld in which the Puerto Rican flag was burned; and
Whereas, Following the airing of the episode activists of the Puerto Rican community held protests which ultimately resulted in NBC issuing an apology; and
Whereas, NBC continues to negatively depict the Latino community of New York City and the New York City Council firmly denounces these types of actions; now, therefore, be it
Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon NBC to apologize for derogatory comments made regarding Dominicans and Mexicans.
