Int. No. 265

By Council Member Weprin, the Speaker (Council Member Miller), and Council Members Diaz, Clarke, Comrie, Davis, Fidler, Gennaro, Gerson, Gioia, Jackson, Jennings, Koppell, Lopez, Martinez, McMahon, Monserrate, Nelson, Reyna, Rivera, Sanders, Seabrook, Stewart, Vann, Yassky, Brewer, Dilan, DeBlasio, Liu and Gallagher; also Council Members Quinn, Recchia, Provenzano, Moskowitz, Lanza and Oddo

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to tax exemptions for low-income elderly persons.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph a of subdivision 3 of section 11-245.3 of the administrative code of city of New York, as last amended by local law number 71 for the year 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(a) if the income of the owner or the combined income of the owners of the property exceeds the sum of [twenty] twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars for the income tax year immediately preceding the date of making application for exemption. Income tax year shall mean the twelve month period for which the owner or owners filed a federal personal income tax return, or if no such return is filed, the calendar year. Where title is vested in either the husband or the wife, their combined income may not exceed such sum, except where the husband or wife, or ex-husband or ex-wife is absent from the property as provided in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of this subdivision, then only the income of the spouse or ex-spouse residing on the property shall be considered and may not exceed such sum. Such income shall include social security and retirement benefits, interest, dividends, total gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset which may be offset by a loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset in the same income tax year, net rental income, salary or earnings, and net income from self-employment, but shall not include gifts, inheritances, or a return of capital, and veterans disability compensation, as defined in title 38 of the United States Code, and any such income shall be offset by all medical and prescription drug expenses actually paid which were not reimbursed or paid for by insurance. In computing net rental income and net income from self-employment no depreciation deduction shall be allowed for the exhaustion, wear and tear of real or personal property held for the production of income.

§2. Subdivision 7 of section 11-245.3 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as last amended by local law number 71 for the year 2000, is amended to read as follows:

7. Notwithstanding the maximum income exemption eligibility level provided in subdivision three of this section, an exemption, subject to all other provisions of this section, shall be granted as indicated in the following schedule:

Annual Income Assessed	Percentage Valuation Exempt From Taxation
More than $[20,500] 21,500 but less than $[21,500] 22,500	45 per centum
