A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to prohibiting acts of harassment at schools.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings: The Council finds that many students, teachers, administrators and others in the New York city school communities are plagued by harassing behavior which interferes with students' educational performance, opportunities and emotional or physical well-being and the well-being of the entire school community. Accordingly, the Council finds that it is necessary to establish strong policies in our City's schools prohibiting harassment for any reason including reasons based on, but not limited to, a person's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ethnic group, religion, religious practice, disability, sexual orientation, gender, sex, family composition or circumstance, economic circumstance, physical appearance, mannerisms, bearing, school performance or any other characteristic or reason that may not be apparent.

3. “Retaliatory action” shall mean, but not be limited to, dismissal, demotion, suspension, disciplinary action, negative performance evaluation, any action resulting in loss of staff, compensation or other benefit, failure to hire, failure to appoint, failure to promote, or transfer or assignment or failure to transfer or assign against the wishes of the affected person.
