Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

§ 20-563.9 Denial, renewal, suspension and revocation of license. In addition to any powers of the commissioner and not in limitation thereof, the commissioner may deny or refuse to renew any license required under this subchapter and may suspend or revoke any such license, after due notice and opportunity to be heard, if the applicant or licensee, or, where applicable, any of its officers, principals, directors, members, managers, employees, or stockholders owning more than ten percent of the outstanding stock of the corporation, is found to have:

d. Committed two or more violations of chapter fifteen of title twenty of this code and any rules promulgated thereunder in the preceding two years.

§ 2. Subchapter 2 of chapter 15 of title 20 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by a local law for the year 2021 amending the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to establishing general provisions related to working conditions for third-party service workers and requiring that third-party food delivery services permit delivery workers to set limitations on distance and route for deliveries, as proposed in introduction number 2289-A for the year 2021, is amended by adding a new section 20-1524 to read as follows:

§ 20-1524 Insulated food delivery bags. a. 1. A third-party food delivery service or third-party courier service shall provide at its own expense, or ensure the availability of, an insulated food delivery bag to each food delivery worker, provided that such worker has completed at least six deliveries for such service. Such service may not require any food delivery worker to provide an insulated food delivery bag at such worker's expense. Such insulated food delivery bag must be designed for use in accordance with section 1235 of the vehicle and traffic law.

2. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the use of insulated delivery bags by food delivery workers.
