Int. No. 889

By Council Member Lancman

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the availability of automated teller machines in courthouses

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 9-301 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law 23 for the year 2018, is amended by adding a new definition of “arraignment” in alphabetical order to read as follows:

Arraignment. The term “arraignment” means an arraignment conducted pursuant to title H of the criminal procedure law.

§ 2. Chapter 3 of title 9 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 9-307 to read as follows:

§ 9-307 Availability of automated teller machines in courthouses. a. The office shall make reasonable efforts to work with the office of court administration to secure installation of automated teller machines in all courthouses in the city of New York where arraignments are conducted and to ensure that:

1. Such automated teller machines are in close proximity to bail payment windows or the courtrooms where arraignments are conducted.

2. Such automated teller machines are accessible to the public at all times that arraignments are conducted.

3. There are signs conspicuously posted adjacent to such automated teller machines that provide a phone number to call if the automated teller machine ceases to work.

b. No later than March 31 of each calendar year, the office shall submit to the council, and post on its website, a report on the availability of automated teller machines in courthouses in the city of New York where arraignments are conducted. The report shall include:

1. The number of such courthouses that do and do not have automated teller machines.

2. In such courthouses that have automated teller machines, the proximity of such automated teller machines to bail payment windows and the courtrooms where arraignments are conducted, the days and times that such automated teller machines are accessible to the public and whether such days and times include all times that arraignments are conducted.

3. The presence or absence of signs adjacent to such automated teller machines that provide a phone number to call if the automated teller machine ceases to work.

4. The office's efforts in the prior calendar year to work with the office of court administration to secure the installation of automated teller machines in all such courthouses.

§ 3. This local law takes effect 30 days after it becomes law.
