Int. No. 443-A

By Council Members Vallone Jr, Fidler, Jennings, Stewart and Gennaro

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to reporting by the police department.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section One. Subdivision c of section 14-149 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§ 14-149. Police 911 operational time analysis report.

c.   The data contained in the 911operational time analysis report required by paragraphs two through seven of subdivision b of this section shall be provided on a citywide, borough-wide, precinct-by-precinct and tour-by-tour basis. The 911 operational time analysis report shall be submitted to the council quarterly. In addition, the data contained in such report shall be incorporated in the mayor's preliminary and final management reports. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the operational time analysis report required by subdivision b to be submitted to the council is not required to be transmitted in electronic format to the department of records and information services, or its successor agency, and is not required to be made available to the public on or through the department of records and information services' web site, or its successor's web site.

§2.   Subdivision b of section 14-150 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§14-150. Police department reporting requirements.

b. The information, data and reports requested in subdivision a shall be provided to the council except where disclosure of such material could compromise the safety of the public or police officers or could otherwise compromise law enforcement operations. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the information, data and reports requested in subdivision a are not required to be transmitted in electronic format to the department of records and information services, or its successor agency, and are not required to be made available to the public on or through the department of records and information services' web site, or its successor's web site. These reports shall be provided to the council within 30 days of the end of the reporting period to which the reports correspond or for which the relevant data may be collected, whichever is later. Where necessary, the department may use preliminary data to prepare the required reports and may include an acknowledgment that such preliminary data is non-final and subject to change.

§3. This local law shall be effective immediately.
