Int. No. 678

By Council Members Avella and James

A Local Law to amend the New York city charter, in relation to requiring specific experience based qualifications for candidates nominated for appointment to serve on the Landmarks Preservation Commission.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subsection 1 of Section 3020 of the New York city charter is amended to read as follows:

§3020. Landmarks preservation commission. 1. There shall be a landmarks preservation commission consisting of eleven members. The membership of such commission shall include at least three architects, one historian qualified in the field, one city planner or landscape architect, and one realtor. Each candidate for membership shall have demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the historical and architectural heritage of the city, shall have experience in safeguarding the historical and architectural heritage of the city and shall have demonstrated the commitment to independence in exercising judgment on the historic and architectural merits of proposed designations without regard to outside interests. The membership shall include at least one resident of each of the five boroughs.

§2. This local law shall take effect thirty (30) days after its ratification by the voters at the next general election.
