A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to telephone order charges by third-party food delivery services while a state of emergency has been declared and food service establishments are prohibited from operating at maximum indoor occupancy and for 90 days thereafter

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision b of section 20-847 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by local law number 51 for the year 2020, is amended to read as follows:

b. The requirements of this section apply only during [a declared emergency] the period in which a state disaster emergency has been declared by the governor of the state of New York or a state of emergency has been declared by the mayor, such declaration is in effect in the city, and all food service establishments in the city are prohibited from operating at the maximum indoor occupancy and for a period of 90 days [after the end of a declared emergency] thereafter.

§ 2. This local law takes effect immediately.
