Int. No. 567

By Council Members Feliz, Brewer, Yeger, Avilés and Nurse

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to prohibiting homeless families with children from being housed in private buildings with multiple class C housing maintenance code violations

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 3 of title 21 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 21-328 to read as follows:

§ 21-328 Housing families in private buildings with multiple class C violations prohibited. The department shall not temporarily house any homeless families with children in private buildings with more than five class C violations issued by the department of housing preservation and development until such violations have been corrected as certified by the department of housing preservation and development.

§ 2. This local law takes effect immediately, except that it shall not apply to homeless families with children housed in private buildings with more than five class C violations on the effective date of this local law.
