Int. No. 818-A

By Council Members Brewer, Hanif, Restler, Hudson, Joseph, Abreu, Narcisse, Rivera and Cabán

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of consumer and worker protection to implement an outreach and education campaign regarding the Temporary Schedule Change Act

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subchapter 6 of chapter 12 of title 20 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 20-1264 to read as follows:

§ 20-1264 Outreach and Education. a. The commissioner shall conduct an ongoing outreach and education campaign about the provisions of this subchapter.

1. Such outreach and education shall be provided to employers, employees and members of the public who are likely to be affected by this law.

2. The department shall develop and distribute to employers written and electronic materials containing information related to this subchapter.

3. Employers shall distribute written and electronic materials created by the department directly to their employees in both electronic and print format.

b. The materials required by this section shall be made available in English and the designated citywide languages as provided in section 23-1101.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 120 days after it becomes law.
