Int. No. 1256

By Council Members Farías, Riley, Hanif, Hudson and Gutiérrez

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the establishment of a municipal human milk bank

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 1 of title 17 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 17-199.25 to read as follows:

§ 17-199.25 Municipal human milk bank. a. Definitions. As used in this section, the term "human milk bank" means an organized service for the selection of donors and the collection, processing, storage, or distribution of human breast milk for infants or children other than the donor's own infant.

b. Human milk bank. The department, or another agency or entity designated by the mayor, shall take all necessary steps to obtain any required licenses or approvals to establish and operate a human milk bank and, upon receipt of such licenses or approval, establish and operate a human milk bank.

§ 2. This local law takes effect 30 days after it becomes law.
