Int. No. 98

By Council Members Williams, Riley, Stevens, Louis, Restler, Krishnan, Hudson, Farias, Schulman, Marte, Bottcher, Salaam, Cabán, Avilés, Ossé, Gennaro, Sanchez, Banks, Narcisse, Hanks, Won and Brooks-Powers A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring the department of correction and correctional health services to establish a medical clinic to treat persons transported to a court facility

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 9-108 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding new subdivision f to read as follows:

f. Court medical clinic;

1. The department, in conjunction with correctional health services, shall maintain a medical clinic to be staffed by one or more health care professionals from correctional health services in all New York city criminal court or criminal term of New York state supreme court facilities;

2. For each person with a scheduled court appearance, correctional health services shall prepare a document that indicates whether that person requires food, medication, or other medical services while in a court facility;

3. When a person is in the department's custody within a court facility, the department shall provide access to the medical clinic established in paragraph 1 of this subdivision to those with a dietary or medical need recorded in the document prepared pursuant to paragraph 2 of this subdivision.

§ 2. This local law takes effect in 120 days.
