Social media company. The term “social media company” means an individual or entity that provides a social media website, program, or application.

Youth. The term “youth” means any person under the age of 17.

b. Restricted social media usage. A social media company shall prohibit:

1. Youth from using social media for longer than 1 hour per day, unless waived by a parent or guardian in writing; and

2. The targeting, advertising, or suggestion to youth of groups, services, products, posts, accounts, or users.

c. Private right of action. Any person, including any organization, alleging a violation of this subchapter may bring a civil action against a social media company, in accordance with applicable law, in any court of competent jurisdiction. A prevailing party may recover:

1. An award of reasonable attorney fees and court costs;

2. An amount equal or greater to $5000 per each incident of violation; and

3. Actual damages for financial, physical, and emotional harm incurred by the person bringing the action, if the court determines that the harm is a direct consequence of the violation or violations.

d. Enforcement powers of the department. The department may impose an administrative fine of $5000 for each violation of this section.

§ 2. This local law will take effect 180 days after it becomes law.
