Int. No. 713

By Council Members Weprin and Gonzalez

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to portable storage containers.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter one of title 28 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 28-505 to read as follows:

§28-505 Permit for portable storage containers. a. For the purposes of this section, “portable storage container” shall mean any weather resistant boxlike container transported by truck or trailer to a desired location and designed for the outdoor storage of personal property of household goods for temporary use only. For the purposes of this section, dumpsters, the trailer portion of a tractor-trailer, or prefabricated sheds, shall not be considered a portable storage container.

b. No person shall place a portable storage container on residential property unless a permit for such container has been issued by the commissioner. Such permit shall be for a period of no more than six months and may be renewed for one additional six-month period at the discretion of the commissioner.

§2. This local law shall take effect ninety days after its enactment.
