Proposed Int. No. 196-A

By Council Members Greenfield, Constantinides, Gentile and Lancman

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to allowing community boards to determine whether parking meter regulations are in effect on Saturday and/or Sunday.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 19-167 of subchapter 2 of chapter 1 of title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

§ 19-167. Suspending the activation of parking meters on Sundays or Saturdays. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person parking a vehicle at a parking meter is required to activate such meter on a Sunday and no notice of violation or summons may be issued solely for the failure to activate such parking meter, except that, upon written request from a community board, the department shall, in the community district represented by such community board change the suspension of parking meters from Sunday to Saturday, have parking meters in effect on both Saturday and Sunday, or have parking meters not in effect for either of such days..

§ 2. This local law shall take effect immediately upon enactment into law.
