a. The Regulatory Agreement shall provide that Sponsor (i) shall exercise any and all available options to obtain and renew Section 8 rental assistance or any substantially similar rental assistance from the United States government ("Federal Subsidy") for all eligible tenants, (ii) shall not cause the Federal Subsidy to be terminated by reason of Sponsor's non-compliance with any of the terms thereof, and (iii) shall not voluntarily cause or permit the Federal Subsidy to expire, to not be extended, to not be renewed, or to be terminated (collectively, "Federal Subsidy Obligation").

b. The Regulatory Agreement shall provide that (i) one hundred percent (100%) of the dwelling units in the Exemption Area shall be rented to persons with a minimum age of 62 years and earning not more than eighty percent (80%) of the median income for the area, as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development or its successors, as adjusted for family size ("Area Median Income"), (ii) tenants in occupancy on the Effective Date shall not pay more than thirty percent (30%) of their incomes for rent, and (iii) tenants occupying dwelling units in the Exemption Area that were or became vacant on or after the Effective Date shall not pay more than thirty percent (30%) of eighty percent (80%) of Area Median Income for rent (collectively "Low Income Obligation").

subject to any cure provisions in the Regulatory Agreement, that Sponsor has violated the Regulatory Agreement, including, but not limited to, the Federal Subsidy Obligation or the Low Income Obligation.

4. In consideration of the tax exemption provided hereunder, the Sponsor, for so long as the tax exemption provided hereunder shall remain in effect, shall waive the benefits, if any, of additional or concurrent real property tax abatement and/or tax exemption which may be authorized under any existing or future local, state, or federal law, rule or regulation.
