Int. No. 788

By Council Members Borelli, Louis, Brewer, Powers, Richardson Jordan and Ariola

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the administration of the firefighter written examination to individuals on active military duty

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 2 of title 12 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 12-212 to read as follows:

§ 12-212 Administration of firefighter written examination to individuals on active military duty. The department of citywide administrative services shall offer individuals who are unable to be present in the city on the scheduled test date for an open-competitive firefighter civil service written examination due to active military duty, as defined in section 243 of the military law, the option to complete such examination in locations outside of the city that the department of citywide administrative services determines to be more easily accessible to such individuals.

§ 3. This local law takes effect 90 days after it becomes law, except that the commissioner of citywide administrative services may take such measures as are necessary for the implementation of this local law before such date.
